DAMAGE FROM RAIN

Swollen Streams and Sliding Mountains.

FORTUNATE STOP FOR A TRAIN

Bent of Bridge Went Down Underneath a Long Coach Which Spanned the Dangerous Chasm-Saw Logs Washed Away.

JUNCTION CITY, Or., Jan. 14.-The expessive rains prevailing in this section for the past 45 hours have flooded the country, and the Willamette has nearly reached the high-water mark. The rain eased up this afternoon. Considerable damage has been done, washing away sidewalks and fences. The Southern Pacific rallroad is exper-leading considerable trouble from the high water. The southbound overland, due here at 12.66 a. m., arrived with only the mail and baggage cars and one the rest of the train being left at Harrisburg. A frightful accident was narrowly averted at the bridge which spans the Williametic between here and Harrisburg by the prompt action of the engineer and forethought of the mail clerk. The approach to the bridge for a considerable distance is built on pilea. Just as the engine passed onto the bridge Just as the engine passed onto the bridge the last bent gave way. The postal clerk, feeling that something was wrong, called for the air brakes, and the train was stopped, with the engine, mail and baggage cars, one coach and the for-ward trucks of the next coach on the bridge. The train was uncoupled be-tween the last two-named coaches, the engineer operand the throttle wide and tween the last two-named couching, the engineer opened the throttle wide, and brought that part of the train to Junction City. Word was sent to Harrisburg, and an engine left that place and pulled the other cars back to Harrisburg.

On account of the track being washed away near Eaginaw, the northbound lo-cal, due here at 2:55 yesterday, did not arrive until 9 o'clock this morning. An rangements are being made to transfer passengers and mail over the Willametta, Judge Pullerton, of Boseburg, a Presi-dential elector, who was required to be in Salem at 12 m. today, to cast his bal-lot for President, was compelled to charspecial engine to carry him to his Albany-Country Overflowed.

ALBANY, Or., Jan. 14.-The rainfall at this city for 45 hours previous to 5 o'clock this morning was about as heavy as ever fell here for a like period, being 4.30 inches. For the 24 hours previous to this morning it was 2.55 inches. During the day very little has fallen. The Willa-mette at this city tonight is 24 feet above low water, and rising at the rate of four inches an hour. The outlook is for 30 feet before it stops. The highest since 1861, when it was 36 feet, was February 4, 1890, 31.9 feet.

The tributary streams are swellen full, spread out over the adjoining lands. Santiam and Calapoola are reported as high as they ever get, and there are fears for several bridges. In coming along the road that crosses the Calapoela near this city, in several feet of water this noon, Herman Anthony was thrown Marsh, accompanied by Com from his horse and nearly drowned, fin ally succeeding in getting into a tree, from which he was rescued by a neigh-bor in a boat, after waiting two or three

DEEP SNOW IN KLAMATH.

All Means of Communication Were Parnlyzed-May Do Good.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Jan. 8.-The snow storm of this week was the heavroad points has been received up to date, and with telegraph lines prestrated, the world has been completely shut off for a weak. Work of clearing the roads, how ever, is proceeding as rapidly as possible, and all stages will be able to resume their usual routine in a few days. No losses of stock are reported as a result of the storm, and, aside from the tem-perary inconvenience, the heavy snow-fall, according to the statements of leading farmers, will prove of great benefit in replenishing streams and mostening and preparing the soil for this year's crops.

HIGHEST WATER IN 11 YEARS,

Sheep and Hogs Drowned-Horse Last, But Bider Saved.

EUGENE, Or., Jan. 11.-The water in the Willamette reached its highest point about midnight last night, when it was It feet. Since then it has been gradually receding. It is the highest flood in it years. Not much damage is reported here, except the loss of some sheep and hogs in the bottoms. The breakwater built the porte end of last Summer to protect the north end of the wagon bridge gave way and a portion of the north apron was washed off. The telephone line to Coburg is considerably damaged. It was reported the bridge at Coburg went out, but it is only slightly damaged at the south approach. Marti-Mulkey undertook to ford a slough was Mulkey undertook to ford a slough west of Irving, and his horse was drowned. He was rescued with a line.

CORVALLIS PARTLY SUBMERGED. And Water Still Rising Five Inches an Hour.

