

AS A MARK OF RESPECT

Both Houses of Congress Extend Sympathy to British.

THE LOWER HOUSE ADJOURNS

The Legislative, Executive and Judicial Bill Was Considered by the Senate—Other Business Transacted by Congress.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 22.—The House today adopted a resolution expressing profound respect and sympathy with the English people, owing to the death of Queen Victoria. The President was requested to express the sentiment to Great Britain and, as a further mark of respect, the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 22.—The House today adopted a resolution expressing profound respect and sympathy with the English people, owing to the death of Queen Victoria.

The announcement of the death of Queen Victoria, which was received in this country at 11:30 o'clock, was met with a general expression of sympathy. The House adjourned at 12:30 o'clock.

The announcement of the death of Queen Victoria, which was received in this country at 11:30 o'clock, was met with a general expression of sympathy. The House adjourned at 12:30 o'clock.

Cramps' Claim Bill Considered in the House.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 22.—When the House met today Newlands (Ill., Nev.) called the Senate bill to extend the mining laws of the salina lands.

Another Woman Threatens.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 22.—Police Chief Egan today issued a warrant against a woman, in which the writer says she intends to smash several "joint" fixtures, and names the keepers of the places that she will attack.

Two Saloons Wrecked.

BRAIDFORD, Ill., Jan. 22.—Mamie Kelly and her brother wrecked two saloons at Harmon because the proprietors sold liquor to their brothers, who are miners.

Tried to Wreck a Saloon.

HARTFORD, Conn., Jan. 22.—Because her husband had sold her chickens and bought whiskey with the money, Mrs. William Towns today, after having horse-whipped Towns in a crowded street, endeavored to wreck a saloon.

CANAL TREATY AMENDMENTS

State Department Has Received No Communication From England.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The repetition of statements to the effect that Washington authorities are satisfied that the British Government has decided to accept the Senate amendments to the Hay-Pauncefote treaty is being followed by a communication from the State Department.

In the Senate.

Soon after the Senate convened, Gallinger, chairman of the Committee on Pensions, made an effort to secure consideration of unobjectionable pension bills.

How It Goes in England.

During the present cold and grip season the London Press has been very busy with reports of the various diseases.

MESSAGES OF CONDOLENCE

PREMIER MCKINLEY TO THE KING OF GREAT BRITAIN.

Flags Over the Executive Departments in Washington Were Half-Masted, an Unusual Tribute.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Four days of anxiety had in a large measure prepared official Washington for the news which was flashed across the cable this afternoon that the Queen of England, and she could be decently done in anticipation of the sad end had been disposed of, and all was in readiness for the execution of the formalities which attend the passing of such events.

SALOON MEN GET A REST.

Mrs. Nation Keeps Her Trace With the Wichita Chief of Police. WICHITA, Kan., Jan. 22.—Mrs. Carrie Nation and her colleagues in yesterday's saloon smashing crusade were arraigned in the City Court today and waived a preliminary hearing.

The saloon-men are very uneasy, and the more they are exposed to the police, the more they are determined to resist. The young man who struck Coliceman Sutton yesterday was the son of Mrs. Eggleston.

Memorial Services in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—Elaborate memorial services for the late Queen Victoria were held in Chicago by former Britons, Representative Chicago Englishmen, Irishmen and Scotchmen, together with Canadians and other former subjects of the late sovereign.

Memorial Services in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—Elaborate memorial services for the late Queen Victoria were held in Chicago by former Britons, Representative Chicago Englishmen, Irishmen and Scotchmen, together with Canadians and other former subjects of the late sovereign.

NEW YORK'S FLAGS LOWERED.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—The first appearance in New York City of the cablegram from London today announcing the death of Queen Victoria was in the almost instant lowering of flags all over the city to half-mast.

THE NEWS AT THE HAGUE.

THE HAGUE, Jan. 22.—The press printed the news of the death of Queen Victoria with mourning borders. The court will go into mourning, but it is probable that there will be no change in the arrangements for the marriage of Queen Wilhelmina.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

Verdi's Condition Hopeless.

