THE LATE IGNATIUS DONNELLY.

Bar Fixtures .Newest Designs...

Billiard Tables .. Pool Tables ..

Billiard Supplies .. and Repairs .. ROTHCHILD BROS.,

20-26 N. First St., Portland.

Bowling Alley .. Supplies and Repairs.

WRITE FOR CATALOGUE AND PRICE LIST

During the month of December WE WILL RETAIL

Cameras and Photographic Supplies

AT WHOLESALE PRICES BLUMAUER-FRANK DRUG CO.

144-146 FOURTH STREET, PORTLAND, OR.

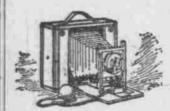

EXCLUSIVE CARPET

G. Mack & Co. 88 Third St., esite Chamber of Commerce

. . $1.00, $1.50, $2.00 per Day

During January

sale, which includes all depart-

WOODARD, CLARKE & CO. Cor. Fourth and Washington Sts.

SUPERIOR

Stoves and Ranges

Cannot be surpassed in utility, operation and cooking qualities. They are neatly designed and exhibit the highest degree of workmanship.

Call and Examine Them. We feel assured you will consider them

"Superior"

Honeyman, DeHart & Co. Fourth and Alder Sts.

Electric Night Lamps

halls, etc.

Our 10 C. P. Shelby regular lamp gives more light than 16 C. P. of any other make: consumes less current. These immps are indorsed all leading authorities. We guarantee them. A full 16 C. P., 32 C. P.
and 10 C. P.

25 varieties electric reading lights; special light, reading in bed. Andirons in good designs for $1.50 pair and up.

The John Barrett Co.

THE PORTLAND

$3.00 PER DAY and upward.

COST ONE MILLION DOLLARS

HEADQUARTERS FOR TOURISTS AND COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS

Special rates made to families and single gentlemen. The management will be pleased at all times to show rooms and give prices. A modern Turkish bath establishment in the hotel. H. C. BOWERS, Maunger.

The Pleasures of Hand Playing

The Pianola admits of the effects and pleasures of hand playing, for the player regulates the expression, which is the soul of music.

M. B. WELLS, Northwest Agent for the Acolian Company Aeolian Hall, 353-355 Washington Street, cor. Park, Portland, Or.

We are Sole Agents for the Pianola; also for the Steinway, the Chase and the Emerson Bankwrecker Released.

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 1.-Warren F. Putney, formerly president of the National Granite State Rank, at Exeter, who, in 1886, was sentenced to serve five years in the state prison, was released today, 208 cays of his sentence having been commuted for good behavior.

Heavy Crops in Hexico.

PHOENIX, Aris, Jan. 1.—Advices from Northern Mexico state that crops all over that republic are heavy this year, owing to a prolonged season of damp weather. Reports that there is financial degreesion in certain sections of Mexico. ression in certain sections of Mexico

George Magill Pardoned.

JOLIET, III., Jan. 1.—George L. Magill, after nine morths' imprisonment in the positentiary here for receiving deposits in the Avenue Savings Bank, of which he was president, after he knew the institu-tion to be insolvent, was pardoned today by Governor Tanner.

Argentina's Wheat Surplus.

BUENOS AYRES Jan. 1.—The Minister of Agriculture, Dr. Martin Garcia Merco, in his annual report estimates that there will be 1.30,000 tons of wheat available. able for export this season. He says also that the corn crop is good.

President McKinley's New Year's Reception.

WAS A BRILLIANT FUNCTION

Mistress of the Executive Mansion Participated in the Occasion With the President-Long Line of Disguished Guests Greeted.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1—In the long line of New Year's receptions at the White House, none, perhaps, was more brilliant than the one which today ushered in the 20th century. And perhaps no feature of it was so universally gratifying to the distinguished throng that came to extend the greetings of the new year to the chief executive of the Republic as the fact that the mistress of the White House was able to participate in the happy occasion, and, with the President, to receive the felicitations and well wishes of all.

The day dawned dull and gray, but the

The day dawned dull and gray, but the air was soft and balmy. Towards 11 o'clock, when the reception opened, the sun burst through the clouds, brightening the white walls and pillars of the historic old mansion until it shone like ala-baster and touched the stripes of the giorious American flag that floated above it with streaks of flame.

