IN HONOR OF BURNS.

Many Scotchmen Gather at the Cale donian Concert.

There were so many kilted Highlanders and great chunks of Doric in evidence last night at the Caledonians' concert at Arion Hall that one might have mistake the neighborhood for a bit of Scotland. The hall was filled by an enthusiastic crowd of Scotch, Irish and Americans, but, on account of delay in the arrival of some of the musicians, the concerone-half hour late in starting. But the atmosphere suddenly changed when a piper came on the stage and gave a piercng solo which only a people raised on oatmeal can fully appreciate. Chief Cam-eron gave the address of welcome, and laughingly stated that the reason some of the performers were so late in coming was because they wished to consign to oblivion the long address he had prepared The programme was then proceeded with, after two or three changes had been made. Madam D'Alberti and Miss Elizabeth Hoben were special favorites, the former singing "My Hame Is Where the Heather Grows," and then giving an encore. Miss Hoben's work was characterized by fine tone, and restful light and shade in phrasing. For her encore she sang "Comin' Thro' the Rye." Another enjoyable number was a duet. "The Miss Duncan. Rev. Dr. A. A. Morrison gave a short, ddress. He began; The Scotch are the greatest race of people on the face of the earth. There are not many of them-for the same reason that God made gold more valuable than tin. I was not born in Scotland, but among good fellows for all that in Dublin. My parentage is Scotch, and I re-ceived part of my education in Scotland. Dr. Morrison then gave an estimate of Bawbee," sung by R. Diffin and

The dance that followed was enjoyable, and there were 15 numbers.
