THE MORNING OREGONIAN, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1901. CITY NEWS IN BRIEF CULINARY QUESTION NOT ANSWERED. judices of their professions as are the nverage doctors and dentists of the old school. In cases of malpractice the suf ferer at the hands of any practitioner al-AGAINST PUBLIC POLICY "A Housewife" writes to The Oregonian to my chat a fashion magnaine which abe takes contains the following statement, and she wishes to know whether if is GREAT ARRAY OF VAL The Genuine Amusements Tonight. ways finds an easy way for redress, and beyond this the diploms of any advanced college of recognized merit is protection enough for the public to demand at the MARQUAN GRAND-"The Rounders," true of not: "Strange to say, the sweet-est and most delicately flavored part of a beef is the neck, and if people were more aware of this fact it might soon become CORDRAT'S THEATER - "Shooting the UNJUST CLASS LEGISLATION AT-TEMPTED IN DENTAL BILL. METROPOLITAN THEATER- The Argel of hands of a state medical or a state dental the Alley." the fachion and instead of being the champest, would soon become the most ex-pensive part of the animal." It is hardly fair to ask The Oregonian to decide such oclety. Portland has witnessed the success of a The greatest of all mercantile magnets-is the motive which drawn PLANOS so many prudent buyers to TRAPPING INDUSTRY DECLINING .- A Examination of the Campaign in Its number of "advertising doctors" who were men of marked ability. Dr. Mont-gomery, of the Copeland Institute, has iaken two post graduate courses in one of the greatest of New York's hospitals. farmer's how was seen yesterday market-ing a few muskrat skins, one mink skin, and about a dozen skunk skins at a com-mission store on Front street. The amount he received for the whole was not large. Fayor Docan't Show Up Well a question which Housekeeper should de-cide for hermelf by purchasing a beel's neck from her butcher and cooking parts of it in various ways. If the fashion magfor Its Promoters. He is a man of culture, a gentieman in all his intercourse with his fellow man, and fulr-minded to a marked degree. He is not only a man of ability in his profes-Made by Chickering & Sons but the lad's eyes lighted up as he fin-gled the coins in his pocket and remarked, "I wish they had all been mink skins." The dealer, who handles hides, wool and of an value ways. It the mean ways made of green cheese there would have been some reason in applying to The Orogonian for an opinion in the matter, but House-FORTLAND, Or., Feb. 14 .- (To the Edlof Boston. tor.)-The attempt to regulate the practice of medicine and surgery in any state not only a man of solity in his profes-sion, but a man well read on all general topics of general discussion. He has per-formed operations in his institute in Port-iand that have called for the hearitest congratulations on his achievements from for sealer, who handles hides, wool and furs, said the boy was the first "trapper" he had seen for some time. "The fur bosiness of this section is nothing like what it used to be," he said, "and is failing off all the time. The fur-bearing animals are about trapped out and there is no longer enough left to pay any one for making a business of trapping. Beav-er are still outle numerous in places but for an opinion in the matter, but House-keeper is better prepared to ascertain the facts in regard to the sweetness, delicacy and flavor of beers neck than The Ore-gonian. It may be that the fashion mag-azines are not satisfied with dictaining what people shall wear and desire to pre-scribe what they shall eat; if so, it is go-ing to be very hard on people who have formed their tastes and preferences in by statutory enactment, while laudable in the main, is more often than other-Are sold in Oregon Dress Goods wise open to censure from the standpoint Golf suitings in oxfords, army, golf green or navy, per yard... Fileeced plaids in wide range of colors, light, dark or medium, per yard... 49-inch check suitings, gray and black, per yard congratulations on his achievements from his friends among the "regular" doctors. On his small fee of §5 a month for the treatment of all cases, he has annased no small fortune since he first estab-lished himself in Portland. No single ac-tion of his since he first located here has subjected him to the least bit % of public censure, and yet he was refused admit-tance to a local club that does not at-tempt to go beyond the bounds of good personal character in passing on appli-cations for membership, simply because he "advertised." A doctor of the "regular" school peronly by of the friend of the public's welfare-a 250 consideration that calls for denunciation of unfair or victous legislation of any 1240 er are still quite numerous in places, bu There is perhaps today no trust forma-It is no longer allowed to trap them, and as deer and elk are protected, there are no more deer skins to be bought. Coyote To more der skins to be bought. Coyote skins brought a good price last year and owing to this and the bounty on scalps. a great many coyotes were killed, and this has caused a decline in prices and the coyote skin business has gone all to pieces. Mink skins maintain a fair price, but mink were never numerous and are now scarce. A number of coon skins come in, but there is not much value to them. A few hear stitus also come in Retail Salesrooms Domestics 351 Washington Street he "advertised." A doctor