"THE LATEST IN VIOLETS."

So great was the success of a "Yard of Roses" offered by The Oregonian to advertisers in the Sunday issue of November 25 that the management will again present to patrons who may offer paid advertisements for the "classified" columns a work of art that in its effects of a striking piece of fine engraving work more than vies in beauty with "A Yard of Roses." As a reproduction of a charming display of fashion's most popular flower, the violet, the engraving which The Oregonian offers patrons this week is one of the prettiest pieces of lithographic work ever shown on the Coast. This paper enjoys the sole rights of distribution in Portland.

When mailed to out-of-town patrons of the classified columns next Sunday, a 2-cent stamp will be required for postage. Advertisers who may want extra copies of this engraving may purchase the same at a price of 25 cents a copy.