The grounds of the mansion presented

The grounds of the mansion presented a sitring scene as the carriages began to arrive, and the long line of Army and Navy officers, in full uniform, formed to the left of the massive portecochere. Within, and under the glamour of myriads of electric lights, which were reflected in the happy faces of the shifting throng, all was brilliancy. The Marine band, stationed under the stairway, discoursed National airs and lively marches throughout the ceremony. the ceremony.

The members of the Cabinet and their The members of the Cabinet and their wives, together with the ladles of the receiving party, were the first to arrive. They laid aside their wraps in the state dining-room and went to the President's room, where they exchanged greetings with Mr. and Mrs. McKinley. The ladles of the receiving party entered the red and blue parlors and took their places behind the line. Meantime, the Ambassadors and Ministers of foreign countries with the Ministers of foreign countries, with the attaches of the various legations, in their gorgoous and resplendent court uniforms, had gathered in the state dining-room.

Promptly at it o'clock the bugles sounded the approach of the Presidential party.

ed the approach of the Presidential party, and, led by Colonel Bingham, the master of ceremonies, and Major McCawley, of the Marine Corps, the President and Mrs. McKinley descended the main stairway, followed by the members of the Cabinet and their wives. As the party passed along to the receiving room, the President reflected in his smilling face his health and happiness. He bowed repeatedly to the crowds assembled in the corridors, greeting many of them with well edly to the crowds assembled in the corridors, greeting many of them with well wishes of the day. Mrs. McKinley also bestowed her gracious greetings upon many in the throng, and when three sweet-faced children near the front chirped a "Happy New Tenr" to the first lady of the land, she took a handful of buds from her exquisite bouquet of white roses and tossed them to the children.
The party passed into the blue parlor and took their places, while the full Marine band burst forth with the stirring strains of "Hail to the Chief."

Ladies in the Receiving Line. In addition to the ladies of the Cabinet, the following ladies were invited to oc-cupy places behind the line, and nearly all of them were present: The Misses all of them were present: The Misses Hay, Miss Cox, Miss Root, Misses Griggs.

Hay, Miss Cox, Miss Root, Misses Griggs, Misses Hitchcock, Miss Cattlin, Miss McKittlek, Mrs. Abner McKinley, Mrs. George B. Cortelyou, Miss Hinds, Mrs. T. A. Bingham, Mrs. David J. Hill, Mrs. F. W. Hackett, Mrs. J. K. Richards, Mrs. Fuller, the Misses Fuller, Mrs. Aubrey, Miss Wallace, Mrs. Harlan, the Misses Harlan, Mrs. Gray, Miss Brewer, Mrs. Harlan, Mrs. Gray, Miss Brewer, Mrs. Karrick, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Shiras, Mrs. White, Mrs. Peckham, Mrs. McKenna, the Misses McKenna, Mrs. McKenna, the Misses Hanna, Miss Phelps, Mrs. J. C. Burrows, Mrs. S. M. Cullom, Miss Ridgley, Miss Fisher, Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, Mrs. Charles W. Pairbanks, Mrs. Charles W. Pairbanks, Mrs. Henry Erkins, Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks, Mrs. J. K. Jones, the Misses Kean, Mrs. Henry Cabot Lodge, Mrs. A. P. Gardner, Mrs. James McMillan, Miss McMillan, the Misses Morgan, Mrs. O. P. Platt, Mrs. T. C. Platt, Mrs. Redileid Proctor, Miss Proctor, Mrs. Henry A. Teller, Mrs. C. Platt, Mrs. Redfield Proctor, Miss Proctor, Mrs. Henry A. Teller, Mrs. Joseph B. Foraker, the Misses Foraker, Mrs. William B. Bate, Mrs. Eugene Hale, Mrs. D. B. Henderson, Mrs. John Dalzell, Mrs. Charles H. Grosvenor, Mrs. S. E. Payne, Mrs. George W. Steele, Mrs. Robert R. Hitt, Miss Richardson, Mrs. J. H. Ketcham, Miss Ketcham, Miss Wilson, Mrs. W. S. Kerr, Miss Kerr, Mrs. J. H. Ketcham, Miss Cox, Mrs. J. C. Sbley, Miss Stbley, Mrs. Miss, Mrs. Parsons, Mrs. J. M. Wilson, Miss Waller, Mrs. George M. Sternberg, Mrs. Dewey, Mrs. P. M. Rixey, Mrs. English, Mrs. W. K. Van Reypen, Miss Van Reypen, Mrs. U. S. Grant, Mrs. Sartoris, the Misses Sartoris, Mrs. Philip Sheridan, the Misses Sheridan, Mrs. Daniel Manning, Mrs. toris, Mrs. Philip Sheridan, the Misses Sheridan, Mrs. Daniel Manning, Mrs. Charles G. Dawes, Mrs. Harriet Lane, Miss Johnston, Miss Kennedy. Mrs. J. Stanley Brown, Mrs. Gardeid, Mrs. James G. Blaine, Mrs. H. S. Beale, Mrs. Emmons Blaine, Mrs. Buckingham, Mrs. S. Rand, Mss. Nicholas Anderson, Mrs. James McMillan, Mrs. George Fabyan, Mrs. Walsh, Mrs. H. O. Hetsland, Mrs. Henry Matthews, Mrs. Leiter, the Misses Leiter, Mrs. Towngend, Mrs. H. B. Maccelter, Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. H. B. Mac-ariand, the Muses Ross, Mrs. Tenny tose and Mrs. H. L. Beach. The elegant toilets of the ladies in the