of the "regular" school per-formed an operation not long ago for which he demanded a fee of $2500. He did get $1500 after a fight in the courts. Mauy a man in moderate circumstances in Portland has seen his entire savings of several years or more wiped out in his attempt to meet the demands of a local mentioner who had attended him or his Unbleached muslin, per yard...... Extra quality bleached muslin, per 5c Zenda" will open this morning at 10 o'clock at the Marquam Grand, where the company appears Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, February 18, 19 them. A few bear skins also come in and vary greatly in price, really fine ones being scarce. Strange to say skunks being scarce. Birange to say skunks seem to be getting more numerous in the Williamotte Valley, but their skins bring a small price. We get some Belgian hare skins but they are worth only about 5 cents. There are a few others still com ing in and occasionally a very fine skin, and the same may be said of fisher, but the days for trapping furs in Oregon will som he over excent in increaselie practitioner who had attended him or his and 20 family through some trying spell of sick-ness. If the appeal for legislation by the dentists or the physicians is made on "The Prisoner of Zenda" has been accorded an approval that has been given comparatively few literary dramatic com-positions of late years. Other dramatizathe basis of sentiment, let this sentiment the case of sentiment, let this sentiment be of a wholesome nature, from the standpoint of the layman, the man who is called upon to support in' luxury the members of close societies who cry out the lowdest for "incidentian" tions of popular novels that have been received with popular favor have been successful in retaining the beauty of the will soon be over except in inaccessible parts of the Cascade and Coast ranges, literary work in the dramatic presenta-tion. Some have made the author's ideas subordinate to the scenic artist's effects; others have largely obliterated the value where many fur-hearing animals will con-tinue to flourish for a long time. I ex-pect to see some pretty nice lots of akins the loudest for "protection. "FAIR PLAY." coming in this Spring from such sections, as the heavy anow in the mountains will have a tendency to drive the animals down into valleys and places where they of the intellectual work, to permit of the introduction of a "sensation," while still "THE ROUNDERS" TONIGHT Thomas Q. Scabrooke Company at others have absolutely thwarted the au-THE CANADIAN BANK OF COMMERCE thor's purpose, in order to fit the manner isms or individuality of the actor or act can be caught' the Marquam Theater. SECURED A SECRETARY.-The Young Women's Christian Association of Port-Thomas Q. Seabrooke, whose art as a creator of hilarity has kept him at the top among the comic opera stars since he leaped to distinction years ago in "The With Which Is Amalgamated ress, who has essayed the stellar role. But in the drama of "The Prisoner of Zenda." the literary atmosphere, the liv-ing realities, the distinct personality that land, which has been on the lookout durfands, which has been on the lockout dur-ing several weeks for a general secre-tary, has just succeeded in securing the services of Miss Aima Hunt, of Balti-more. This is regarded as a stroke of good fortune. Miss Hunt is a graduate of the Baltimore Woman's College, and has been doing successful association work in her native stars. New Harmshites Isle of Champagne," is booked for appear-ance at the Marquam Grand tonight, Saturday matinee and Saturday night in Accounts opened for sums of $10 and upwards, and interest allowed on minimum monthly balance. Rates on application. "The Rounders," the sparkling galety with which he packed the New York Casino work in her native state, New Hampshire for 202 nights last season. "The Rounders" is described as a comic opera vaudeville, in three acts, by Harry B. Smith, and the music is by Ludwig Englander. The story opens in Biarritz, a Parisian watering place, at the height of its gay season. Among the guests are the Marquis Baccarrait and his young American wife, a Philadelphia girl, who has been carefully brought up by a worthy family of Quakers. Driven dos-oerate by the Quakerish prudery of his "The Country Girl." for 202 nights last season. in the city association at Nashua. She comes highly recommended by the na-tional committee, and will arrive next work, probably the 20th or 21st. The only "The Country Girl." The name sug-gests gingham frocks, pinafores, sunbon-244 WASHINGTON ST. nets, milk pails and a soubrette with a week, probably the 20th or 21st. The only drawback to this arrangement will be the loss of Miss Elsie West, who has been acting secretary, temporarily, until a permanent one could be found. Miss West's helpful presence in the city has been of the greatest service to the Port-land organizers of the Y. W. C. A., and she is sure to be greatly missed. But she has already produced there that more or less solled countenance and frisky dances, but it was an entirely dif-ferent country girl which William Wy-Strained Vision cherly gave to the stage in the year 1672, and which has held its own as a drawing card ever since. This country girl was of the period when the stately has already prolonged her visit here be-yond her original intention, and is needed in Chicago. The association announces that its rooms will be ready for visit-

