Governor Nash's Move to Prevent the Prizefight.

DECLARED TO BE A NUISANCE

Restraining Order Is Wanted on That Cause-Petition Avers the Contest Would Cause Gathering of Undesirable Persons.

CINCINNATI, Or., Jan. 29.—Sult was begun today before Judge Howard Hollis-ter, of the Common Pleas Court, to en-join the proposed Jeffries-Ruhlin contest here February 15. This proceeding is in here February h. This proceeding is in the name of the state, and was begun by Attorney-General Sheets at the direction of Governor Nash. The petition declares the proposed prizefight to be a nuiscance, and a restraining order is wanted on that cause, rather than under any sections of the Ohio statutes periaining to prize-fighting.

No application for an injunction was made today as it is desired first to have notices served on the defendants so as to have a hearing on the merits of the case. The defendants are the original Saenger-fest trustees, the members of the Saen-gerfest Athletic Association, Jeffries and Buhlin and the members of the Zoological Association, on whose ground the Saengerfest Hall stands. The petition svers that the contest would cause a gathering of "toughs" and idle and victous people, whose presence in crowds would be a menace to life, good order, property and general welfare of the community. It is ordered that the attorneys of the Saengerfest Athletic Association will not only accept the service immediately, but will also request as early a hearing as

Arguments may be made on the application for an injunction Thursday, when the attorneys of the opponents of the fight will attempt to show that a contest or the heavy-weight championship of the world is not such as can come under the Chio statutes. They will then show that they mean by a petition to enjoin a nuisance. Those seeking to prevent the fight have certainly engaged a formidable array of legal talent, including Judson Harmon, who was attorney-General under Cleveland; Gustave Wald, John W. Warrington, Lawrence Maxwell, Jr., E. W. Kittridge and J. W. Herron. Jeffries and Ruhlin, who were arrested last night and held in $1000 bonds, will have their hearing Thursday. Very it the interest is taking in this proceeding brought in the court of Squire Rochling, as it is understood to be a friendly action under section Till of the Ohio statutes and that the defendants will both be reworld is not such as can come under the CINCINNATI, Jan. 29.—It is stated to-night that the suit to enjoin the Saenger-fest Athletic Club from pulling off the Jeffries-Ruhlin contest will be heard by Judge Hollster Monday, February 11. Both puglists went about their work today as if the contest would surely be pulled off. Jeffries still suffers some on account of his knee, which he injured while playing ball Monday last. Ruhlin took to road work early in the morning, and after going about it miles returned to his quarter. ing about 10 miles returned to his quarters. Later he exercised with the various training appliances, and then put on the gloves for several rounds with his trainer. The sale of tickets for the contest went on as usual today, and the sale was said to be large.

Will Not Affect the Case.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 29. — Governor Nash said today that the arrests of the principals in the Cincinnati prizefight would have no possible effect on the pro-ceedings instituted by Attorney-General Sheets in the Cincinnati courts today to enjoin the fight. He declined to make Attorney-General Sheets said that the arrest of Jeffries and Rublin was undoubtdly made to anticipate an action upon the part of the state.

GREAT NAVAL PAGEANT

REMAINS OF VICTORIA WILL TRAY-ERSE A LANE OF WARSHIPS.

Preparations for the Funeral Procession Through London-Duke of York May Not Attend.

LONDON, Jan. B.—In London active preparations for the Queen's funeral are being made all along the route. Houses are being draped and seating accommodation is being provided. A committee of ladies has obtained permission to hang wreaths of evergreen along the line, one to be affixed to each lamp post, and all being three feet in diameter and of uniform pattern.

Of all the ceremonies, no doubt the naval will be the pageant. The Alberta, with the body, will slowly steam along a line of battle-ships extending eight miles. Facing these giants of the British Navy will be smaller vessels and numerous foreign battle-ships. Whatever the weather may be, the speciacle of the remains of

The Post says: "This spontaneous mark of honor proves that the suggestion of certain papers that the coolness between the Prince of Wales and the Emperor would not be without influence on the two countries is destitute of all foundation."

The Berliner Tageblatt says: "A man like the Emperor will know, when a fitting occasion appears, how to breathe life into his position of a Field Marshal of the British army, which, in itself, is purely ornamental. It may fairly be affirmed without avangation that Fig. purely ornamental. At the same time there is much head-shaking in regard to the Emperor William's pronounced Anglomania, and the whole tenor of his world policy which, however, without the good-will of Great Britain, is generally recognized as an impossibility.

The alleged remark of the Kaiser with reference to the little sympathy displayed reference to the little sympathy displayed by the Reichstag and Prussian Diet in connection with the death of Queen Victoria, although further repudiated, still continues to be challenged even by ultra-conservative papers. ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 28.-The news papers here comment at length on Em peror William's appointment as Field Marshal of the British army. The Svet says: "The appointment and the naval display at Spit Head demonstrate the of-fensive and defensive character of the Anglo-German alliance. It is now clear Mr. Kruger was not received at Berlin because Germany needed the alliance of Great Britain in order to assume a predominating position in the Bulkars, Asia Minor and the Far East." The Svet con-siders the rapprochement distinctly in-jurious to Russia. The Bourse Gazette is of the opinion that another stage has been reached on the road which is leading Germany into the arms of England, "who is now hunt-ing for alliances instead of boasting of her splendid isolation."

The Novosti regards as fantastic the idea of an Anglo-German alliance being a "panacea for sick England," and doubts if the alliance is practical or if the directors of German policy entertain the schemes ascribed to them."

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—The directors of the American Steel & Wire Company is sued a statement to the stockholders this afternoon that action on the dividend question on the common and preferred stocks had been postponed until the meeting of the board next March. It was also announced that an amendment to the by-laws of the company makes it oblig-atory upon the directors to act upon the question of dividends quarterly, beginning March 1. The board voted to advance prices on standard goods $2 per ton, effective at once. The statement to the stockholders for the year ending Decem-ber 31, 1999 shows net earnings of $5.00. 128, of which $1,000,000 is marked off for de-

The Herald tomorrow will say: "The explanation of the official an-councement is that quarterly dividend lectarations are more sensible than annual dividend declarations. Speculative opinion as to the mystery of the steel and wire directors' actions was mixed. Some believed that Messrs. Widener and Nolan wanted a dividend declared and had won a tentative victory in having the question postponed until after the annual stockholders' meeting, instead of having Gates and his friends force the passage of the dividend altogether. Others aver that the entire board is acting harmoniously, and have similar views as to what course Steel & Wire common ought to take in the market in the near
