LOVED NOISE TOO MUCH

THIS LED TO THE ARREST OF FOUR BURGLARS.

They Insisted on Ringing the Gongs of Stolen Alarm Clocks, to Neighbors' Annoyance.

Their foolish practice of setting the gongs in alarm-clocks ringing led to the arrest, yesterday, of J. W. Murray, John unning, Frank Mace and George Murphy, charged with being implicated in the robbery of E. Janofski's store, M. Front street, last Monday. One of the doors of Janofski's store was forced and those articles stolen: Four alarm-clocks, six revolvers, three watch movements, two open-face, cheap watches; M pocket-knives, several watch chains and kid gloves.

Detectives Snow and Kerrigan were placed on the case, and in the course of their investigations heard yesterday that some of the boarders in a house near First and Main streets were furious because other boarders in the house were continu-ally ringing bells in alarm-clocks. One man said: "The gongs have been ringing for hours. I've got a headache from the fool husiness."

"Alarm-clocks were stolen from Janofskis place," said Snow to Kerrigan, and they waited around that Main-street house until it was supposed the admirers of the slarm-clock gong music were in session. "Birr-r-r" suddenly sounded from an upstairs window, and the detectives rushed to the room, but the lookout man saw them coming and he jumped from au open window to the ground, a distance of 20 feet, and escaped. Murray, Dunning, Mace and Murphy were all in the room, bending over a collection of alarm-clocks-in full blast-watches, watch chains and revolvers, all of which were subsequently identified by Janofoskii as having been stolen from his store.

The prisoners were taken by Snow and Kerrigan to the police station, where another prisoner named Joseph Morales, detained as a suspicious character, was being examined. Morales had been arrested on Monday night by Detectives Day and Wesner, and no sooner had the other four prisoners sat down near Morales than Mace was observed to pass something to Morales, and the latter placed his right hand on his breast. Just as quickly, a detective who had witnessed the little passage-at-arms, took a re-volver from under Morales' vest.

"Why did you pass that revolver to forales?" was saked of Mace. "I ain't sayin' nuthin'?" Mace repiled. The police are now working on the case, as it is believed that Morales previously knew the other four prisoners, It is be lieved that Mace gave the revolver t Morales believing that Morales had a ready been searched. Mace, the police think, did not wish to face a charge of carrying a concealed deadly weapon. Morales was arrested by Day and Weener last Monday as he stood in front of a Third-street store window, gazing intent-ly at little gold nuggets in a glass bottle orales' eyes were glistening, and as the solice knew him to be an ex-convict in California and heard he was looking for souvenirs in Portland, before he left for San Francisco, he was arrested as a had man. Then he was told that the gold nuggets were hellow, not solid, such as dentists use, and that their total value was $3. "I thought they were solid nug-gets, worth $76," explained Morales, with crestfallen alr.

The police said that Murray Dunning, Mace and Murphy were armed with re-volvers when arrested, and that they reslated capture. One prisoner had to be knocked down, while the others were cowed by the detectives revolvers. Six of the stolen watches were found in a stove, which was partially filled with pr

Detectives Snow and Kerrigan after ward visited a house near First and Clay streets, where they arrested Charles Jones, Joseph Enton, George Lewis and George Martin, charged with vagrancy. These prisoners were shown to all police. men in the city, and were told that they must leave town today, else they will be sent to jall as vagrants.

Prunes in the Ration.

VANCOUVER BARRACKS, Wash., Jan. 28 .- (To the Editor.) - Referring to the editorial in this morning's Ore, "Up to Prunegrowers," you are respect fully informed that dried fruits have been a component of the Army ration for about two years past, prunes forming, by or-der, at least three-tenths of the allowance. I have purchased many thousand pounds of these for use of troops in this sountry, Alaska and the Philippines, and for the transport service. Apples, pened and apricots are also furnished. Very spectfully. JAMES N. ALLISON,
