NEW COMMONWEAL

Federated Australia Comes Into Existence.

FIRST GOVERNOR SWORM IN

Earl of Hopetoun Took the Oath of Office at Sydney in the Presence of Scores of Thousands-An Inspiring Military Pageant.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Jan. 1.—The Earl of Hopetoun was today sworn in as the first Governor of the Federated Australian colonies amid scenes of pagentry such as were never before attempted in the antipodes. Scores of thousands of peo-ple participated in the demonstration. The rejoicing of the commonwealth was in-tensified by a message from Queen Vic-toria, sent through the Colonial Secre-tary, Joseph Chamberlain, and which was read by the Earl of Hopetoun, as fol-

The Queen commands me to express through you to the people of Australia Her Majesty's heartfelt interest in the inauguration of the commonwealth and her sarnest wish that under Divine Provi-dence it may knaure increased prosperity and wellbeing to her loyal and beloved subjects in Australia."

The weather for such an occasion was not of the best, but it did not deter im-mense crowds from thronging the streets from an early hour. A procession formed of Ministers, officials, Judges, ciergy, members of the House of Commons, trades unions and all kinds of societies, illegorical cars, colonial, Indian and im alregorical cars, colonial, Indian and imperial troops and blue jackets moved at 18 o'clock down to the troop-lined route towards the Government House. Stands which had been erected at svery available spot were througed with sightsoers. The footways were packed with enthustastic thousands, guy Summer dresses tending variety to the scens.

As the center of the procession batted.

As the center of the procession halted at the Government House, the Earl of Hopetoun, in full Windsor uniform and wearing his orders, emerged from the grounds in the state carriage with postiilions and outriders, all in state livery, Escorted by the New South Wales Lan-eers, the Governor-General drove past the remainder of the procession and took up a position in the rear. As he passed, each stationary band played the national anthem, in which the crowds joined Short. Iy after noon the procession entered the park, into which thousands of the public followed, swelling the multitude that had already assembled on the hills which formed a vast amphitheater overlooking the pavilion which had been erected for the ceremonies. A magnificent sight was presented by the teoming humanity sur-rounding the eminences. The Governor's arrival at the pavilion

The Governor's arrival at the pavilion was announced by an artillery salute and the pealing of cathedral and other bells. The Chief Justice and the Cabinet officers were swalting him, and as soon as the Earl of Hopetoun took up his position, a choir of 1600 voices sang "O God, Our Help in Ages Past." A special prayer by the archbishop followed. After his commission had been read, the Earl of Hopetoun took the oath of office and signed it. toun took the oath of office and signed it at a table which had been presented by the Queen. A salute of 21 guns, the play-ing of the national anthem by the massed bands and rousing cheers accompanied this act. The signing and swearing in of the federal Ministers followed. The Earl of Hopetoun briefly congratulated the members of the Cabinet and then read the Queen's message given above, which evoked prolonged cheering. This was fol-lowed by a second message, as follows: "Her Majesty's Government sends cordial greetings to the commonwealth of Australia. They welcome her to her place among the nations united under Her Maj-esty's sovereignly, and confidently unticl-pate for the new federation a future of ever-increasing prosperity and influence.

They recognize in the long desired consummation of the hopes of patriotic Australians a further step in the direction of permanent unity of the British Empire, and they are satisfied the wider powers and responsibilities henceforth secured to Australia will give a fresh opportunity for a display of that generous loyalty and devotion to the throne of the empire which has characterized the action in the past of its several states."

cheers were given for the Gov. ernor-General and snother salule was fired. Ten thousand pupils of the public achoois sang the hymn, "Australia Fair," and the proceedings were concluded by the choir singing a Te Deum the "Halleujah" chorus and "God Save the Queen," The Earl of Hopetoun was the recipient of numerous messages from the authori-ties of the various colonies, the Norwegian Government, etc.

The city was brilliantly illuminated this evening with unique and appropriate designs, and the shipping in the harbor was all aflame from stem to stern. The crowds gave every sign of rejoicing.

Duke of York Becomes an Admiral.

LONDON, Jan. 1.—The Duke of York has been gazetted as Rear-Admiral. The promotion from the rank of Captain to promotion from the rank of Captain to that of Rear-Admiral, as a preliminary to his visit to Australia and Canada, gives universal satisfaction, and the fact that he thus passes over the heads of 65 senior Captains will not in the slightest detract from his universal popularity in the Navy. The caucus did not begin until 9:15, and speeches were so numer-out that it was not until 11:20 that business was reached.

The Quay people are jubilant over the result of the caucus, as the number present exceeded their expectations, and they claim that before the vote is taken on joint ballot for Senator they will have many more than the necessary number to elect. Mr. Quay himself is quoted as say ing that he expected 125 votes in the cancus. The news of the result of the gathering was taken to him by his friends, ulations upon what they claim is a certain victory for stalwart Republicanism

While the caucus was in session in the House chamber, a secret meeting of the anti-Quay Republicans was held at their headquarters at the Commonwealth Hotel. Patterson for United States Senator to succeed Seantor Wolcott. The fusionists have 55 of the 65 members of the lower house. All the Populist members of the State Senate, eight in number, entered the caucus of the Democratic members, and announced their intention to join the Democratic party.

Frank James' Ambition.

ST. LOUIS Jan, 1.—A ploturesque contestant for office in the Legislature that will meet at Jefferson City, Mo., this month, is that of Frank James, the once noted bandit, for doorkeeper in the House of Representatives. In discussing his candidacy, Frank James said today: "I have twice as many votes as any other candidate, and no combination can beat me." Notwithstanding this confident pre-diction, a movement is said to be under way to eliminate James from the contest, the opposition asserting that to honor him with a place in the House of Representa-tives would be humiliating to the state at large.
