FELL OVER CLIFF.

Woman Killed, One Child Injured, Another Escaped Unhurt.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., March 31.-Between 5 and 6 o'clock this evening Mrs. Daniel Patterson, wife of a mechanic her 12-year-old daughter, and Nellie Chase, aged 14, all living in Cold Springs, went for a walk. They stopped at Table Rock, half way up Break-Neck Moun-tain, to watch the forest fires burning on Crow Nest Mountain across the river. Suddenly the Patterson child slipped and fell over the cliff. The mother sprang forward to save the child, and also fell over the rock. Nellie Chase became greatover the rock. Neme Chase became greative excited as she saw her friends go over, and she, too, fell after them.

Far-Reaching Fraud Discovered at Manila.

IN COMMISSARY DEPARTMENT

Quartermaster and Several Prominent Civilians Have Been Arrested-Illicit Transactions Traced Back Nearly a Year.

MANILA, March SI.—Interest in the capture and fate of Aguinaldo is well-nigh overshadowed in Manila by sensational developments, present and prospective, of frauds in the Commissary Department. How widely these extend has not been ascertained, but enough is known to justify the belief that they are farreaching. Cai ain Frederick J. Barrows, of the Thirt eth Volunteer Infantry, Quarof the Thirtieth Volunteer Infantry, Quar-termaster of the Department of Southern Luzon, together with several commissary sergeants, several civilian clerks, a prom-inent Government contractor, the assist-ant manager of the Hotel Oriente, the proprietors of three of the largest bakeries in Manila, a number of storekeepers and other persons have been arrested. The investigation has scarcely begun, but thou-sands of sacks of flour, a quantity of bacon and wagon loads of other goods, all bearing Government marks, have been found in the possession of unauthorized

The negroes are producing more as free men than they ever did as slaves, and the mass of the people are vastly better off today than they were under the old ante-bellum sys. tem. Socially, as well as industrially, the abolition of slavery was highly bene-ficial in its results to the masses, for slavery was a great wrong and no com-munity can exist in the highest state of happiness when its system is based on wrong. These are the soundest reasons for asserting that the negroes' status is

SALISBURY IMPROVING.

Premier of England May Soon Be Able to Take a Trip.

LONDON, April 1 .- The following bulletin regarding the condition of the Pre-mier was issued last evening: "Lord Salisbury was attacked with in-fluenza March 23. The illness has run the normal course, and has been attended by the usual proetration. The temperature, however, has been normal for the last two days, and his Lordship's strength is im-proved, with increasing power of taking food. # CONCEDED TO REPUBLICANS Election Which Will be Held Today in Michigan.

DETROIT, Mich., March 31.-It is generally conceded that when the votes cast tomorrow by the citizens of Michigan are counted, the Republican candidates for Justice of the Supreme Court and two regents of the State University will be elected by a large majerity. The campaign has been a quiet one throughout the state. Neither Judge Allen A. Ad-sitt, of Grand Rapids, the Democratic candidate for Justice, nor Judge Robert M. Montgomery, of Grand Rapids, the Republican candidate has made an active canvass. An amandment to the state constitution fixing the compensation of state legislators at $1000 per term and mileage, instead of $3 per day when the Legis-lature is in session and mileage, will also be voted on.

Cities of the third and fourth class in the state will elect municipal officers, and in Detroit eight school inspectors and a Police Justice will be voted for. There has been little interest in the campaign, and a light vote is anticipated.

WAS TRYING TO SAVE OTHERS

Twenty-Two Officers and Men Were Prostrated by a Fire Which Occurred in the Sailroom, but Are Recovering.

WASHINGTON, March 21 .- The Navy Department early this morning received cablegram from Admiral Remey, Commander-in-Chief of the Asiatic Station giving a brief account of a fire in the sail room of the gunboat Petrel, and of the death of the commanding officer, Lieutenant-Commander Jesse M. Roper, as a result of a heroic effort to rescue the men below. The dispatch states that 22 other officers and men were prostrated but all are recovering. Admiral Remey's dispatch follows: "Cavite, March 31. Fire was discovered in the sail room of the Petrel at 7 o'clock this morning, Roper commanding. After going below once, he went again against advice, and attempted to recover the men below. He was suffocated, and died at 7:45. Twenty-two other officers and men were entirely prostrated, but are recov-ering. The fire is out; damage imma-Will send Roper's remains by REMEY." Buffalo.

