Singular East Side Association.—The East Side, which has won some notoriety from the actions of a gang of young ruffans, who are styled the Society of Sneaking Scoundrels, or, for short, the "S. S." has another somewhat singular association. This is a sort of club of larger boys, or young men, who have a clubroom in a shack near the corner of Eighth and Multnomah streets. It is comfortably fitted up, and only members of the association are admitted. They have a tail flag-pale, on which they display a a tall flag-pale, on which they display a green light. It is said the members of this association are well behaved, and no sutrages of public decency have been committed by them. They have, or had, a telephone and electric lights, which they secured by tapping the wires, but these are needed in their business.

Sampson's Narrow Hecape.—Edwin Sampson had a narrow escape yesterday morning, while descending on a rope from the fourth story in the Heywood Bros. establishment. The rope runs through a pulley down a shaft, and is used for holeting chairs. Sampson wanted to make a quick trip to the ground floor and selsed the rope. Instead of taking both ropes. the rope. Instead of taking both ropes, he grabbed only one. His weight caused him to descend with exceeding swiftness, there being nothing to counterbalance at the lower end. His fall was checked at the second floor by the hook of the lowe end catching on a plank. He was severely shaken up and brulsed, but no bones were CHIMBRE GOODS COMING IN.-The employes in the office of General Summers, Apprelser of Customs, are examining and passing large quantities of Chinese goods and merchandlise of all kinds. The Chi-nese New Year is not far away, and unusually large shipments of all kinds of goods, particularly delicacles for the ta-ble, are always received by the Chinese prior to their celebration of that important event. Embalmed eggs, sharks' fins, swallows' nests, sen slugs and many like tempting dainties are in great demand for the proper observance of New Year's.

LICENSIB CHEERFULLY PAID .- Licenses of all kinds for the current quarter have been paid, except a few small amounts. The payers of licenses under the old law The payers of licenses under the old law have settled with more readiness and chearfulness than ever before. A few who come under the blanket ordinance are still waiting to have their attention called to the fact that their licenses are due and payable, and this will be attended to at once. The city's revenue from licenses bids fair to be considerably larger this year than it was in 1995. year than it was in 1900.

HARD EVEN FOR STRIKERS.—A politician or political striker who came down from Salem yesterday was questioned by some of his friends in regard to the Senatorial situation, "Gentlemen," said he, "the present Senatorial situation is the most mplex political conundrum I have ever had anything to do with. No one can form any idea of what the outcome will be, and if any one says he knows anything about it, you can set him down for the champion prevarientor of the cent-

ANCIENT LANDMARK RAZED.-The old poden building, on the north side of Taylor street, between Third and Fourth, has been torn down. It is probably one of the oldest buildings in the city, and should have been razed long agu, as there was not a sound timber in it. Every beam and joist was rotten to the core. The shack was occupied by Chinese. Tho ground, Sixio feet, is owned in the East. It has been rented by A. C. Lohmire, who will build on it.

SECTION BOSS KILLED.-Peter Miller, a Section Boss Killed.—Peter Miller, a Southern Pacific section boss at Canby, was killed near there, yeaterday morning, by an extra engine. Miller was riding over his section on a tricycle when he was run down by the engine, which he did not know was coming. He appears to have been a general favorite at Canby, and his numerous friends there were much distressed by the fatal accident.

An Annoring Comment.—Residents of the neighborhood of Twelfth and Alder streets complain of a young man who holds forth on street corners, between 3 and 9 o'check nightly, and plays cornet solos until everybody is tired. ### COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Night.

The "Knobs o' Tennessee" will open its engagement at the Marquam Grand tomorrow night, continuing Saturday matines and Satuday night. Popular prices will prevail at both evening performances and at the matines.

Kentucky's and Tennessee's big-hearted wild mountaineers have been often painted by the dramatist with varying success, but there can be no doubt of the beauties of the fouches reflected in the first and second acts of "Knobs o' Tennessee." Hal Beid has done his best and his work is ably interpreted by Miss Alice Marble, L. B. Parker and company.

The comedy is furnished by three char-The comedy is furnished by three characters—Jerry, an Irish employe, Centennial, an old darky servant, and Hennie, a Swede servant-girl. They keep the house in an uproar while they are on the stage, their best work being in the ghost scene. The play has been successful the past three seasons, and if its past reputation is any indication, should pack the Marquam to the doors. The sale of seats opened yesterday morning.