ors in about 10 days. FREE COOKING SCHOOL.-The Woman's

Club, operating through the home department, almounces the opening of a free cooking school at the Home and In-dustrial School for Girls (formerly Home for Unemployed Women), 20615 Third street, near Clay. Lectures and demon-strations will be given on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings of each week, to which not only those in the Hume, but also all working women inter-ested in the study of practical house-keeping are invited. A teacher in cook-ing will be in constant attendance, as-Ing will be in constant attendance, as asted by the club women, one of whom will be present and give a lecture of whom will be present and give a lecture of whom will be present and give a lecture of attendance, signed the demonstration each evening. All girls attending a course of 21 lessons will receive a cortificate of attendance, signed by the club committee. The opening lecture and demonstration will be given Monday evening next. February 18, at 7-k5 of clock, at the Home, and will continue every Wednesday, Friday and Monday evening thereafter. All the working the application for a franchise for such a line. The proposed route of the line is from the society of the sected in housekeeping are invited to attend without charge. LETING BUILDINGS FOR Assessment, find their work not so pleasant since the clark at the biok is round that it would spoil the Whitehouse of the fina at the interesting of a society readily indersed the merits of attendance of the proposed rout of the read, there are quite a number opposed to it, on the read, there are quite a number opposed to it, on the franchise for social of the final their work not so pleasant since the clark which contains a diagram and description of each block in en kept secret a long, long time. When been kept secret a long, long time. When Housekeeper has completed her experi-ments with beef neck, will she be good enough to furnish The Oregonian with the result of her investigations, "not neces-sarily for publication," but as evidence of her good faith in the matter. If the herk is the best part of a beef, there are a great many who would like to know it.

THOMAS Q. SEABROKE AS MAGINNIS PASHA.

the eating line. It may be that the steak "from right back of the horns" is the finest in a beef, but if so the fact has which detarmine the relation between the which determine the relation between the man who has the goods to sell and the buyer of these wares, as exists in the organization known as the medical soci-ciles of the different municipalities and commonwealths of the country. It is not going too far to state that the effort of every regular practitioner who urges the necessity for the enactment of state capital simultaneously with the arrival of the husband, who is there by appoint-ment with Thes. With American decision he jealous little Quakeress penetrates oldly into the greenroom of the theater in which her rival is appearing, where she discovers her fickle husband at the siren's feet. The wife waits until her husband has vanished, and then, without revealing her identity, wins the sympathetic interest of the actress. The little Quakeress asks the actress the secret of captivating and holding the affections of men, and the dancer, by hiding her visitor behind a screen, gives har an object-lesson in a scene which follows, using the wife's own husband as one of the folls. Chagrined and defiant, the good little wife deter-mines to try her own powers of fascina-tion, as soon as she can find a suitable man