receiving party formed a feature of the brilliant spectacle. Mrs. McKinley wore a gown of her favorite color-pale blue. The material was heavily embossed satin and panne velvet, and was trimmed with

Throughout the remainder of the day the pearl and turquoise bands and a profusion of point lace. She were a diamond necklace, a diamond brooch, another gleaming ortament in her hair, and carried a large bunch of white roses.

Mrs. Gage were black velvet trimmed with spangied lace and touches of blue velvet. Mrs. Wolcott were French gray creps de chine, in which renaissance lace showed the pink liming. Mrs. Smith were coral pink silk with black velvet trimmed with rows of git braid and edges of dark fur. Miss Hair, were black net with limentons of yellow lace, Miss Alice Hay, white broadcloth: Miss Root, yellow, creps. Misses riggs, light silk tolicites; Mrs. Crotelyou, white sath trimmed with much composure, remaining limentons of yellow lace, Miss Alice Hay, white broadcloth: Miss Root, yellow, creps. Misses riggs, light silk tolicites; Mrs. Crotelyou, white sath trimmed with much composure, remaining limentons of yellow lace, Miss Alice Hay, white broadcloth: Miss Root, yellow, creps. Misses riggs, light silk tolicites; Mrs. Crotelyou, white sath trimmed with much composure, remaining a singulate the President throughout. At one time, as a little girl stepped through, creps. Misses riggs, light silk tolicites; Mrs. Crotelyou, white lace; Mrs. Butter, and the with lace; Mrs. Crotelyou, white lace; Mrs. Later on, a segre mammy held down a tiny bay while Mrs. McKline; chucked the trunder like child and tucked a rose-bud amount of the manison.

It was 2 o'check when the end of the little grid. Later on the manison until the ceresions of the manison until the ceresions of the manison until the ceresions of the manison until the ceresions and finite and tucked a rose-bud and claimonds; Miss Nain-lace, Mrs. McKline; of the minute delicities of the little grid. Admiral gilt cloth; Mrs. Thomas F, Walah, Russian lace over white, with touches of pale panne velvet and diamond ornaments; Mrs. George Fabyan, of Chicago, white satin princess dress with duchess lace and hat of white roses; Mrs. Sartoris, white cloth; Mrs. R. R. Hitt, sapphire velvet with a skirt of black and yellow lace; Mrs. Robert McCormick, white satin and lace.

lace; Mrs. Robert McCormick, white satin and lace.