ROME, Jan. 22.—The Italian Senate today received the news that the condition of Verdi's condition was hopeless. The House voted to convey to him its best wishes for his recovery.

Kruger Goes to Utrecht.

THE HAGUE, Jan. 22.—Mr. Kruger started for Utrecht, where he will pass some weeks. He was greeted by a crowd at the railroad station and he felt very well on coming out for the first time since his recent illness.

Hurricane in Norway.

CHRISTIANIA, Jan. 22.—A terrific hurricane ravaged the northern coast Monday night from Tenosmo to Christiansund. It was accompanied by snow, lightning, hail and a S. E. gale. Great damage was done to crops, shipping, houses and telegraph wires.

Mysterious Murder in Germany.

BREMEN, Jan. 22.—A mysterious murder has just occurred at Gumbinnen, where Cavalry Captain von Krosing, while visiting his men in a riding school, was killed by a bullet from a rifle.

Krupp Will Sell England Guns.

BERLIN, Jan. 22.—Count von Bulow, the Imperial Chancellor, has received notice from the Krupp works saying that while the company has heretofore refrained from selling arms to England, it will sell them hereafter.

A SWORD FOR DEWET.

BERLIN, Jan. 22.—A public collection is being started in Hamburg in view of presenting to General Dewet a sword of honor and providing relief for suffering Boer women and children.

NEWS GENTLY BROKEN

EMPEROR FREDERICK LEARNS OF HER MOTHER'S DEATH.

LONDON, Jan. 22.—The news of her mother's death was tenderly broken to Dowager Empress Frederick late this evening. The Empress received the news from Frankfurt.

THE NEW KING IS EXPECTED TO BE FRIENDLY TO GERMANY.

BERLIN, Jan. 22.—The news of the death of Queen Victoria had been hourly expected in Berlin, and on its arrival special editions of the newspapers sold like wildfire, the announcement being read with silent and respectful sympathy.

SYMPATHY OF PARISIANS.

PARIS, Jan. 22, 10 P. M.—The news of the death of Queen Victoria was known in Paris at 7 P. M., by special editions of the evening papers. Great sympathy was expressed on all sides.

CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES WILL ADJOURN AS A SIGN OF MOURNING.

PARIS, Jan. 22, 10 P. M.—The news of the death of Queen Victoria was known in Paris at 7 P. M., by special editions of the evening papers.

DEEP IMPRESSION IN DENMARK.

COPENHAGEN, Jan. 22.—The news of the death of Queen Victoria was received at a late hour. The King was sleeping and it was thought best not to disturb him.

THE CANADIAN PARLIAMENT.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—A special to the New York Herald from Ottawa says: The death of the Queen will not cause a dissolution of the Canadian Parliament.

NOTHING ELSE CURES

Why Paine's Celery Compound is the Best Remedy in the World.

"When everything else has failed, Paine's celery compound has brought me back to health." The thousands of instances where this has been said—by scores of people in every community who have told this simple story; the downright, hard, cold facts; the grateful acknowledgments of men and women who have suffered from the diseases that have their origin in impaired nervous systems and sluggish, impure blood—these are what have made Paine's celery compound far and away the one remedy above all others that physicians prescribe and the public endorse.

BURNED A BRITISH VESSEL

Highbanded Doings of Venezuelan Sailors. NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—A dispatch to the Herald from Fort of Spain, Trinidad, says: The rebellion is spreading.

SCORPION GOES TO CURACAO.

Probably to Forward Minister Loomis' Dispatches. NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—A special to the Times from Washington says: In all probability something definite will be received shortly throwing light on what is happening in Venezuela.

The News in Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Can., Jan. 22.—When the news of the Queen's death reached Ottawa the Secretary of State issued a proclamation continuing in office all who held positions under the Crown.

King of Greece Goes to London.

