

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Amusements Tonight. MARQUAM GRAND—The Belle of New York. COLEMAN'S—Boston Lyric Opera Company in "The Slave."

ENGLISH PARTRIDGE HUNT—The English partridges shipped from Hamburg arrived yesterday afternoon by the O. R. N. N. Ninety-eight survived the trip out of the original shipment of 122, or 80 pairs. Quite a number of the birds are in a worn-out state, and it will be necessary to keep them very quiet and feed them carefully for several days.

HOBSES KEPT THE TRACK—An exciting and remarkable runaway took place on the East Side yesterday. A buggy with a pair of spirited black horses attached had been driven to a store at the corner of Albina, with a boy of 8 or 10 years in charge. The horses became scared at something and ran away, and took the driver with them.

MAST VISITORS—Many visitors from Eastern States, as well as from different parts of the state and coast, call at the rooms of the Oregon Historical Society in the City Hall, fourth floor. Yesterday the States of Missouri, Illinois, New York, Massachusetts, California, Minnesota, Washington, Idaho, and Oklahoma Territory were represented, besides eight towns in Oregon outside of Portland.

ANNUAL MEETING—The annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held at 226 Washington street, at 2:30 this afternoon. The reports of the year and directors and officers will be elected for 1901. It is hoped that all members who signed an agreement at the banquet of the year to attend meetings will be on hand.

STEAMER CHANGED SOUL—Judge Bellinger made an order yesterday for the sale of the steamer Frederick K. Hillings at the Courthouse door on February 1, and fixed the upset price at $600. The Hillings, which was owned by Paul Mohr, has been ashore on the rocks above the dallas, and has been libeled by the crew to recover their wages.

WILL SETTLE IN OREGON—John and A. Young, of Colquhoun County, South Dakota, visited Portland in a small party of the surrounding country a few days ago, with a view of looking for a permanent location and establishing themselves on farms. They were well pleased with what they saw, and said that a number of families would probably return with them to Oregon in a few months.

BOY MISSING—Arthur Kincaid, 13 years old, 14 East Twelfth street, has been missing from his home since last Friday, and his relatives are anxious to find him. His father, M. W. Kincaid, asked that any information be sent through telephone. White, W. H. seen last the missing boy wore a blue cap, a black and white check coat, and blue serge trousers. He has dark hair and eyes.

AS A PROGRAMME MAKER. Mile. Dolores Makes Admirable Selections. One of the most frequent comments on Mile. Dolores' recitals is in commendation of her art as a programme maker.

NEW CENTURY GREETINGS. With the coming of the New Year, the program of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association sent to every wholesale customer the following pleasing greeting by "The Anheuser-Busch English heralds loudly the praise of those who helped make the year famous through the world, and extends their hearty thanks and new century greetings."

CARD OF THANKS. We desire to extend our sincere thanks to our many friends for their kindness shown us in our late bereavement. MRS. J. E. GARDNER. 18 Doses Rainy-Day Skirts, 25¢ up. N. Y. Mer. Co. 25 Third.

SECOND ASSEMBLY BALL

MOST BRILLIANT SOCIETY EVENT OF THE WINTER SEASON. Guests Were in Gay, Fantastic Costumes, and Danced to Sprightly Music Last Evening. The most brilliant society event of the winter season was held at Parsons' Hall last evening. The Assembly Club gave its second party, which took the form of a fancy-dress ball.

SOME OF THE COSTUMES AT THE ASSEMBLY BALL.

every place were hung large Chinese and Japanese lanterns of every size and fanciful design. Across the stage, where the musicians were stationed, were wreaths of holly, and suspended directly overhead was a great wreath of laurel, from which were draped down to the front in graceful festoons small lanterns of a rose hue.

FIRST APPEARANCE TONIGHT. "The Belle of New York" Too Late for Tuesday Opening. "The Belle of New York" company, with its 15 people and carload of scenery, arrived in Portland last night to take part in the Marquam Grand, and in consequence will make its first appearance at that theater tonight.

A STUPID LETTER. Published Without Sending the Bill. PORTLAND, Jan. 8.—(To the Editor.)—The article copied in the Oregonian from the Astorian Herald is so utterly at variance with the facts, which you must know to be false, therefore you become an abettor by publishing it.