Lady Pauncefole wore a quiet tollette of black silk. Her daughters were in cloth dresses. Mrs. Aspiros wore an elegant dress of black silk and a short wrap of jetted black velvet and a black hat. Mrs. Perez was exceedingly attractive in a walking dress of heavy corded white silk trimmed with silk appliques. A large black picture hat was also worn. Miss Duque, who accompanied her relatives, the Ambassador of Mexico and Mrs. Aspiros, wore as light silk and a brown tulle hat. Mrs. Helgenmuller wore brown velvet with a must and boa of pink chenilie. Viscountess Santo Thryso wore dark blue silk with a yoke of beaded red silk. Mrs. Leger wore gray brocaded satin with silk with a yoke of beaded red silk. Mrs. Leger wore gray broanded satin with trimmings of lace and a large brown hat. The Duchess of Arcos, wife of the Spanish Minister, wore one of her handsomest dresses, dark silk, bordered with rich embroideries. A great diamond gleamed in the center of her black headdress. Mrs. Takahira, the Japanese Minister's wife, came in for a great deal of attention from Mrs. McKinley, who exchanged more than usual greetings with her. She more than usual greetings with her. She was in a stylish pink cloth dress, with gilt trimmings and were a lace toque trimmed with pink roses.

Receiving the Envoys. After the receiving party had taken their places, the long line of guests began to move. First in the line came the Ambassadors and Ministers from foreign courts, accompanied by their full staffs. At their head was the venerable and dignified Lord Paunesfote. British Ambas-At their head was the venerable and dignified Lord Pauncefote, British Ambassador and dean of the diplomatic corps, in the full uniform of his high diplomatic rank. With him were Lady Pauncefote, the Misses Pauncefote and the Ambassadorial staff. Following them came Baron Fava, the Italian Ambassador; Dr. Von Hollenben, the German Ambassador; M. Cambon, the French Ambassador; Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, and Senor Don Aspiros, the Mexican Ambassador, each accompanied by his staff and ladies. The French Ambassador returned only last night from Paris, having come on at this time to extend to turned only last night from Paris, nav-ing come on at this time to extend to the President the felicitation of the new year. The Chinese Minister in his rich Oriental silks, accompanied by Mme. Wu, in an elaborately embroidered gown, attracted much attention.

After the Ambassadors and Ministers came the Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the United States Supreme came the United States Supreme Court, the Judges of the Court of Appeals, Senators and Representatives in Congress, ex-Cabinet officers and Ministers of the United States.

As the guests now began to move from room to room of the spacious mansion, a scene of beauty and brilliancy met the eye. From the state dining-room the guests passed into the red parior, where the rich, red furnishings, tapestries and walls were set off with a wealth of follage and flowers. Along the mantel were ranged the fragrant red begons and the flaming poinsetts, while below the central chandeller arose superb clusters of American beauty roses.

The Due room was the guater of attention, for here the Presidential party received, surrounded by the members of the Cabinet and thoir indices and those invited to assist in receiving. The curtains father-in-law, Barton Hanson, and soon became unconscious. A physician was summoned, who said that the attack was due to heart failure, and that there was little chance of the patient's recovery. Mr. Donnelly passed away surrounded by a number of his relatives, a sorrowful little group that watched by the bedside. At the last general election Mr. Donnelly was candidate for Vice-President on the Middle-of-the-Road Populist ticked. He was active during the campaign, and spoke in Minneapolis and other cities. the Cabinet and their ladies and those in-vited to assist in receiving. The curtains were drawn, and the shaded electric globes threw a soft radiant light on the delicate blue of the room and the bril-liant assemblage. From the superb chandeller hung a profusion of smilax, and from the apex of the festoons burst a gorgeous mass of flawers. Across the front of the room a line of lounges formed an aight theorem, which the lone line of an aisle through which the long line of guests proceeded.

Immediately to the left stood the Presi-dent and Mrs. McKinley receiving each guest as Colonel Bingham announced the From the blue room the line passed through the room and then into the spacious east room. Here the win-dows, mantels and walls were massed dows, mantels and waits were massed with tail paims and flowering plants. One of the pleasing incidents of the musical programme was the eighth number, en-titled "Fantasia of Timely Thoughts," a medley of Mrs., McKinley's favorite airs compiled in her honor by Director San-telman, of the Marine Band.

