WHOSE SCHOOL LAND ACCOUNTS APPEAR $30,000 SHORT.

SALEM, Feb. 27 .- George W. Davis, who has come into public notice because of the discovery of a shortage in his accounts while he was Clerk of the School Land Board, was appointed to office in August, 1801, by the land board, then composed of Governor Pennoyer, Secretary of State McBride and State Treasurer Metechan. Frior to his appointment be had been for many years a merchant at Shedds, Linn County. He was a man of considerable political influence, and took a prominent part in the management of the affairs of the Republican party in his locality. After his removal to Salem he interested himself in local politics here, and conducted one campaign as County Chairman.

Mr. Davis has always stood well in Salom social circles, and has reared & family, all of whom are of age, and are highly esteemed by all who know them. One son was a member of the Legislature from Lincoln County in 1890. J. R. Davis, the son who was bookkeeper in the office at the time the faise survives were made, is now residing at Berkeley, Cal. So far as now appears, the bookkeeper was the only one in the office who must have known of the false entries in the books. The many friends of the family are slow to believe that George W. Davis was originally a party to a fraudulent transaction, and think that if there has been a defalcation, as now appears certain, be was a participant only to the ex-tent of shielding others. Thus far he has made no stienest to explain the discrepancy that appears from the records, or the alterations that were made in the books. Mr. Davis is an honored member of the local post of the G. A. R., and he has membership in other prominent fraternal organizations.

The incident thus happily terminated plainly illustrates the great responsibilities that rest upon the Chief Executive, and also how easily an error or misfor-tune may result in the blasting of an official's whole future through no fault of his. It also shows the reason for the care exercised in the sufekeeping of bills, even when persons most interested wish to scrutinize them. It is said upon pretty good authority that $1000 was offered to a man if he would steal the nickel-in-the-sloi-machine bill from the Governor's office before it had been signed. With that sort of manipulators to guard against, the Governor finds himself in an unplease ant position as long as he has such meas-

TRIED TO SELL STOLEN WOOL.

Two Men at The Dalles Escaped After Exciting Chase.

THE DALLES, Or., Feb. 27 .- Early this morning two men hired a team from the livery stable of Ward & Robertson, saying they were going into the country a short distance. They later appeared at the Moody warehouse with their wagen loaded with wool which they offered for e. Mr. W. H. Moody, noticing the rking "Mr. Moody" on the sacks, desale tained the men and telephoned to the Wasco warehouse for a clerk to identify, if possible, the stolen property,

The wool proved to be part of a ion stored with the Wasco firm. An officer was telephoned for, but the men sprany into their wagon and lashed their hors into a run down Second street, where they were hindered, but not stopped by the efforts of a liveryman who saw that meeting was wrong. The men, after reaching Washington street, tied their horses and fied. The officers have not yet overtaken them,