She has not long to wait. She finds an all too willing subject in Maginnis Pasha. an Irish Turk-that is to say, an Irishman wrecked upon the coast of Turkey, who has been adopted by the Sultan, and who is now running the gamut of Parisian galety. It develops that, in his wild-oats days, Maginnis broke the heart of Scraphine, the aunt of Thea, and now the stage maid of that celebrity. Scraphing discovers the indentity of her recreant lover just as he is about to repair to a rendervous with the Quakeress, entered upon by that very proper little lady for the sake of the lesson it may convey to her husband. Maginnis, however, finding the wife in Thea's dressing-room, believes it is Thea herself with whom he is co-worthy family of Quakers. Driven dos-perate by the Quakersh prudery of his wife, which she really carries to the laughing point, the Marguis seeks conso-lation in the society of Thes, a dancer, who is the pet of the Paris boulevards. An accident betrays the husband's gay doings, and lands the wife in the French of the husband, who is there by appoint-to the husband, who is there by appointand its froth and sparkle lend a charm to a most original story. This is the play which the late Augustin Daly revived for Miss Rehan and in which that vived for Miss Rehan and in which that well-known star scored such a tremendous success three years ago. This will be the Shirley Company's opening bill at Cordray's, Sunday night, and the management promises a produc-tion of it which will be worthy of the company and the house, Beauty on Trial.

Through the enterprise of the Meler & Frank Company, free samples of the popular skin food and complexion beautifier Satin-Skin Cream, are being given away absolutely without charge, at their tollet department. Satin-Skin Cream is a creamy essence of fragrant flowers, plant milk, healing herbs and beautifying bal-sams. It's a dainty and delightful toilet article for dally use. It restores and preserves a satin skin, corrects bad com-

Lace curtains, full size, rich patterns, per pair Fancy color bedspread, extra size, all fringed, each New designs in heavy tapestry, for portieres or couch covers, per yard. All lines table coltas, farge size, fancy border and fringe Sideboard ecarfs, pure linen, fancy patterns, and colored centers...... 150 400 35m 250

Corsets and Underwear

Fancy striped soft-bosom shirts... 200 Colored bosom, laundered shirts, each 250 Wool underwear, full finish, per gar-

50e 200 So

Shanahan's Store SALMON STREETS Nail Orders Promptly Filled No Branch Stores.

THE BANK OF BRITISH COLUMBIA Capital paid up. $8,000,000 Reset Transacts a General Banking Business, Reserve, $2,000,000

E. A. WYLD, Manager.

No More Dread of the Dental Chair

TEETH EXTRACTED AND FILLED ABSOLUTELY WITHOUT PAIN by our late scientific method applied to the gums. No sleep-producing agents or cocaine.

TTI I ABUC

11.

Brings on bad eyes. Aid the sight by resting the optic nerve with a pair of our easy glasse. They act as a restful stimulant, relieve the

as a residu sumulant, reneve ine strain and bring back health. You can change your glasses, but not your eyes. Take care of those you have that their use may not be de-nied you in old age.

WALTER REED

Eye Specialist. 183 SIXTH STREET

OREGONIAN BUILDING

clear, cold weather ended. They have to carry a plat-book, which contains a diagram and description of each block in a certain district, and have in the course a certain district, and have in the course of their investigations to examine this frequently, and as when it is raining one hand is employed in holding the book and the other in holding an um-brells to protect the book, the deputy works at a disadvantage, and foels the need of a third arm. The deputies re-port a very large number of improve-ments, which will materially in-crease the tax roll for the year. There are so far only two deputies in the field and they have been out for two or and they have been out for two or three weeks, Assessor McDonell having taken the matter of assessing improve-ments in hand earlier than usual.

