MULTNOMAH CLERK BILL

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO NOTTINGHAM MEASURE.

It Would Abolish Clerks of Circuit and County Courts and Recorder of Conveyances.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 7.—The amendments made to the bill introduced by Nottingham to consolidate certain offices of Multnomah County, reported by the delegation from that county, and adopted by the House, are as follows:

Sec. 2. That at the general election to be held in Multnomah County on the first Monday in June, 1902, and biennially thereafter at each general election, there shall be elected for the period of two years, and as other county officers are elected, a County Clerk of Multnomah County, who shall assume the duties of such office at 12 o'clock M., on the first Monday in July, next after his election, and who shall hold such office until his successor is elected and qualified; said County Clerk shall receive an annual salary of $2500, and shall receive no other fees or emoluments.

A person is not eligible to the office of County Clerk of Multnomah County unless he be a citizen of the United States, a qualified elector under the constitution of this state, and shall have been a resident of said county for the period of one year next preceding his election. The Clerk of the Circuit Court, the Clerk of the County Court and the Recorder of Conveyances in Multnomah County then in office shall each, at 12 o'clock M. on the first Monday of July, 1902, deliver to the County Clerk of Multnomah County all books, papers, records, files and other property belonging or appertaining to their respective offices, then in their possession or under their control as such officers.

Sec. 3. The said County Clerk shall perform each and all of the duties now prescribed by law to be performed by the Clerk of the County Court of Multnomah County, the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Multnomah County and the Recorder of Conveyances of Multnomah, and wherever any of said officers are designated or mentioned in any law or statute of the state now in force, it shall be read so as to mean "County Clerk." He shall keep all the public records, books and papers of the county, except as otherwise provided by law; he shall be ex-officio clerk of the County Court, Clerk of the Circuit Court and Recorder of Conveyances for said county, and perform all the duties of such Clerks and Recorder and such other duties as may be prescribed for him by law.

Sec. 4. Such County Clerk may, by writing, appoint to serve during his pleasure three deputies, who shall each receive a salary of not more than $100 per month, and such Clerk may, in like manner, if found necessary, appoint five other deputies, one of whom shall be an efficient stenographer, and each of whom shall receive a salary of not more than $75 per month, each of which deputies shall have the power to perform any act or duty relating to such Clerk's office that his principal may perform, and for the acts of such deputies the County Clerk shall be responsible.

The compensation of such Clerk and of such deputies shall be provided for and paid by the county. Each of such deputies shall before entering upon the duties of his office, take the same oath of office taken by his principal, and such oath shall be indorsed on the writing by which he shall be appointed, and shall be filed with the County Clerk and be a public record. Each such deputy shall be continuously employed in the discharge of the duties of his office for at least eight hours of each judicial day, and may be directed and required to do and perform any work or duty pertaining to the office of the Clerk, and either of such deputies may be and serve as crier of the Circuit or County Court, for said county, if appointed crier by such court, but no additional compensation shall be allowed or paid to any such deputy for serving as such crier. And it shall be the duty of such Clerk to so dispose, direct and employ all deputies and additional help in his office in such manner as to complete the work thereof with the least practicable expense to his county.

Sec. 5. In addition to the deputies hereinbefore mentioned, the County Clerk may, upon the necessity being shown to the County Court of Multnomah County and order obtained from such court therefor, employ such additional help as may appear to such court to be necessary, temporarily, to perform any special work at a compensation not exceeding $— per day while actually employed on such work, and the county shall audit and pay the bills for such help.

Sec. 6. Such County Clerk shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, qualify therefor by filing with the Treasurer of Multnomah County his certificate of election with an oath of office indorsed thereon and subscribed and sworn to by him, to the effect that he will support the Constitution of the United States and of this state, and faithfully demean himself in office, and by giving to the state and filing with said Treasurer an official undertaking in the sum of $25,000, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, who must be residents of the county and have the qualification of bail upon arrest, which undertaking must be approved by the County Judge, and must be to the effect that such Clerk will faithfully perform all the duties of his office and well and truly, according to law, pay over and deliver all money, books, papers and other property which shall come into his possession by virtue of his office.

Sec. 7. That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

The bill has not yet been printed, but under action of the House, taken today, its printing as amended was ordered.

LUDLOW AT A BANQUET.

He Says the Army Is the Best Friend of the Public.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—General Ludlow, late military Governor of Havana, was the principal speaker at the annual banquet of the Crockery Board of Trade which was given last night at the Waldorf-Astoria. The General in a humorous speech responded to the toast, "The Army," and received an ovation.

Other speakers were Congressman William A. Smith, of Michigan; J. Crawford James, Frank W. Mack, James B. Dill and R. S. Gouldsbury. Edward F. Atkinson, the newly elected president, was toastmaster. About 200 members and guests took part. General Ludlow, in his address, said:

"The Army of late has not been in the habit of meeting the peaceful citizens of this country. It has been otherwise engaged. I hope that will be changed in the near future. The march of our Army has been somewhat remote and isolated from the march of trade and commerce. The public in this country, unlike other countries, knows very little about the Army, because the Army has always been engaged as the pioneer of trade and commerce on the extreme edge of civilization.

"If you knew us, you would love us. There is no better friend of the public, of progress and civilization, than the Army and its officers. I know it will appeal to you if I say that the Army is not like a bull in a crockery shop. It is not always for destruction; it needs peace as well as everybody, and must have it even if it has got to fight for it."

Maurice Thompson Worse.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Feb. 7.—A sudden change for the worse took place in the condition of Maurice Thompson, the author, last night. His relatives have been summoned, and hope for his recovery has been practically abandoned.