ATHENS, Jan. 22.—King George started for London tonight. To Strengthen Britain's Navy. LONDON, Jan. 22.—In the course of a very strong editorial appeal this morning for strengthening the navy of Great Britain, and placing it on an adequate war footing, the Times says: "Our fleet should be of sufficient size, force and equipment and readiness for

NOTHING ELSE CURES

Why Paine's Celery Compound is the Best Remedy in the World.

"When everything else has failed, Paine's celery compound has brought me back to health." The thousands of instances where this has been said—by scores of people in every community who have told this simple story; the downright, hard, cold facts; the grateful acknowledgments of men and women who have suffered from the diseases that have their origin in impaired nervous systems and sluggish, impure blood—these are what have made Paine's celery compound far and away the one remedy above all others that physicians prescribe and the public endorse.

THE NEWS IN OTTAWA.

OTTAWA, Can., Jan. 22.—When the news of the Queen's death reached Ottawa the Secretary of State issued a proclamation continuing in office all who held positions under the Crown.

King of Greece Goes to London.

ATHENS, Jan. 22.—King George started for London tonight. To Strengthen Britain's Navy. LONDON, Jan. 22.—In the course of a very strong editorial appeal this morning for strengthening the navy of Great Britain, and placing it on an adequate war footing, the Times says: "Our fleet should be of sufficient size, force and equipment and readiness for

SCORPION GOES TO CURACAO.

Probably to Forward Minister Loomis' Dispatches. NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—A special to the Times from Washington says: In all probability something definite will be received shortly throwing light on what is happening in Venezuela.

The News in Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Can., Jan. 22.—When the news of the Queen's death reached Ottawa the Secretary of State issued a proclamation continuing in office all who held positions under the Crown.

King of Greece Goes to London.

ATHENS, Jan. 22.—King George started for London tonight. To Strengthen Britain's Navy. LONDON, Jan. 22.—In the course of a very strong editorial appeal this morning for strengthening the navy of Great Britain, and placing it on an adequate war footing, the Times says: "Our fleet should be of sufficient size, force and equipment and readiness for

NOTHING ELSE CURES

Why Paine's Celery Compound is the Best Remedy in the World.

"When everything else has failed, Paine's celery compound has brought me back to health." The thousands of instances where this has been said—by scores of people in every community who have told this simple story; the downright, hard, cold facts; the grateful acknowledgments of men and women who have suffered from the diseases that have their origin in impaired nervous systems and sluggish, impure blood—these are what have made Paine's celery compound far and away the one remedy above all others that physicians prescribe and the public endorse.

BURNED A BRITISH VESSEL

Highbanded Doings of Venezuelan Sailors. NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—A dispatch to the Herald from Fort of Spain, Trinidad, says: The rebellion is spreading.

SCORPION GOES TO CURACAO.

Probably to Forward Minister Loomis' Dispatches. NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—A special to the Times from Washington says: In all probability something definite will be received shortly throwing light on what is happening in Venezuela.

The News in Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Can., Jan. 22.—When the news of the Queen's death reached Ottawa the Secretary of State issued a proclamation continuing in office all who held positions under the Crown.

King of Greece Goes to London.

ATHENS, Jan. 22.—King George started for London tonight. To Strengthen Britain's Navy. LONDON, Jan. 22.—In the course of a very strong editorial appeal this morning for strengthening the navy of Great Britain, and placing it on an adequate war footing, the Times says: "Our fleet should be of sufficient size, force and equipment and readiness for

NOTHING ELSE CURES

Why Paine's Celery Compound is the Best Remedy in the World.

"When everything else has failed, Paine's celery compound has brought me back to health." The thousands of instances where this has been said—by scores of people in every community who have told this simple story; the downright, hard, cold facts; the grateful acknowledgments of men and women who have suffered from the diseases that have their origin in impaired nervous systems and sluggish, impure blood—these are what have made Paine's celery compound far and away the one remedy above all others that physicians prescribe and the public endorse.

TUTT'S PILLS

Will be cured by its natural duties and your biliousness, headache and constipation be cured if you take Hood's Pills.