The department at once sent a telegram to H. F. Fay, brother-in-law of Lieutenant-Commander Roper, at Longwood Mass., asking that he inform Mrs. Roper of the news. The following expression of sympathy and appreciation was also made: "With this sad news the depart-ment sends to Mrs. Roper deep sympathy in the great loss she has sustained, and the highest appreciation of the gallantry and self-sacrifice with which Lieutenant Commander Roper gave his life for his fellow men. It was a heroic deed." Lieutenant-Commander Roper was born in Missouri, and entered the naval ser-vice June 25, 1868. He was commissioned to the rank held by him at the time of his death, March 31, 1899, and was ordered to the command of the Petrel Nev-ember 15, 1899. The Petrel was one of the vessels under Admiral Dewey at the bat-tle of Manila Bay, when she was in charge of Lieutenant-Commander Wood. The latter officer came home shortly after, and Lieutenant-Commander Roper succeeded him. The Buffalo, on which the remains will be sent home, is used for the transportation of troops, and is about to return to the United States by way of the Mediterranean.

SPOKE ON ANARCHISM.

Exiled Russian Prince Addressed New York Audience.

NEW YORK, March 31 .- Prince Krapotkin, of Russia, from which country he is an exile owing to his advocacy of anarchistic doctrines, and who has come to this country to speak in behalf of Russia's oppressed, lectured to a large and enthusiastic audience at the Central Palace this afternoon. His subject was "Anarchism; its Philosophy and Ideal." Prince Krapotkin contended that the philosophy of the 20th century would be the philosophy of anarchism, and that the prevailing tendency of the great movements of the century would differ radically from those of the earlier part of the last 100 years, when nearly all movements tended toward an increase in the power of the state.
"The increase of power on the part of the individual and the masses," he declared, "is the most needful thing for the relief of the laboring classes. We have on all sides beautiful cities and magnificent palaces and specimens of architecture that have been created through the labor of the masses, yet they have no length of time so short as not to have been dreamed of, even in the beginning of the last century. By what right," the speaker inquired "did any man presume to say he owned this line of railway and that enormous manufacturing industry and through such ownership was worth a specific sum? The masses, the loboring classes created the values of the properties, and yet own no part of them. Those who have by their efforts, their application, and the use of their intellects been the menas of creating these properties, are in reality ecuted by those to whom the laws of the state grant titles of ownership.

British Credit May Soon Be Down to German Level.

LONDON, March 31. - The stock exchange was startled last week by consol dropping to 95%, although they subsequently recovered, closing at 95%, with a prospect of a material rise. If this con tinues. British credit may soon be down to the German level. The market, apart from the American section, was not exciting. There is no prospect of much activity in the other markets until after the Easter holidays, when, if money is chean things may be more lively. Home cheap, things may be more lively. Home railroad securities showed a general re-vival, many advancing from 1 to 3, owing

The husbanding of their resources by the banks for the imperial loan causes by the balls for the imperiation coarse a scarcity of money and rates for settle-ment purposes went as high as 5½ per cent. Nevertheless, they eased up to-ward the end of the week, and the pri-vate rate of discount fell yesterday to 3%. Call money was also easier.

The subscription to the imperial loan
Wednesday is attracting much attention.
It is believed that the loan will be heavily over-subscribed. Books will be opened in all the German cities, and also at the London branches of the Deutsche Bank. Already the Boerse has begun to be live-ly with dealings in the scrip of the loan. The Boerse regarded New York's boom in ratiroad securities as exaggerated. Consequently Berlin quotations lagged, and arbitrage dealers made large sales in New York causing further weakening in the New York exchange.

GENERAL LAWTON SQUARE.

Name of Plaza in Philippine Town Officially Changed.