CORVALLIS, Or., Jan. 14.—All of the gauges along the water front are under water. The Willamette is supposed to be E feet above low water. A portion of the extreme north end of town is under water, and people residing in that section had to use boast to get home this evening. The Willamotte is out of its east bank at Corvalila, and se far as the eye can see in that direction there is nothing but water. At Mary's River bridge from 4:30 to 7 tonight the water rose two feet, but it is supposed to be partly back water. At dark tonight the river was rising five inches en hour, which has been about the average rise all day.

WATER FOR THE PLACERS. Welcomed by Southern Oregon Miners-Took Snow Away. ASHLAND, Or., Jan. 14.—Rain has been general over Southern Orogon today, and, with the high temperature which has prevalled for several days past, has almost completely dissipated the unusual amount of anow which full last week. Snow Slides Down Mountains. M'MINNVILLE Jan. 14.-The fears of the mountain people have at last been realized. The snow, standing 17 inches deep on the hills west of here about eight miles, began to melt at 12 o'clock resterday, and this morning at 4 o'clock it began to slide down the mountains. Although doing no damage as yet, beyond tearing a few fences down, it is expected to break loose in great force

Gales Creek Brenks Record.

FOREST GROVE, Or., Jan. 14.- The con ual rain for the past two days, to gether with the warm weather, melting the snow is causing high water in this section. Ex-Senator E. W. Halnes said today that Gales Creek, where his flouring mill is located, was higher than he had ever seen it before. With the excep-tion of one bridge, built several years which was carried away yesterday, is thought no damage will result.

Heavy Rain at Dayton.

DAYTON, Or., Jan. 14 - A continual downpour of rain since Saturday night has swellen the Yambill River until it is out of its banks, and some of the houses on the lower land are entirely surrounded by water. The water is the high-est since 1890. Much damage is expected. Today the rain has ceased at times.

MUNICIPALE CONTEMPT CASE. Grew Out of Mining Dispute at Cape

Nome, Alaska. BAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—The con-tempt case of Alexander McKenzie, the Nome receiver, was called in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals this morning, before Judges Gilbert, Morrow and Ross.

The alleged contempt of McKenzie grows out of the case of Chipps vs. Lin-derberg, the question at issue being the ownership of claims at Cape Nome. Mc-Kenzie is accused of failing to obey the writ of supersedeas issued by the Circuit Court of Appeals, directing him to turn over the claims and buillon held by him as sceiver. Counsel for McKenzie contended that the writ of supersedess was inopera-tive and vold, as no appeal had been taken in the case to the Circuit Court of Appeals, the order allowing the appeal and the bond on appeal never having been filed in the District Court of Alaska. He claimed that until that was done the matter was not within the jurisdic

Want Taxes Paid Semiannually. EUGENE, Or., Jan. 14.—Quite a demand to being made by taxpayers in this county for an amendment to the present laws regarding the collection of taxes, making the taxes payable in two installments. It is argued that many taxpayers find it more or less burdensome to raise the money for the payment of their taxes all at one time, and that it would be a great relief to have the laws amended so that a portion of the amount could be paid in the Spring and the remainder in the Fall. If the taxes are to be paid in one lump it is averred that it would be an accom-modation to the average taxpayer to have that payable in October or November, instead of in the Spring of the year, as at present, for the reason that after harvest is the time when farmers have ready money from the sale of their crops. But the demand is for the taxes to be made payable in two installments, one-half in the early Summer and the remainder in Accident to Alaska Steamer. SEATTLE, Jan. 14.—The steamer City of Seattle met with a slight accident to her machinery January 9, and will not arrive from Skagway until next Friday. Captain Conneil, of the Seattle, on account of a heavy snow sterm, west into Cardenas Bay, 100 miles south of Ketchi-Cardenas Bay, 100 miles south of Ketchi-kan, and the engineer then discovered that the after web of the lower-pressure crank had been cracked entirely across. Captain Connell says he can finish the voyage to Seattle, but will proceed cau-tiously. Another steamer is ready to leave this city should the damage be serious.

Crimes of a Unalaska Indian.

SEATTLE, Jan. 14.—The steamer Aloha, which arrived from the north today, rought an alleged Indian murderer from brought an alleged Indian murderer from Unalaska to Sitka, where he was glaced in jail, pending trial. He is accused of having beaten his second wife to death, and, further, with having slain his first spouse in much the same manner. He was bound over to the Nome court by United States Commissioner Whipple at Unalaska. The Indian was brought to Sitka by Deputy United States Marshal Sullivan, of Unalaska.