Mm. Wilson's LECTURE-The applica-tion of Herbert Spencer's great formula to the themes of social life opens up many surprises to those who have not about lumber supply, taxes and insurance, which the Chamber of Commerce will supply. The date of the committee's visit to Portland is not known.

been watching the thinkers and best ex-positions of evolution. Such a surprise to some may be the thesis Mr. Robert H. WILL GO TO CHARITT .- F. R. Strong and H. C. Wilson, the administrators of the estate of Margaret Lindsey, deceased, Wilson will maintain this evening, in the social acience course at the Unitarian Chapel. That the largest amount of per-sonal liberty can only be secured by the made a report to Judge Cake yesterday, and recommended that, in accordance with the terms of the will, the sum of $1400 each be paid to the Boys' and Girls greatest possible amount of intelligent co-operation, the meeting ground of so-chalism and individualism, or the harmon-ming of their conflict, will be sought Ald Society, the Baby Home, and the City Board of Charities. The terms of the will provided for an equal distribution of the along the lines which have been so filum-instead by biology and the kindred sciences. The lecture is commended to the thoughtful among all classes, and unds between these three institutions, afespecially to employes and employers of funds between these three institutions, af-ter the estate had been settled. Judge Cake ordered this distribution made. WHAT IN THE GREATEST BOOK OF THE LANT CENTURY -Dr. Gayley will discuss this subject tonight. Saturday night's subject is, "Three Poets of the Philosophy of Life": Thomson's "City of Dreadful Night," Omar Khayyam's "Rubiyat," Browning's "Rabbi Ben Ezra," Lectures are at High School. Admission, 25 cenis. * STICK TO THE DXX-Sutribus is from. abject is, "Three Peets of the Philosophy of Barrowning's "Rabbi Ben Erra," Lacctures Browning's "Rabbi Ben Erra," Lacctures Browning's "Rabbi Ben Erra," Lacctures Strick vo THE TEXT,-Surplus is finan-over 366,000,000. Strongest in the world. Oregon branch office, Oregonian build-ing L. Samuel, manager.

THE "Evolution of Linearr,"-Social science lecture, February La Friday, s P. M. Unitarian Chapel, by Mr. Robert H. Wilson.
Laana Stock of Barnes Readers at Oid Barred Contract of Barnes Readers at Oid Barred Wilson.
Pon RENT,-Upper hall Allsky Building." DEATH OF MISS MAE GATES .- The body of Miss Mae I. Gates, granddaughter of the late Mayor John Gates, arrived here hast night from her home near Chehalfs, Wash, where she died last Tuesday from Wash, where she died last Thesday from an attack of grip and brain fever. Miss Gates was the emly daughter of Freder-ick F, and Annis Gates, and was born here 22 years ago. The family home was to Second and Clay streets, and about 1581 Miss Gates and her family left Port-iand for their farm near Chehalts. The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock this girls uncie, John Mair, 20 Eleventh street.

Book Store, 229 Yamhili street.

street. Don't SPEAR as THET Pass.-Gustave Gross, of Lower Albina, was charged in the Municipal Court resterday with as-saulting his wife, Louisa, and he told this story: "I have not spoken to my wife for weeks. We live in the same house, but in different rooms. One night recently, when I locked the door, my wife entered through the window. A family difficulty ensued." Gross was held in $25 ball for a hearing today. Cause a Poon Contoutter.-When Henry ball for a hearing today. Choses a Poon Component. When Henry Mulligan was charged with drunkeness, in the Municipal Court resterday, he andd: "I know I've been one dozen times before this court during the past two prens, but I suffer so severely from pains in my legs, that I'm driven to drink to ense the pain." Municipal Judge Cameron said that Mulligan had chosen Cameron said that Mulligan had chosen a poor comforter, and fined the prisoner

DENTAL work free, at college, corner Fifteenth and Couch streets, except a small fee to cover cost of material for those in moderate circumstances. . Don't Fonger that a good lunch will be served today by the women of Taylor Bireet Church, in the church parlors. * The state convention of Woodmen held session at Bolse, February 14.

to walk the mile from Fulton to the come-tory or drive there. Mr. Graydon is much in earnest about his road, and says he has good backing.

