ENFOLDED A BURGLAR.

Peliceman Barter Captures a Crook in the Act of Robbery.

A policeman was just where he was needed yesterday afternoon, when George Watson, a Denver crook, was caught, red-handed by Patroiman Richard W. Barter, robbing a dwelling-house on the corner of Fifth and Everett streets. About corner of Fifth and Everett streets. About a clock some men saw Watson sneaking into the rear of the house, and telephoned to the police station, whence Barter was instantly dispatched. The officer entered the dwelling in the same manner as the thief, and, secreting himself in the sitting-room, waited for Watson's coming. The burgiar was upstairs, rummaging around, and after a few minutes came along by and after a few minutes came along by Barter, who grabbed him about the arms, and thus prevented the thief from using the hatchet he carried in his hand. At the station a gold watch, some shirt studs and breastpins were found upon the thief and identified as belonging to George Hartwell, the occupant of the dwelling. The prisoner was very sullen, and w

The prisoner was very sullen, and would admit nothing further than that he had recently arrived from Denver.

The family was absent from the dwelling at the time, and the thief might have overhauled things at his leisure had be not been so suddenly interrupted. He had broken a corner out of a pane of glass to a rear from and was thus enabled to a rear door, and was thus enabled to allp his hand in and turn the key. The police think he is good for five years in state's prison without much formality.

TREBELLI'S SUCCESS.

Shq Scored a Decided Hit in Tacoma Monday Night. Mile. Dolores, who will sing under the auspices of the Musical Club Friday night at the Marquam, has just scored a triumph in Tacoma, where she sang Mon-day night, as the following extracts from the Daily Ledger will show. "The name 'Dolores,' which Mile. Trebelli has adopted as her nom de chant, will wear a different meaning to those who heard her brilliant artistic recitai last night. The many words of praise written of her singing were more than justified by her work. Her programme was choice and well selected, and the enthusiasm of the audience knew no bounds as each num-ber was given in a manner so perfect as to be a positive revelation. "Her voice is wonderful in the sweetness and tenderness of its quality, and she uses it with a naturalness and ease almost past belief. Every point is so finished, every thought so expressed, every tone so round and so faultiess, that to choose any particular song would be

NNOUNCEMENT

We have sold out our stock of small goods, books and musical publications to Graves & Co., who will immediately remove the same to their storerooms at 122, 124, 126 Sixth street, and will establish there a large and extensive music store. Until goods are removed, however, the sale will continue at 211 First street:

We thank the public for their liberal patronage, and would request a continuance of the same on behalf of the new firm.

Our premises at 209 and 211 First street are to be fitted up for Plano Warerooms and as has already been announced the good will of our business and our piano agencies are to pass into the hands of the GILBERT & JONES CO. In the near future. But before they take possession we must sell hundreds and hundreds of used and reverted planos, and many new instruments which were contracted for with the manufacturers, and which we must dispose of before we can leave Portland for our new home In San Francisco.

Strange as is may seem, a great many people imagined that our removal sale was a farce and a put-up job. Some of our competitors have been continually harping on some kind of a sale. First it was a "catch-up-for-lost-time sale," then a "removal sale," a "deceased uncle sale," or a "sacrifice sale" of some kind, so that the public never know when to place any faith in any kind of an announcement pertaining to a legitimate closing out sale; but now that we have sold out our sheet music and small goods business we trust that the public at large will realize that we mean to sell out our pianos and organs, and we must do so promptly. We have no time to lose. We offer pianos and organs now at prices unheard of before in Portland.

We want a paperhanger and decorator to buy a plano or organ from us in exchange for work to be done on our storerooms at 209 and 211 First street,

We have a lot of elegant Music Boxes to close out at about half their original cost. Also a number of "Apollos" which can be attached to any piano, and will play any piece of music. Anyone can operate them.

We have a quantity of new Mason & Hamlin organs to sell at about half their value. Easy payments.