"Northern Lights" at Cordray's. "Northern Lights," which comes ordray's Theater next Sunday night, several American historic characters, dealing with the events that led up to the Custer Massacre in 1876. General Crook, who was known to the Indiana as the Gray Fox, is a prominent figure in the play. John Swiftwind, an educated Indian who was made prisoner by the Sioux Indians on the battle-field, was the only living witness to the Custer massacre. Several other well-known historic characters are named in the play. Peo-ple who have witnessed the battle scene in the play say that it is more realistic than the bathe scene in Shenandoah. After the arrival of the courier with news of the Indian treachery the play has three distinct olimaxes, each so thrilling that it is difficult to imagine that the author will be able to finsh the play with a climax stronger than the former one.

"The New Walfs of New York." Mr. Lorin J. Howard's production of ...e New Waits of New York," with the inimitable little comedienne, ...erry" Katle Emmett in the leading role, will be the offering at the Metropolitan Theater one week, starting Sunday, January 27. It goes without saying that a most en-joyable night is in store for all who are on hand. The play has a record of ever six mosths in New York and proporjoyable night is in store for all who are on hand. The play has a record of over on hand. The play has a record of over the country. It is recognized as the best sensational drama of New York He yet written, and is presented with an entire complement of scenery showing the principal points of interest in New York and its environs. The mechanical effects are new, original and startling, and are calculated to enthuse any audience. Miss Emmett has a National reputation as a most winsome and talented comedienne.

W. Kline, ex-Postmaster of Hillsdale, is buying a consignment of draft horses to take to Dawson this season. He has been in the Klondike country for for has been in the Kiondike country for four years, and is engaged in the forwarding business, as well as in placer mining on Gold Hill. When seen at the Perkins yesterday, Mr. Klins was fluent in his praises of that country and of the chances for a poor man to benefit himself. "They like to encourage Americans up there," he said, "and the authorities are doing averaging to their particles are they, he said, "and the authorities are doing everything in their power to make it pleasant for us. The mounted police are a jolly crowd of fellows, though they are implacable when it comes to enforcing the laws against rowdylsm and thievery. So far as the collection of royalty on the gold output is concerned, it does not bear so heavily on the miners as one would imagine, while life and property are so safe that there is very little complaint at the collection of licenses."

Mr. Kline thinks that this year's output of gold will be larger than ever, as the diggings will be worked in the Summer instead of Winter. Sluice boxes and pipes can be run for about four months of the year, and the thawing machines will be largely discarded. Water is abundant, as living glaciers are found everywhere, so there will be no delay from that source."

Mr. Kline expects to leave Portland for the North about February 15.

The Legislature of Oregon will be asked to endorse the enterprise by a suitable appropriation, as upon this state's action will depend the manner in which the project is received by the adjoining states, and by Congress. ## DEFENDS ENGLAND'S POLICY

Former Portland Girl Writes Concerning the Boer War.

Mrs. Barbara Macleay Dudgeon, daugh-ter of the late Donald Macleay, of Port-land, has written a letter to the New York Nation, defending the policy of England toward the Boers. The letter, under the caption "Fair Play," follows: To the Editor of the Nation: As a constant reader of the Nation in this land of my adop-tion I cannot, though an American imbased with strong affection for my native land, in justice allow the statement made by "Bautty" in your issue of November 15 to pass unchal-

Lord Roberts has certainly ordered that all Boer farmhouses found concealing ammuni-tion, or used as defenses from which firing is carried on against British troops, are to be burned to the ground. In these cases they are simply pawder magazines and hostile positions to be taken. All Boers have been duly warned of this proclamation, and disregard it at their own risk. It would be well for "Equity" to read the history of our own war and Sheri-dan's devastation of the Shemandoub Valley.

As for the women and children, they have been in all cases treated kindly, and conveyed been in all cases treated kindly, and conveyed been in all cases treated kindly, and conveyed to places of safety. It is morally impossible to fight in kid gloves with velvet cushions, and a people who deliberately declare war upon another must be prepared to take the consequences. "We got the order to go to Jagersfontein, as the Rosen had risen and were doing some damage to the English there. The Boer commandant got about 500 Boers into the town into his sarden in the night time. The Seaforths were lying in the town square, about 10 yards from the house, and as the cooks got up in the early morning to make breakfast and were putting on their kits, the Boers opened fire on them from behind the wall, about 10 yards off, in an instant all were out, but the first walley they gut killed their commandant and about 16 men.
