Terrill, Lieutenant-Governor; Chas. J. Bassett, Secretary of State; Egbert W. Jones, State Auditor; J. J. Both houses of the Legislature met in the House. Glenn P. McKinley, of Shoshone County, Democrat, was elected Speaker, and Mrs. Anna A. Wright, of Boise, was chosen chief clerk. The Senate elected J. W. Ballantine, of Blaine, Populist, President pro tem., and W. V. Hefrich, of Ada, Democrat, secretary. After organizing, both houses adjourned until tomorrow, when the message of Governor Hunt will be received.

The joint caucus of the fusion parties last night, at which ex-Senator Fred T. Dubois was nominated for Senator, was attended by 35 members. One left when he found there was to be a Senatorial choice, and it is declared that two of those present did not vote, making the number voting 36, just a majority on joint ballot. There are 43 fusion members attending, and 26 Dubois' friends that all will vote for him when a ballot is taken in the Legislature.

Tonight an inaugural ball was held at the Natatorium. The great resort was thronged. The place had been beautifully decorated, and the scene presented was brilliant in the highest degree.

Inauguration in Utah.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Jan. 7.—Amid a downfall of snow blinding in its density Heber M. Wells was today launched upon his second term as Governor. The ceremonies took place in the Hall of Representatives in the City and County building, and by 10:30 o'clock this morning a large crowd was clamoring for admittance to the door of the hall. OF NATIONAL IMPORT.

Exposition of 1898 to Commemorate Lewis and Clark Expedition.

PORTLAND, Jan. 7.—(To the Editor.)—In some quarters it is held that Congress would not be likely to grant an appropriation for the purpose of establishing a Lewis and Clark centennial. However that may be, it is certain that a celebration worth the name cannot be had without material assistance from the general Government. But when the far-reaching results of that exploring trip are considered in the light of the addition to our national domain of a number of populous states, embryo of an area which was unknown and unexplored ten years ago, with the further fact of securing more than 1500 miles frontage on the Pacific Ocean, it would seem as if there was ample ground for an irresistible appeal to Congress for aid commensurate with the importance of the occasion. This will mean not only money, but a well-equipped Government building, in which the records of the Nation will be communicated, the documents exchanged between the government and the Governors of Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines during the war with the United States according to promise.

General Azcarraga, the Premier, replied that it would be inopportune to repeat a painful resolution, adding that if the Minister of War made such a promise, it was a very delicate act because of Santiago.

General Linares was Governor of Santiago during the hostilities.

BRYAN AND TILLMAN.

The Principal Speakers at an Omaha Jacksonian Banquet.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 7.—The 10th annual banquet of the Jacksonian Club, of Nebraska, was held at the Millard Hotel tonight, 350 persons sitting at the tables. The occasion was one of interest on account of the presence of Hon. W. B. Bryan, who responded to the toast "Democracy," and Senator Benjamin R. Tillman, whose address was on "The Democracy Party: Its Duty and Destiny."

Senator Tillman said the liberty and freedom of the people must depend on the Democratic party, whose future must decide the question of imperialism or freedom.

Mr. Tillman said he was pleased at the enthusiasm with which he had been received. "I am not in the habit of attending banquets," said the Senator, "and am somewhat at a loss how to take the Democrats on this occasion." He said he had no aspirations to be a National leader, but was a simple man who had chosen him for his leader.

He defined the position of the Democrats of the different sections of the country and advocated the standing together of all those who adhere to Democratic principles. Mr. Tillman paid his respects to ex-President Cleveland, who, he said, was not trying to "come forward and save the party." He said he refused to compromise with Mr. Cleveland, and it was presumption to attempt to do so.

Mr. Tillman said he was close to the Naauwpoort in the railroad between Potchefstroom and Fredericksburg, Transvaal.

General Brabant has arrived here to complete the organization of the Colonial forces. It is rumored that 150 Boers are nearing the town of Sutherland and that other parties are close upon Richmond.

The invaders have reached Calvinia within a few days. Scour report that the Boer commandos under Delarey and Steynkamp, in the Bufferspoort district, Transvaal.

FAITH IN DEWEY.

PIQUET ROAD, Cape Colony, Jan. 7.—The Boers boast that their present invasion is only a big patrol, preparatory to an invasion in force by General Dewey. The latter's influence over the Dutch is so enormous that there is no doubt his personal presence would result in a general rising. The Dutch have unbounded faith that if he had a sufficient supply of arms and ammunition, General Dewey, who is regarded as the Napoleon of the campaign, would even now be able to bring the war to a successful termination.
