VICTIMS OF THE GRIP

DOCTORS REPORT HUNDREDS OF CASES IN PORTLAND. Disease Not so Severe in Form As in the East—Symptoms and Remedy.

Grip—Symptoms: Cold in the head, general aching in the muscles and the bones, fever, cough, headache, feeling of lassitude and terrible depression.

Remedy—Take to bed, keep warm, and call a doctor.

Such is the description of the troublesome affliction which nearly every one has, and the simplest remedy for it, given by prominent physicians interviewed yesterday.

The disease is epidemic in the East, and the Pacific States have had their share of it. There are hundreds of cases of grip in Portland, but the disease is not so severe as in the East.

Yet, physicians say their patients suffer the same racking pain and there is danger unless precaution be taken.

"It comes stealing into the system without warning," said a doctor yesterday. "The patient at first fancies that he has a severe cold. The characteristic of the grip that makes it so disagreeable is the feeling of absolute depression that it leaves. This often lasts for weeks, and the patient is without energy or desire to do anything. To work while having the grip is to experience great torture. The best thing to do is to go to bed and call a physician. Every one should take great precautions against it. It is infectious and runs through whole families, and no one is free from its attacks. It comes to the rich and the poor, the just and the unjust. Many attempts to ward it off by taking stimulants or other simple remedies. But the danger of this is that through improper treatment and further exposure, if the victim does not go to bed, pneumonia or other diseases may follow."

Paloma Schraun Concerts. Paloma and Karla Schraun, the wonderful little child pianists, will appear at the Marquam next Monday and Tuesday evenings. This is the second visit to this city of these little children, and they are now on their way to Berlin, where they will enter the further study of music.

Little Karla has never had instruction other than that given her by her sister, the wonderful Paloma, but she now ranks as a very artistic concert performer. She plays with a dash and brilliancy that has set the critics of both continents talking.

Paloma has selected to render in this city one of her most difficult programmes, which will be given on Monday evening. Paloma, ripe with the experience of a former concert tour, is now able to hold her audiences entranced by her masterful renditions of the most classical writings of the old masters. Those who expect to attend one of these recitals, as her stay in Europe will be quite extended.

Cheney Bros. 20th Century Foulards

Opening of Cheney Bros. 1901 Foulards. Just over summer bloom. The exquisite freshness and newness is captivating. Styles are the very latest and their fascination is in the air. Years ago when almost everyone else was selling all sorts of trash for foulard silks, Cheney Bros. started making their reputation by selling silks that were silks.

Away off in old New England in the town of Manchester, Conn., stands three "Cheney" mills, employing 7000 operators and weavers, whose product is famed from ocean to ocean and from the Great Lakes to the gulf, for its superb qualities and style. Our share of the spring production—some 7500 yards—is at hand. Every piece spic and span. The choicest weaves and color-combinations. Colored grounds, strewn over entirely new and handsome designs.

WILL EMPLOY 150

Big Factory to Be Located in South Portland.

PLANS FOR FIVE BUILDINGS

W. L. Lindhard Going East to Buy the Machinery—Plant Will Be Ready for Operation Within Ninety Days.

The Cleveland Paint & Oil Manufacturing Company has disposed of its stock and business to W. P. Fuller & Co. William L. Lindhard, formerly president and manager of the paint and oil company, has an interest in the South Portland Sash and Door Factory, and will hereafter give his attention to this line of business.

He is organizing a new company to be known as the Universal Sash & Door Company, and has secured eight acres on the O. R. & N. Co.'s property in the south end of town, between the railroad and the river, where factory buildings will be erected. Plans for these buildings, which are to be of corrugated iron, and at a safe distance from each other, are being prepared. Mr. Lindhard is going East to buy the additional machinery which will be needed for an establishment that will employ about 150 men. The present factory in South Portland employs 42 men. The new establishment will consume five buildings, a saw mill on the river bank, a dry kiln, a planing mill and factory, and two warehouses, near the railroad track. It is expected that the buildings will be completed and the machinery installed for work within 90 days.

IN THE COURTS.

Thompson Divorce Case Argued and Taken Under Adjudication.

The arguments of counsel in the Thompson divorce case were heard yesterday by a curious crowd which filled Judge Cleland's courtroom to the doors. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were present. The argument consumed the entire day, and at the close the court did not announce when its decision would be made.

SEVENTH STREET EXTENSION

Virgil Conn Appeals From the Viewers' Award.

