FOR A. O. U. W. LIBRARY

CARNIVAL OPENED TO A LARGE ATTENDANCE.

Mayor Rowe Speaks Good Words for the Order—Evening of Continuous Amusement.

The A. O. U. W. Library carnival opened auspiciously in the music-room of the Exposition Building last evening. There was a large attendance of visitors, who filled the gallery and thronged the floor of the auditorium, which was lined with booths and the side shows, presenting continuous entertainment. The hall was prettily decorated with the National colors and A. O. U. W. banners. Extolling the merits of the various attractions were men equal to those of the professional craft, while groups of pretty, white-capped girls managed the booths, where articles were sold for the benefit of the library fund. On the stage, a continuous musical and vaudeville programme was given that proved entertaining to the visitors, as they shifted from booth to side-show.

The programme last night was in charge of the West Side A. O. U. W. lodges, excepting Industry, No. 8, and Evergreen Lodge, No. 1, Degree of Honor, who will assist during the other evenings. Mayor H. S. Rowe, on behalf of the City of Portland, delivered the address of welcome. Saying, in part:

"Of all the branches of benevolent work in which associations of men may engage, I know of none more fruitful of results than the influence of libraries and the cultivation of a desire for the reading of good books. The insurance against want of those dependent upon you, which your fraternity provides in the event of death, may be insufficient, or it may be stolen or squandered, but if those in whom you are interested acquire a love for good books they will find companions among the wise and the great, and they will be possessed of true conceptions of happiness and ability to attain it, compared with which any material endowment would be a pittance. I hope for your undertaking the full measure of success which the excellence of the project merits, and which the energy of your brotherhood will surely win. I most heartily welcome you to Portland, and I extend to you the freedom of the city."

For the A. O. U. W. lodges, Past Grand Master J. E. Werlein responded.

Besides the acts by the talent of the various side-shows, and the musical numbers by the orchestra, there was a piano duet by the Misses Datesman, a vocal solo by Miss Mahoney, club swinging by Charles Henry, a male chorus of thirty-five voices, lasso-throwing and rope-juggling by R. Chamberlain, and a clever acrobatic act by Bowman and Duff.

A new and attractive programme has been arranged for this evening, under the auspices of Industry Lodge, No. 8, and Port Indus, No. 57.

The evening's entertainment closed with dancing.