Soldiers and Sailors. At 11:40 the officers of the Army, Navy and Marine Corps, brave in gold lace, appeared. According to custom the Army had precedence over the Navy, and this contingent was headed by Lieutenant-General Miles and Adjutant-General Corbin, each in the full uniform of his ex-alted rank. The Naval section was head-ed by Admiral Dewey and his staff, and the Marine Corps by Brigadier-General Haywood. The colors of the various Haywood. The colors of the various arms of the Army service, the yellow, red and white of the cavairy, artillery and infantry, the deep blue of the Navy, and the light blue of the Marine Corps, with the plume-graced chapeaux and helmets, now sifted through the assemblage and gave it additional color and life. The reception at this point was at its height. The members of the diplomatic corps the diplomatic soon after departed to attend the func-tion at the residence of Secretary Hay, who entertained them at breakfast. At noon appeared the regents and sec-retary of the Smithsonian Institute, the Commissioner of Fisheries, the Civil Commissioner of Fisheries, the Civil Service Commissioners, the members of the Interstate Commerce Commission, th commissioner of Labor, the assistant secretaries of the various departments, the Treasurer of the United States, Commissioner of Patents, Director of the Cansus, Controller of the Currency and heads of bureaus.

They were followed at 12:15 P. M. by the Associated Veterans of the Mexican War, about half a dozen in number; the G. A. R., the military order of the Loyal Legion, the Union Veterans' Union, Span-ish War Veterans and the members of the Oldest Inhabitants' Association of the District of Columbia.

At 13:30 the general public was admit-ted and for an hour in one continuous stream the people passed through the pariors extending their greetings to their President.

Throughout the remainder of the day the wives of the various Cubinst officers.

Politician and Author Passed Away Suddenly.

WAS SICK ONLY A FEW HOURS

The End Came While He Was Surrounded by a Number of Relatives at the Home of His Father-inon the Middle-or-the-Road ropular hex-et. He was active during the campaign, and spoke in Minneapolis and other cities of the state a number of times. Mr. Don-nelly, married about three years ago Miss Hanson, a daughter of Barton Hanson, of this city, and since then they made their this city, and since then they made their home in Minneapolis, although Mr. Don-nelly owned several farms, where they Judge Lewis Gottschalk.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 1 - Judge Lewis Gottschalk died of heart disease early this morning. By a queer coinci-dence, this was his birthday, and he was just 62 years old. He was a Captain in the Union Army during the Civil War. He was elected City Attorney of St. Louis in 1864, and resigned his commission in the Army to enter upon his new duties

Later he served six years as Circuit ludge of Missouri, was a member of the State Senate, serving for considerable time as President pro tem. o. that bedy, and was for eight months acting Governor of Missouri. In 1884 he came to Los Angeles, and in 1889 was appointed by Presi-dent Harrison as Consul at Stuttgart, which position he filled for three and a Ebenezer Upham.

a great many years partner of Frank W. Palmer, the present Government printer, died at his home in this city last night,

Rev. Hannibal Goodwin.

NEW TORK, Jan. L.—After serving M rears as a rector of the House of Prayer, in Newark, N. J., the Rev. Hannibal Goodwin is dead, at his home in that city. He was known as an advanced churchman of the Episcopalian High School and the inventor of a well-known film for photographic work. He was 78

Oldest Railway Man.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 1.—A. W. Millspaugh, the oldest railway man in the United States in point of active service, died at his home here today. Millspaugh was born in Middletown, N. Y., in 1814.

MACARTHUR'S RECEPTION.

Americans and Filipinos Mingled in years old.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Jan. 1.-Ebenezer Upham, a former publisher of the James-town Journal, the Dubuque Times, Des Moines Register, Chicago Inter-Ocean and the Industrial World, of Chicago, and for spent considerable time.

gate to the Philippines, and other church dignituries were received first. The members of the Philippine Commission and the Judges appeared in black frock costs, and their attire formed a decided contrast to the white and gold uniforms of the officers of the Army and Navy. The Fillmann wanter were alshorate native costs. pino women wore elaborate native cos-tumes and conversed affably in Spanish. The use of carriage numbers was not un-derstood by the coachmen, and much con-fusion occurred outside.

ALARM IN CAPE COLONY.

Invading Boers Ranging Over an Immense Tract.

LONDON, Jan. 2.—The Cape Town cor-espondent of the Dally Mail, which wells upon the gravity of the position in Cape Colony, says:

"The Boer invaders now number 5000.

Law, in Minneapolis.

