Wheat and wool were at a standatill Cheese-Full cream, twing, 1381340; at atek, but there was a good run of Young America, 1314814e per pound. week, but there was a good run of ness in nearly all other lines. With wheat off and bearish, exporters show no willingness to make engagements for vessels. Eggs have dropped steadily under larger supplies and at the close the market was barely firm at 12%c. Some lots were sold yesterday at 13c, but they had to grade high to command that figure. The supply of polatoes is plentiful and $1 5081 75 for seedlings, per box; pineap-prices are weaker. The advance of on- ples, $4 0084 50 per dozen; bananas, $2 50 The supply of polatoes is plentiful and $1 5081 ions to Sic a pound called out large offerings and prices are down. The market is well stocked with vegetables. A carload of celery, cabbage and cauliflower came in from Los Angeles yesterday morning. The shipment was not in the most satisfactory condition and it is not likely that further orders will be sent to Los Angeles for rall consignment. Supplies of butter and poultry are sufficient to meet the demand. WHEAT-The Portland market has been flat all week in sympathy with the depression abroad and in the East. Buying is principally confined to millers who are not taking heavy stocks. Some Walla Walla sold up to 55%c for milling purposes, but their price is above the export quotation. The weather will be a factor from dried beef, 15c; lard, five-pound palls, now on." Present conditions favor the lic; 10-pound pails, 10%c; 50s, 10%c; growing crop. Argentine exports from January 1 to March 1 were only 55 per cent of last year, although ocean freights are 25 to 37% per cent less, and the price of wheat 5 to 10 cents higher. Shipments sides, 10%G11%c; backs, 11%c; butts, 10%c; ware 6,592,000 bushels against 12,504,000 oushels in January-March, 1990. This heavily decreased movement looks con-firmatory of the growing opinion in the $4 00004 50; dressed beef, 7050 per pound, trade that the surplus from the Argentine top will not greatly exceed 50 per cent of that of last crop. FREIGHTS-Market is dull with nothing doing and no one disposed to do bus-Rates are nominally 40s to 41s 3d.

There is not a disengaged vessel in the river. Tonnage on the way, 60,040; in port and in the river, 20,621. WOOL-The home situation is lifeless.

The Boston market continues unsettled and in favor of the buyers. Increase in the volume of business is reported but the prices are not satisfactory. There is still considerable pressure to liquidate, though it is not so pronounced as it was the middle of February. The present price of wool has unquestionably stimulated an increased consumption, and quite possibly will continue to do so. There is a slight rift in the clouds which have hung over the woolen goods situation. There is said to be an improving demand for the better class of men's woolens, for goods which come nearer being all wool, which will, it is believed, tend to increase the consumption of wool ine, $467; beaver, per skin, targe, $566; do medium, per skin, $367; do small, per and to decrease that of cotton among woolen mills. The spirit of conservatism. however, still characterizes the entire situation, from the retail clothler to the wool merchant. Abroad the situation is unchanged. In New York the inquiry for wool is more frequent and a good many offers are being made. These, however, are considerably below asking prices and where sales are accomplished it is usually at or near buyers' prices. There seems to be an increasing opinion, however, even among those who have been radical hears on the situation that prices will show but has been suld for a good many months and prices have continued to recede. There has been more or less buying, but dealers are not anxious to make these transactions public, as they are, as a fule, below the level of the market. Where a manufacturer wants a line of wool he is willing to pay asking prices, buy where it is bought because it is be-lieved to be cheap, it is below the ideas of lieved to be cheap, it is below the ideas of holders. Mohnir is exceedingly dull in the local markets with prospects for lower prices later in the season.

SALMON-The most important feature in connection with the New York market was the announcement on March 1 by the agents representing the Pacific Steam Whaling Company that their price of 95c on red fish, Sic on medlum red, and 70c on pink salmon, 1991 Alaska pack, had been withdrawn, in consequence of sales against the probable pack being up to the limit. The agents of the Alaska Packers' Association reported heavy orders as having been placed with them in New York at the opening price, and it is understood that the price may be withdrawn any day. In this connection it is stated that the agents of other independent Alaska salmon packers are still prepared to do business on the 95c basis. Buying is reported in some quarters to have been very beavy in New York, and that a considerable portion of the wants of jobbers here have been supplied so far as Alaska salmon is concerned. It is reported, however, that intimations made to large job-bers here by an independent interest that strong early in the day fell back materiala price of 92%c for red Alaska will be made later on, has been the means of a few large jobbers placing orders for a night's level. Nevertheless the day's gains amailer portion of their prospective re-quirements than usual, in the expectation quirements than usual, in the expectation of being able to get in on the lower price.

PROVISIONS-The volume of business was lighter than in the previous week. was continued at the outset this morning Offerings were not large. Brisk trade was done in lard. Early in the week prices moved up a little, but the advance prices moved up a little, but the advance was lost at the close. Trade was fair in ing the stock, professedly for investment, dry salted meats, with supplies larger but according to the Wall street interand holders firmer. Hams were in fair demand at unchanged prices. With hogs 75 cents higher than a year ago and has %c, an advance may be expected at most any time.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Heavy Buying of Burlington by the Blg System.

NEW YORK, March 6 .- The character of today's stock market was very similar to that of yesterday. Absorption of rail-road stocks of a high grade by buyers of road stocks of a high grade by buyers of abundant resources and of a substantial kind went on side by side with wide fluctuations in some of the highly spec-ulative specialities. So far as the rail-road department was concerned, activity was shifted to some extent from those stocks which were most prominent yes-terday. A notable feature of the market was that it did not really respond with unanimity at any time to the strength shown by individual stocks. In those stocks which did advance, the strength was not simultaneous. Apparently the demand for one stock would be largely satisfied before the buying was taken in another. During the latter part of the day there was abundant evidence of large ly and many usually prominent stocks which were not notably active today, were allowed to fall back below last amount of transactions and the extent of the gains in them. Yesterday's late movement in Burington and the stock was carried up 2% to 150%, a record price. The strength of the stock was due to the fact that large compet pretation, with a possible view to con-

BEDROCK PRICES FOR WOOL.

Lowest Frices Reached Since the Downward Movement Began.

BOSTON, March 6 .- The American Wool and Cotton Reporter will say tomorrow: "There is as yet no substantial im provement to be noted in the wool mar-ket, except that dealers are disposed to exercise a little more discretion in sell-ing, although there is still more or less pressure to liquidate, and wool has been sold at lower prices the past week than at any time since the downward movement began. A large line of territory which was carried as collateral has been parted with at a clean cost of 35636c. which is the lowest level touched for that class of wool.