LOUISVILLE, March 31.-The Commercial says: The Town Council of Vigan, South Bocos Island, has ordered the name of Grand Plaza, of the city, to be changed to "General Lawton Square." Major John A. Ballance has written to Mrs. Lawton, who makes her home in Louisville, the follow-ing account of the affair:

"Vigan, South Ilocos, P. L. Jan, L.—My Dear Mrs. Lawton: I am on duty with General Young and have charge of civil affairs. The name of the plaza of Vigan has been changed to General Lawton Square. The Alcalde has written me an official letter to that effect and desires me to inform you. The Filipino people of Luzon have a high regard for General Lawton, not only on account of his bravery, but because of the consideration he showed them while occupying the country. The marble slab containing the name of the country to be unveiled today with of the square is to be unveiled today with appropriate ceremonies, at which will be present all the military persons and residents of Vigan." Took Christian Church to Task. BOSTON, March 31.—President William J. Tucker, of Dartmouth College, took the Christian Church to task for its part in the Chinese troubles during a Lenten sermon at the Old South Church this evening. His strongest sentences were:

"The very apostles sent forth by the church have shown they do not know how to keep the ten commandments. In to keep the ten commandments. In China it looks as though the gospel was suspended, as well as the law. The Christian Church has been set back, nobody knows how far, by the behavior of the missionaries in China."

His subject was "College Graduates and the Church." He asked what attractiveness the church has for the students in these days of great material wealth. He answered it by saying that the need was a plain matter of fact morality. "The last century was one of missionary activity," be said, "yet at its close its work was discredited. It is a time of moral confusion also. We must expect the failure of the Christendom to sup-

NEW YORK, March 31.-The Hendrie Hudson Hotel, at Parkhill, near Yonkers was burned early today. The building was to have been ready for occupancy on May 1, and part of the furnishings had been put in. The cost of the structure and furnishings was $150,000, and the building was so thoroughly damaged by fire that the walls had to be pulled down. The building is said to have been the laigest hotel on the Hudson, and stood on the top of a bill 350 feet above the water. It was of stone and brick, and had been lavishly decorated,

EMPEROR ON HIS ARMY.

Hopes to Soon Be Able to Defy Any Combination

BERLIN, March 31.-The Berlin papers publish a speech said to have been delivered by Emperor William May 29 of last year at a luncheon, following a parade of the guards. His Majesty referred to the occasion of a parade of the guards May 29, 1888, before Emperor Frederick, who was then seriously ill, and continu as follows:

"At that time the position I should as-"At that time the position I should assume with reference to the army was hidden in the mist of the future. Today no doubt is possible on this point. I may say that since the command of the army has devolved upon me, I have exercised it and drilled it so that when I put it to a trial I may feel secure and certain that it will not fail me."

His Majesty then proceeded to say that for a long time, and in deference to the

for a long time, and in deference to the solicitation of Field Marshais Prince Ai-brecht, Count von Blumenthal and Count von Waldersee, he had considered the question of assuming the grade of Field Marshal. "According to Prussian tradi-tions," he continued, "only the whoning of a battle, or the capturing of a first-sate fortress entitles one to that honor. This has not been vouchsafed to me, but in my own vindication I can say that for 12 years I have worked on the army to the utmost of my power, and I think I have succeeded in keeping it up to the level of its past. In a few years I hope to be strong enough at sea to secure re-spect for the name of Germany through-out the world. This new offensive flank which I am building on the army by means of a powerful fleet will place Ge many in a position to dety all dange no matter when a combination may formed against her."

"ELECTIONS IN OHIO.

Contests Today Will Have Bearing on State and National Politics,

CINCINNATI, March 31. -- Municipal and township elections will be held all over Ohlo tomorrow. The most notable excep-tion is that of Cincinnati, where a full ticket was elected one year ago for three years. Much interest, however, is taken here in the suburban elections, as these agree that improvement in Americans places have persistently opposed annexameans improvement here.

The rice trust has decided to raise its on state and National politics in which Governor Nash and Senator Foraker, who are both candidates for re-election, are taking an active part. In some counties nominations for members of the Legisla-ture are made by popular vote at the April election. The Legislature that is elected next November will choose a suc-cessor to Senator Foraker. At the same election Governor Nash will be a candidate for a second term, and special interest is being taken at Columbus on account. Taylor and Hinkle are the account. Taylor and Hinkle are the can-didates for Mayor at Columbus. H. C. Taylor is a life-long personal friend of Governor Nash, and presented the name of Nash at the state convention two years ago, when he ago, when he was nominated. On the result at Columbus tomorrow may depend important results for the Demacrats, also, as Hinkle is the special friend of ex-Congressman Lentz, who aspires to the