The western invasion gives the most concern, it has split into two divisions, which are marching like the prongs of a fork, one by way of Sutherland toward Mammesbury, and the other toward Beaufont west. The enemy are now ranging over immense tracts of rerritory, necessitating the employment of an army comps to deal with them. Lord Kitchener has poured troops into the disturbed areas, night while visiting at the bome of his

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Notorious Kidnaper Taken in South Dakota.

HARD

J. J. Crowe, His Brother, Was Arrest. ed in Council Bluffs, but Denied That He Had Anything to De With the Cudahy Abduction.

CHADRON, Neb., Jan. 1.—Pat Crows, charged with complicity in the abduction of Eddle Cudahy, of Omaha, has been cap-

Three detectives following Crowe's trail came upon him today on the Pine Ridge reservation, near Oelrichs, S. D., and captured him after a wild chase. Crows was driving a team and buckboard. He whipped the horses and tried to outrun the horsemen, who soon brought him to a halt with their shooters. John Delfelder, a cattleman, has just reached town with the news, and says the pease stopped at a ranch about 30 miles out for lunch, and to feed their horses.

ANOTHER CROWE ARRESTED. Brother of Pat Taken Into Custody at Council Bluffs.

omaha, Jan. 1.—J. J. Crowe, a hiother of Pat Crowe, who the police believe to be a principal in the abduction, was taken into custody in Council Bluffs this afternoon by Omaha detectives and brought to this city. The warrant charges Crowe with the abduction of young Cudahy on December 18. Crowe consented to accompany the officers across the river without the formality of requisition papers. Early this forenoon a posse of detectives with search-warrants and complaints charging abduction, remarked the toctives with search-warrants and com-plaints charging abduction, ransacked the premises adjacent to J. J. Crowe's saloon in the hone of discovering Pat Crowe in his place of concealment. They had the necessary papers for the arrest of both Pat and his brother. Early in the day the police department had been given the quiet tip that either Pat Crowe was mak-ing his hiding place in his brother's sa-loon or the brother knew a lot more than be would divulce about the kidnanter. he would divuige about the kidnaping. A diligent search disclosed no trace of Pat Crowe, but the officers came upon the brother asleep in a rear room. They has-tily awakened him and took away two-huge buildes pastols, which he carried in his pockets. Crowe was put in the sweat-box by the ponce tonight, but denied any knowledge of his brother's whereabouts, and that he had anything to do with the and that he had anything to do with the kidnaping.

The police here know nothing of the arrest of Fat Crowe at Celrichs, S. D., and have, to a large extent neutralized his "It was felt that the only means of ex-cluding the invaders from the rich dis-tricts in the western part of the colons, was to call out the farmers. Today's telediscredit the report.

SHUT OFF THE GAS.

grams promise a splendid response from the eastern portion, but the western is doubtful, now 30 per cent of the popula-tion being regarded as loyal. Hence the Toledo Company Makes Its Patrons Suffer on a Cold Night. Boer concentration in that direction, Let-ters are arriving here detailing damage and robbery by the invaders and beseech-

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 1.-The Kerlin Bros. Company, which supplies heating gas to about 700 families in this city, recently entered a bill to the City Council for several thousand dollars in connection ing military assistance. Any action on the part of the Colony will not abate the urgent need of large reinforcements." The aspect of affairs is scarcely less gloomy," says the Cape Town correspond-ent of the Times "the with a gas plant deal. The bill was turned down. Tonight, the coldest of the year, they went beyond the city limits, took out a joint of pipe, plugged the ends and cut off the entire supply, leaving many families absolutely without fuel.

President Dias' Reception.

gloomy," says the Cape Town correspondent of the Times, "than at the beginning of 1960. The invading Boers are numerically fewer, but the have penetrated farther south, and their presence in such centers of hostile Dutch feeling as Graaf Reinet constitutes an element of danger which did not exist last January. The pyociamation calling for volunteers comes very late. The invaders have been enabled to obtain fresh horses. All the horses in the Colony ought to have been commandeered or bought at the first sign MEXICO CITY, Jan. 1.-Midnight mass was said last night in all the great churches of this city and throughout the country, according to instructions from Rome, and the services were solemn and President Diaz today, at the National Palace, received the congratulations of an immense number of people, including the diplomatic coros, the judiciary, the Sen-ate and the Chamber of Deputies, including John W. Foster, ex-Secretary of State at Washington.

