LETTER FROM PAT CROWE

SAYS HE WILL SURRENDER, BUT IS NOT GUILTY.

He Would Have Given Himself Up Long Ago, but He Feared Mob Violence-Another Suspect.

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 22 .- Pat Crowe has been heard from under circumstances which indicate that he is soon to make his public appearance. E. A. Cudahy is in receipt of a letter bearing Crow's sig-nature. The handwriting has been tested by comparison and it is the opinion of the Pinkertons, Chief Donahue and others that the signature is genuine. The letter is dated South Omahn, February 15, but envelope indicates that it was mailed in Omaha. Owing to the fact that the letter is now in the Pinkerton office, Chicago, and that no copy was retained here, Mr. Cudahy s unable to repeat it verbatim. Mr. ludahy and Chief Donahue have made its ontents known, however. Crowe plains in the letter that he has heard that the Omaha police are looking for him and believe him to be one of the kidapers of Edward Cudahy, Jr. He main tains that he is innocent and says that he has no knowledge of the affair, with the exception of what he has read in the ewspapers. He says that he will drop nto Omaha some day and prove himself unocent and that he would have done so ong ngo had he not been afraid that he might suffer the fate of the negro who was lynched at Leavenworth. Crowe says that the Omaha people must have cooled off considerably by this time and expresses the opinion that he will soon be able to come here with safety. He makes an appeal to the Chief of Police and Mr. udahy for protection and says that he will expect them to stand between him and violence. In conclusion he says that he is much hurt to think that Mr. Cudshy suspects him of being gullty of the kidnaping, and expresses his appreciation of the kindness Mr. Cudahy has shown him in the past

When I received this letter," Mr. Cudaby explained, "I was determined not to take too much for granted, so I sent it to Chicago, as I knew Mr. Pinkerton had samples of Crowe's writing and would be able to identify it without difficulty. A few days later I heard from Mr. Pinker-He said he had compared the writ-with a sample of Crowe's chirography and that they were the same beyond ques tion. I would not be surprised now if Crowe should show himself almost any time. I believe the letter was written a good faith. I don't think the letter was ritten in either Omaha or South Omaha. t hove the date line 'South Omaha, Neb., Feb. 15." But the postmark on the en-Omaha. It was probably written some distance from here and sent in a sepa-ate envelop to some friend in Omaha or South Omaha, who malled it. This was done for the abvious purpose of keeping his whereabouts a secret. He evidently wants to come in voluntarily, without giving detectives the honor of having captured him."

ANOTHER SUSPECT.

An Omnha Saloon-Keeper Arrested

ie Knusas City. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 22.-Rhody Rodmond an Omaha saloon-keeper, whose place in that city is said to have been quented by James Callahan before the latter was arrested for complicity in the Cudahy kidnaping, was arrested here today. Redmond is said to have talked knowingly of the kidnaping and to have bragged that he closed his place immediately after Callahan was arrested. Redmond, who was armed, has been in Kansas City for several days. Chief of Police Hays subjected the prisoner to a "sweating," and then had a talk with Chief Donahue, of Omaha, over the longdistance telephone. Chief Donahue re-quested that the prisoner be released on his promise to report at Omaha tomorrow. This was done, and Redmond says he will go to Omaha immediately. Alex Ricketts, of Argentine, Kan., a suburb of Kansas City, was arrested with Redmo

Chicago Murder the Result of a Carefully Arranged Plot.

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.-Further investi-ation of the death of Salvatore Giovanni, who was found murdered on Grand avenue last evening, has convinced the po-lice that the murder was the result of a carefully arranged plot, carried out under the orders of the secret Italian society. The theory of the police is that Giovanni was murdered to prevent his appearance on a murder trial in New York. Letters found in the murdered man's pocket showed that he had been summoned East for this purpose. The Mafia Society is montioned in the case, but as yet the police have no evidence directly inplicating that society with the murder. Jos-eph Morico, one of the men arrested inst night and who was found to have a severe bullot wound in the mouth, is believed to have done the killing. Carlo Battasto, who came to Chicago from New York last Priday and who spent much of his time in the company of Giovanni, is also under arrest.

A clue to the reason for the eas found among the letters in Glovanni's pockets. One of these letters, written by a man in St. Louis, spoke of a murder committed on Mulberry street, New York, to which Glovanni was a witness. It also developed during the day that Giovanni was a member of several societies and has many enemies. In connection with the murder the saloon of Frank Mirici, at 57 Grand avenue was raided by the police today and the proprietor and 10 inmates were placed under arrest.

order James, of Baker County, while earching the old records of the office, dis ered a land patent to Nelson Gardner, signed by Fresident U. S. Grant. The patent was is-sued May 20, 1870, to Mr. Nelson Gardner, but the property is now owned by the helms of W. D. Adams.