And yet, the members of the "regular" school of medicine have the assurance to denounce "quacks" in their open meet-ings. And still another instance, some eight or ten years ago a man of culture and of the highest attainments in his chosen profession, came to Portland to open a dentist's office. As he stated plainly at the time, there are two methods which a unclassional number of the stated LOOKING FOR & LOCATION.-E. P. Bren-nan, of Rhinelander, Wis, writes to the Chamber of Commerce that a committee will leave that city about February 28. for a Western tour, to select a site for a screen-door factory. If a factory is built, it will go to an enterprising city built, If will go to an enterprising city with first-class shipping facilities and a waterway in reserve. The Wisconsin peo-ple will not locate where they would be "hampered by transfer charges and be at the marcy of one road." They "prefer to have a number of switches or different roads direct to the plant." Mr. Bren-nan asks a great deal of information about imper supply targe and information planky at the time, there are two methods which a professional man can adopt to get binneelf before the people, one is to advertise openly just as an honest dealer in any legislimate line is privileged to do, or to impose on the public's credulity by a lavish display of horses and car-riages or other accourtements that will demand the public's notice. He wisely choose the first of the two methods. His marked success best attested the intrinale merits of the pools he had to sell which compare fils case the special abili compar his case the special skill it had us___ him many years of hard work to acquire, and the advanced meth-ods he had adopted for alleviating the sufferings of that part of the community who were sufficient of who were suffering from diseased molars. He hit the old-line dentists so hard here that after a year or more of warring against the fractious member of the dental fraternity, they concluded to cry enough. With the primise to ath no more, the offending dentist, who by that time had more practice than he could attend o, was received into the local society of dentists with open arms. Like other men who have achieved their end through the display of superior talents he was open above all other considerations, com-mended the proposed measure to his ap-

"WEBFOOT" HARD WHEAT It is very clear to any disinterested It is very clear to any disinterceited observer that the requirements of any applicant for admission to the state med-ical or dentist's societies today are no more found in the skill of the man who wants to get in, than they are in his freely expressed opinion that he should not advertise, and that he will adhere strictly to the tenets of the faith which the "ethics" of his society recommendent If you have been disappointed in your bread, try this brand. At your grocers,

New Tailoring-House.

strictly to the tenets of the faith which the "ethics" of his society recognize. It is the individual practitioner against the public, with the fullest indorsement of his brother member-so long as he does

FLOUR.

A full stock of new Spring goods. JUST A MOMENT, PLEASE. Your Ills can easily be overcome. Femo Lenes is the groatest strength-giving ton-is yet discovered for all womankind. All druggists. Femo Lene Medicine Company. Partiand, Or. Price, 50 cents. Lace and Embroidery Sale this week N. Y. Mer. Co., 26 Third. The state convention of Woodmen held session at Bolse, February 14.

quetting. The wife schemes carefully, with the result that her husband is sent to a hotel to wait in vain all night for Thea, while the lady is decoyed elsewhere. Seraphine, who, by the way, is fair, fat and fifty, meets Maginnis when he is in such a state of intoxication that he imagines she is Then. As the Marquis knows Thea could not have met the Irish Pasha and doesn't know of Scraphine, and every other cir-cumstance points to the certainty that in is his own good little Quakeress wife who is the reckless partner of the Turkish Celt in the orgies of the night before, his anxiety is extreme. The end of the piece, of course, clarifies the wife's conduct, enlightens Maginnis and deals the husband a needed lesson. The company includes Jeannette Lowrie, Bertha Waltzinger, Nellie Lynch, Will C. Mandeville, Harry Stuart, Jake Bernard, Herbert C. Cripps, Emma Naylor, Francis Tyson and Mabel Blake.

"The Prisoner of Zenda," The sale of seats for "The Prisoner of