Virgil Conn, who owns one-fifth of the southeast quarter of block 54, through which it is proposed to extend Seventh street, yesterday filed with City Auditor Devlin an appeal from the assessment of damages and benefits made by the viewers. The law provides that within 30 days after the report of the viewers is filed any one dissatisfied with the amount of benefits or damages awarded may appeal. Yesterday was the time limit. Mr. Conn is the only one of the persons interested in the report who has appealed. He was allowed $44 damages and $1 in benefits. The appeal has been taken in hand by City Attorney Long, who, if he finds it good, will have the case set for hearing and tried at once, and if he finds it not good will dismiss it.

ADLER CHANGES FRONT.

Denies Partnership in Junk Store With Mr. Leve.

J. Adler, who, in conjunction with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Charles Leve, sued Sheriff Frazer for possession of a junk store on Davis street, created much surprise at the trial yesterday in Judge Frazer's court, by denying that he was the partner of Mrs. Leve, thus going back on his own case, and becoming a witness for the defense. Dan Marx, the pay-broker, has a claim against Charles Leve, the husband, for a considerable sum, and he brought an attachment suit and caused the Sheriff to levy upon the junk shop. Adler and Mrs. Leve subsequently put in appearance as alleged partners and owners of the place, and filed a complaint against the Sheriff. Mr. Glitner, the plaintiff's attorney, interrogated Adler severely concerning his change of base, and wanted to know whether he had not drawn out all of the money he put in the business. Adler said he put in $25, and admitted that the books might show that he had taken out $200 more than that sum. The evidence is all in, and the case will go to the jury this morning. Marx some time ago prosecuted a criminal case against Leve, growing out of this same claim, and failed to make it stick.

DAMAGES ASKED FOR A FINGER.

The trial of the $2000 damage suit of

Denton O. Burson against the Standard Box Factory

was begun yesterday before Judge Sears. The plaintiff lost part of a finger while working at planer, and alleges other injuries. The jury was taken over to view the machinery, and the taking of testimony will begin this morning.

United States Court.

In the United States Court yesterday judgment on the verdict against plaintiff for costs was rendered in the case of I. O. Olson vs. the North Pacific Lumber Company.

The trial of the case of the A. J. Luce Hop Company vs. J. P. Meeker & Co., was set for January 25.

Court Notes.

James Casey and John Watson, who pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny, were sentenced to one year in the Penitentiary by Judge George yesterday.

Judgment by default in favor of J. B. Bridges against his former son-in-law, W. St. M. Barnes, for $70, due on notes, was rendered in Judge Sears' court yesterday.

The suit of A. D. Bowen and I. A. Yarex against Harry Edsall to recover a share of $1000 profit made on the sale of the Portland Tradesman, was dismissed by plaintiffs' attorney yesterday.

SUNDAY'S MASS MEETING.

Committee Urged to Suppress the Side Doors of Saloons.

A good deal of work was done yesterday by the committee appointed at the ministerial conference with reference to gambling conditions, to arouse public interest in the mass meeting at the Marquam Theater, Sunday afternoon. Two more members of the lay committee have agreed to serve—A. L. Mills and Earl C. Brown. It was stated that admission to the mass meeting will be open to men and women alike, who will receive tickets entitling them to admission up to a certain time, after which admission will be free to all. Some prominent laymen will speak at the meeting, and also Rev. Dr. Stephen S. Wise.

A member of the committee said: "The suppression of gambling in the city will be the main object of Sunday's meeting, but people have urged us also to try to suppress the side-doors of saloons, the opening of saloons and cigar-stores on Sunday and the custom of newsmen and blackbills entering and hanging around saloons."

PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL.

Portland Will Be Represented at the Tacoma Meeting.

At a meeting of the promoters of a professional baseball team for Portland, last night, it was decided that a representative should be sent to the league meeting to be held in Tacoma, W. H. Luce, who was president of the Montana League, last year, was chosen to represent Portland. Seattle will be represented by D. E. Dugdale; Tacoma by J. J. McCloskey; manager of the Louisville National League team in 1895 and 1896, and of the Great Falls, Mont., team that captured the pennant in that league last season; and Spokane by J. F. Reddy. Although not enough stock has been subscribed for the Portland team, the promoters are confident that by continued hard work enough can be raised to warrant entering a team in the league.

How It Goes in Boston.

During the present cold and grip season (three-fifths of the population) and eight boxes of Laxative Frisco-Quinine have been purchased by the "Wholesale" business of Boston: Gilman Bros. and Eastern Drug Co.
