CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Amusements Today. CORDRAY'S - "A Stranger in a Strange

METROPOLITAN - "A Rag-Time Carnival." HARD ON WHEELMEN,-Bicycle riding was not a success on Portland streets or sidewalks yesterday, and those who tried it were obliged to lead their wheels through the wet snow most of the time. Even messenger boys were at their wits' end in trying to keep awheel when they reached a little distance away from the business center. The sidewalks had not been cleared of snow to any extent, and only that portion of the street between car tracks had been attended to.
infen who tried to bowl along the d section found that teamsters preferred that place, too, and as a wagon ferred that place, too, and as a wagon does not have to give the wheelman the right of way unless the driver is so inclined, the bloyclist had to give up the wheeling altogether. Towards night the snow had settled down to a little streak along the edge of the sidewalks, much to the satisfaction, also, of those who don't ride wheels.

NOT PROFITABLE FOR WOODDEALERS .-Wooddeslors in the city do not think there will be any advance in the price of fir this season, as there is considerable cordthis season, as there is considerable cord-ed up at available points on the river banks, and along railroad tracks. The Winter has thus far not met the ap-proval of the fuel dealers, as the cold periods have then very brief, and the chances are against there being any more. "People don't buy much wood in damp weather," a dealer complained yes-terday, "as the rains are never cold and terday, "as the rains are never cold, and so very little wood is needed in the heat-ing stoves. The usual cooking-stove con-sumption exceeds very little that of the Summer demands, unless a cold snap intarvenes. Wooddealers will not get rich this Winter in Portland."

A WONDERFUL SHOWING.—A telegram received from the home office by Man-ager Samuel of the Equitable Life, con-vers the information that the December ness of his company was over fortysix millions. This is phenomenal, considering that there are very few life insur-ance companies that produce forty-six million business in an entire year. The business of the Equitable Life for the year-1900 was over two hundred and five millions; this is a greater amount than most companies have been able to accumulate during their entire existence, and some of them are from 40 to 50 years old. The Equitable Life is certainly a great and progressive life insurance company. CHINESE MISSION ENTERTAINMENT .- HOLiday exercises were held by the members of the Presbyterian Chinese Mission in the lecture-room of the First Presbyterian Church last evening. The programme of S numbers was appreciated by a large audience. It comprised recitations, dislogues, choruses and quartet singing, in which men, women, boys and girls took part. The recitations were well delivered, especially those by two little girls. Lou Mul sang "Asleep on the Deep," and Lee Wa recited part of the Declaration of independence. Some of the pieces were in a humorous vein, and the musical numbers were well chosen.

MISSIONARY SOCIAL UNION,-There will be a moeting of the Missionary Social Union tomorrow in the First Congregational Church. The afternoon session will open at 2 o'clock. Representative women of the different denominations will pro-ment topics of general missionary inter-est, and Miss Julia Hatch, a returned missionary from Laos, will speak in the afternoon. At the evening session, Bishop Earl Cranston will give an address on "Missions in the Orient," and Dr. Alex-ander Blackburn on "The Spanish-Speak-ing People Near Our Own Borders." will be served between the ses-

GAMBLING CASE CONTINUED.-The cases against Frank Hellen and William Ayres, of the Portland Club, on a charge of runof the Portland Club, on a charge of run-hing a faro game, were called in the Municipal Police Court yesterday. The warrant was issued on the oath of Charles Harbough, who says that "the defendants deal, play and carry on as proprietors thereof, a game of faro, a banking game, with cards, for money, and because of representations of money, good value." No evidence was given, and on the mo-tion of the defendants' attorney the case tion of the defendants' attorney the case was continued until Saturday, WOODCHOPPERS TAKE A VACATION.—The

snowy time in the forests along the Lower Columbia was not relished by wood-choppers and quite a number of these are now taking a little rest in Portland. About eight inches of snow was resting among the trees near Mayger yesterday, where some 20 choppers are employed, and the soft, sloppy stuff mad-it very uncomfortable for the wielders of the ax. Choppers are paid more per cord than they were a few years ago, how-ever, and so can better afford to take a

POR OBSTRUCTING NAVIGATION.-Willight Tallant, of Astoria, was brought to Port-land yesterday by Deputy United States Marshal Morse, having been arrested for obstructing the navigation of the Columbia. By order of Judge Hellinger he was allowed to go at large on his own recognizance. Mr. Tallant has a scining ground above Astoria, and was dumping a lot of gravel or something of the sort into the river there to improve it in some way, which is in violation of the law.

PIPTE-STREET EXTENSION.—The Port.

FITTE-STREET EXTENSION.—The Port-land Railway Company expects to begin running cars on its Fifth-street extension within a few days, the time depending somewhat on the weather. His right arm was swolien of having several injuries about his body attended to. His right arm was swoien to double its former size, and his left side was black and blue. The doctor asked what had happened, and he explained that four or five men had jumped on him while a dance was pending at Linnton, New Year's eve. A resident of Linnton, who was in town last evening, said the injured man had visited the dance dressed up like an Indian; that his language was bad and that he took possession of the women's dressing-room, forbidding all to enter. He was thrown out by several of the young men, but came back with a whoop, just as the noormaster was arranging for a new set of quadrilles. Then the Indian was pitched out again, but this time he was stamped on and rendered harmless and helpless before quiet was restored in the bailroom. When he came to yesterday he must have realized that he had had a rattling time New Year's eve.

BEGIN PAYING LICENSES.—The City Treasurer opened his books yesterday for the collection of ilcenses for the ourrent ouarter. The receipts during the day were very gratifying. Liquor-dealers came in in considerable numbers, and there were also a large number of business licenses paid. As soon as there is any decrease in the numbers coming in to pay their licenses the license officers will begin to offculate and every one who owes a 15cense fee will be made to pay it, and no long delay will be allowed. A few shirked paying last quarter, but they will find their names on the list this quarter. Coos Bar JETT.-Withelm Jacobsen, whose firm has the contract for building the jetty at Coos Bay, returned from there a few days ago. He expects to finish the work within the next six weeks, and to that end has about 100 men employed. The jetty now extends about two miles out from the mainland, but some 300 feet of it was washed away from the outer end in the recent storm. His firm has been engaged on the work for 17 months.

Chicago Tribune.

Although the embezzlements of 1900 show a decided increase over those of 1899, it is to be considered that the total 1889, it is to be considered that the total of last year was the smallest in 22 years. The figures for 1800 are 44,602 124, as compared with $2.215,373 in 1889, an increase of $2,383,761. Large as this sum appears, it is far below the average of the last 25 years, which is $7,339,805.

The losses for the year are distributed as follows: Stolen by public officials, $1,183,678, from banks, $1,867,671 by agents $27,1875, formeries $156,800, from bon associated the stolength of the public officials, $1,183,678, from banks, $1,867,671 by agents

$24,427; miscellaneous stealings, $983,300. Bank employes have the unenviable reputation of heading the black list, and more han three-fourths of the bank total was Taken by six employes, in Newport, Ky., Fort Worth, Tex.; Elizabethport, N. J.; Buffalo, N. Y.; Rutland, Vt.; and New York City banks, under conditions which would not have existed had the embez-alers been under proper surveillance and the banks been conducted on safe busi-

The comparatively small sums embezzled are an evidence of the general prosperity of the country. In 1883-4 the totals were $3,504,000 and in 1893-4 $55,863,714, and these were hard-times years.
