TRIED TO KILL HIMSELF.

Wife-Benter Cut His Throat, but

Didn't Go Deep Enough.

Fritz Poal, . prisoner at the County Jali, made an unsuccessful attempt to take his life yesterday morning by slash-ing his throat with a razor. This was discovered by Jajier Mitchell, when he unlocked the cells at 6 o'clock in the morning. When Poal's cell was opened he fell out upon the floor, with the gaping wound still bleeding. County Physician McKay was immediately called, and the man was taken to the hospital at the poor farm. Two hours' work in sewing up his wound placed him out of immediate danfarm. Two hours' work in sewing up his wound placed him out of immediate dan-ger. Poal had committed the act very rors in advertisements taken through the telesingerly, and had failed to sever the windpipe or the jugular veln. The rezor he stole from his bunkmate, who had he stole from his bunkmate, who had been given it by Jailer Mitchell for a morning shave. Poal has spent much of his time in jail. He has the reputation of treating his wife and children cruelly, and Thanks giving day drove her and the children out of the house and fed the holiday tur-key and dinner to the dogs. He was strested for drunkenness, and managed to get out of the juil by passing himself off for a friend for whom ball had been sent. He was given his friend's money and personal belongings. When the mistake was discovered he was arrested again and convicted of incomy. Previously, while in juli, he has attempted to dash out his brains, but has always lacked courage to carry out his sujcidal intentions.

From Pen of Henry Drummond. FORTLAND, Dec. 11.-(To the Editor.) -The quotation, "I shall pass through this world but once. Any good thing. therefore, that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any human being, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again," is from the pen of Henry Drummond. MRS. C. E. SHIPLEY.