SUMMARY OF IMPORTANT NEWS.

Domestie.

reception at the White House, Page 1. leneral MacArthur held a New Year's recep-tion in Manifa. Page 1. Ignatius Donnelly died suddenly. Page 1.

Walthour again finished first in the six-day race. Puge 5.

The Republican caucus in Pennsylvania select-ed Quay for Senator: Page 2. Legislatures will be in session today in Dela-wars, Colorado and Nebraska. Page 2.

Foreign. The British are unable to check the Boer in-vasion of Cape Colony. Page 1. The Earl of Hopetoun was sworn in as fir Governor of Federated Australia. Page 2.

Costs Rica is pleased by recognition in the canal negatiations. Page 5. The Casr reviewed troops returned from China.

Li Hung Chang stated China's intentions, Page 3. The assassin of Baron von Ketteler was be-COLESBERG, Cape Calony. Dec. n.headed in Pekin. Page 5. The foreign troops in China are well prepared for the Winter season. Page 3. men of Nesbit's horse, 50 miles southeast of Colesborg. The enemy, since increased to 800, has appeared near Welter-Vreden and is driving off stock. Pacific Coast.

There has been special activity in the sale of Oregon school lands in the past year, Page 4.

Page 4. Pins: payment has been made on $50,000 purchase price of Baker County mins. Page 4. Ex-Representative Flagg points out what he considers defects of law fur clerkship referm in Oregon Legislature. Page 4. The revenue cutter Perry will sail from As-foria today in search of overdue Columbia River ships. Page 4.

regen. Washington and Alaska have been formed into a life-saving district. Page 4. idaho man, sentenced to be banged, made a desperate attempt at suicide. Page 4.

Commercial and Marine. Dun's review of year's business. Page 11. oreign money market active. Page 11. Steumship Knisow reaches port. Page & Log of the Cromartyshire. Page 5. Substitute for shipping subsidy bill. Page 5.

Por land and Vicinity. Por land and Viciaity.

Notable New Year's religious meeting addressed by Fartland ministers. Page 8.

Multinomah and finless play a secretions football game in show. Page 10.

Movement on foot to consultate camps of Spanish War Veterain. Page 7.

Six inches of enow fell between 2:50 A. M. and 12:50 P. M. Fage 12.

stte says that two heavy freight trains on the Yaxoo & Mississippi Valley Rallroad, both double-headers, collides near Hays Station, 70 miles south of here at 7 o'clock tonight, and 11 men were killed. Ran Off a Turntable.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Jan. 1.-A telephone message to the Herald from Fay commandeered or bought at the first sign of invasion."

The correspondent complains of the inertia and reticence of the authorities, General Kitchener has telegraphed to five wagons, with supplies and 6000 rounds of ammunition. He has released and let go to their farms % Boer prisoners who were taken to Dewetslasger, and who were being forced to fight.

"General French recently captured In prisoners and a large number of carts and cattle. Among the prisoners was a dis-patch-rider bearing a letter from Beyere

May Extend Martial Law.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. I.—A special meeting of the Cabinet was held today, at which, it is understood, a decision was reached to make a further extension of martial law.

A telegram from Carnarvon reports that the Boers are looting every farm along their route for supplies.

Kruger Wants to Come.

BRUSSELS, Jan. 1.—Replying to an address for the American Boer committee, Mr. Kruger expressed a desire to visit the United States, but said he must postpone the visit on account of the affection of the eyes from which he is suffering.

Another Boer Capture.

ELEVEN MEN KILLED.

llision Between Two Henvy Freight Trains in Mississippi.

"Pretoria, Dec. 31 .- General Knox, who has been following up General Dewet, re-ports that he has captured some horses, the War Office as follows:

for Smuts."

CHICAGO, Jan. 1.—J. W. Beil, engineer, was killed, and John Scott, fireman, fatally injured by the derailment of a Chicago & Northwestern locomotive at Barrington. near here, today. The engine ran off the turntable and tumbled into the pit be-

Killed by a Mortar Discharge. NORFOLK, Neb., Jan. 1.—Peter L. Buh-mann, who served with the Thirty-ninth Infanity in the Philippines, was idiled this morning by the premature discharge of a mortar, which was being fired in celebra-tion of the New Year.