TO HOMESTEAD LANDS

BILL TO EXTEND LAW TO COLVILLE INDIAN RESERVATION.

Representative Jones Fathers the Measure—Review of His Report on the Matter.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The bill of Representative Jones, extending to the opened half of the Colville Indian reservation, the provisions of the free homestead law, was recommended by the House committee for favorable report, and was turned over to Mr. Jones, to draw the formal statement recommending the bill for passage. In his report, Mr. Jones shows that the free homestead act provides that all settlers under the homestead laws of the United States upon the agricultural public lands, which have been opened to settlers prior to the passage of that act, should be entitled to patent, upon complying with the provisions of the homestead laws. It was thought, he states, that this act covered the lands affected by the pending bill, because everything had been done to open the lands to settlement, but the date fixed for the formal opening was October 10, 1900, a few months subsequent to the passage of the free homestead bill, and it has therefore been held that these lands of the Colville reservation were not included in the scope of the original bill, and must receive this benefit by special act.

These lands were thrown open to settlement under the act of June 30, 1892, and each settler was required to pay $1 50 per acre for the lands, in addition to complying with the usual requirements of the homestead act. One-third of this sum was to be paid within two years after the date of the original entry.

Mr. Jones shows that the Colville Reservation was set aside by executive order, and that the act of 1892 was passed on the theory that the land should be thrown open to settlement without any treaty with the Indians. No treaty has ever been ratified with these Indians, and the Government has never agreed to pay anything for the lands. The act of 1892, moreover, provided that the proceeds arising from the sale of these lands were to be set apart in the Treasury of the United States, for the time being, and subject to such appropriations for public use as Congress might make, and until so otherwise appropriated, it was to be subject to expenditure by the Secretary of the Interior in such amounts as he might deem best for the building of schools, houses, maintenance of schools for such Indians, and for the payment of such part of local taxation as may be properly applied to the lands allotted to such Indians. In other words, the price provided to be paid seems to be in the nature of a direct tax upon each settler for the sole purpose of educating these Indians, and not for the purpose of reimbursing the Government for any amount it may pay or might be required to pay the Indians by treaty or otherwise.

This fact makes it all the more just that the pending bill should become a law, as the lands of the other reservations covered by the free homestead bill were acquired from the Indians by actual purchase on the part of the Government. These lands have cost the Government nothing, and there is no reason whatever why they should not be subject to the usual homestead provisions.

Roosevelt's Hunting Experiences.

MEEKER, Colo., Jan. 24.—News direct from the Keystone ranch, at which place the Roosevelt hunting party is staying, shows that between the 12th and 22d inst., 12 full-grown mountain lions, three kittens and eight lynx cats were killed. Last Saturday the party had quite an exciting adventure with one lion. The lion was held captive by and was fighting with the whole pack of hounds. The hunters were trying to get near enough to the animal to kill it with their knives, when it seized one of the dogs by the jaw. Governor Roosevelt shoved the breech of his gun into the lion's mouth, holding the gun by one hand, with the other striking the lion a death blow with his knife. His gun shows the marks of the lion's teeth. All the grown lions were killed with the knife. The Vice-President-elect has decided to stay for another two weeks.

Hope for Mrs. Maybrick.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—Clark Bell, president of the Medical and Legal Aid Society, has announced that his society has determined to take up the Maybrick case at once, and that the chances are now more favorable than ever for the pardon or acquittal, after fair trial, of the American woman under sentence of life imprisonment in England, charged with murdering her husband by poisoning. The taking up of the case is due to the attitude which the new King of England is known to have assumed toward Mrs. Maybrick. It is said that he has made it no secret that he favors her pardon. In case all appeals to the King and the new Home Secretary fail, it is understood that the Medical and Legal Aid Society will ask Miss Clara Barton, of the Red Cross Society, to make a personal appeal to the King.

PROPOSALS FOR CLOTHING AND EQUIPage—Depot Quartermaster's Office, 36 New Montgomery St., San Francisco, Cal., January 19, 1901.—Sealed proposals, in triplicate, will be received at this office until 10 o'clock A. M., Friday, February 8, 1901, Pacific standard time, and then opened, for furnishing woolen blankets, drab campaign hats, black oak and chrome tanned calfskin shoes, russett shoes, Nainsook undershirts, Nainsook drawers, and Chambray shirts. Quantities to be subject to an increase of 20 per cent, if desired by this department. Unguaranteed bids, and bids upon samples differing from standards and specifications, will under no circumstances be considered. Proposals for less quantities than advertised for will be entertained. Early deliveries are essential. The rate and time of delivery must be stated by bidders in their proposals, and no proposition should be made which they are not positive that they can absolutely fulfill. The United States reserves the right to accept or reject any or all proposals or any part thereof. Information and blanks for proposals will be furnished on application. Envelopes containing proposals will be indorsed "Proposals No. 465," and addressed to MAJOR OSCAR F. LONG, Quartermaster, U. S. Vols., Depot Quartermaster.
