NATIONAL LIVESTOCK CONVENTION CLOSED

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson De-announced for Supporting the Great Oieomargrnie Bill.

SALT LAKE, Jan. 18.—The four days session of the National Livestock Convention closed at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Chicago was selected as the place for holding the next convention, the date to be fixed by the executive committee.

The first order of business being the selection of the place for the next convention brought the full attention of the hall and was filled when President Springer called the convention to order.

Several resolutions were acted upon at the opening, one being a resolution that forest rangers be limited to actual timber lands.

Mr. Gevin, of New Mexico, made a strong speech in favor of Chicago, and F. E. Suddarth set forth the advantages of Omaha.

After several second reading speeches a roll-call was ordered. At the close of the roll-call it was apparent that Chicago was in the lead.

At the afternoon session, a resolution was passed asking the Federal Government to discover some remedy for vegetable poisoning.
