

FOR REWARD OF HAZARDS

GOVERNOR ROGERS ADDRESSES PRESIDENT MCKINLEY.

Hopes Washington Men Who Assisted in Capture of Aguinado May Be Promoted.

OLYMPIA, April 1—Governor Rogers took the initiative today to secure recognition for Captain Russell T. Hazard and his brother, Lieutenant O. P. M. Hazard, of this state, who assisted in the capture of Aguinado.

NO MORE PUGET SOUND LOG RAFTS.

Teredo Proved Too Destructive, and a Move to Columbia Is Made. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., April 1—Deep-sea log rafting from Puget Sound is at an end.

VANCOUVER MAY PROTEST.

Basket-Ball Team Incensed at Decision in Game With Multnomah. VANCOUVER, Wash., April 1—The result of the basket-ball game at the Multnomah Club in Portland, Saturday evening, between the ladies' teams of the Multnomah and Vancouver Athletic clubs, is extremely unpopular among the members and friends of the Vancouver organization.

APPOINTED BY GOVERNOR.

His Son-in-Law Gets One of Three Places on Shakers' List.

OLYMPIA, Wash., April 1—Governor Rogers today made the following appointments: Professor A. Van Hildeberke, of Snohomish County, to be State Horticultural Commissioner, vice G. E. Baker, term expired.

ROOF DRAINAGE APPOINTMENT.

Dr. State Printing Expert Expected to Be Labor Commissioner.

SPOKANE, Wash., April 1—Henry G. Root, of this city, has declined the position of State Printing Expert, to which he was recently appointed by Governor Rogers.

SUPERINTENDENTS MUST WAIT.

Supreme Court Holds Their Term of Office Begins in August.

OLYMPIA, April 1—The Supreme Court today handed down an opinion of interest to County School Superintendents.

NOW HAS RURAL MAIL

SALEM'S NEW SERVICE WAS BEGUN YESTERDAY.

Eight Carriers Are Employed, and Residents Within a Radius of 10 Miles Are Served.

SALEM, Or., April 1—Salem's rural mail delivery system was put in operation today. Eight carriers started out with mail for all the residents within a radius of eight to 10 miles of the city.

MARCUS OPPENHEIMER DEAD.

Washington Pioneer and Founder of the Town of Marcus. COVILVILLE, Wash., April 1—Marcus Oppenheimer, for nearly 40 years a resident of Stevens County, and founder of the town of Marcus, died at Coville yesterday.

DIED FROM EXPOSURE.

Washington Man Who Went Into a Barn to Spend the Night. SOUTH BEND, Wash., April 1—The dead body of Charles Anderson was found yesterday morning in W. D. Paulding's barn, near Willapa.

Wilson Man Gets a Job.

OLYMPIA, Wash., April 1—A. W. Frazer, of Seattle, was today appointed by Secretary of State Nichols to be state clerk in that department.

Legislators to Consult Constituents.

VICTORIA, B. C., April 1—The Legislature will be adjourned for two weeks from Wednesday to allow members to consult their constituents on the railway question, the government having decided to be guided entirely by its supporters on this question.

New Board of Audit and Control Met.

TACOMA, April 1—The State Board of Audit and Control met here today to discuss the proposed reorganization of the board, which will consist of three members, Henry Drum, of Spokane; C. Reid, of Seattle, and Ernest Lister, of Tacoma.

Landing for Pacific Cable.

VICTORIA, B. C., April 1—The steamer Quadra, which made a survey of this coast for a landing for the Pacific cable, has returned. It is understood that a more favorable place for landing than that at San Juan was found in Barclay Sound, and that the cable station will be at Alberni.

Naval Station Bids Called For.

SEATTLE, April 1—Blank forms for proposals have been received at the Chamber of Commerce from the War Department at Washington, D. C., for supplying the Puget Sound Naval Station with 29,214 pounds of steel angles, 27,022 pounds of steel channels and 257 pounds of steel beams.

New Northwest Mining Company.

NEW YORK, April 1—The Ohio Northwestern Development Company, to deal in mining rights and operate mines in the States of Idaho, Washington, Montana and Oregon and in British Columbia, filed articles at Newark, N. J., today.

Saloons Must Go.

GOLDENDALE, Wash., April 1—The saloons must go in Goldendale. The anti-liquor ticket was elected today by a large majority. The following are the newly elected officers: Mayor, Colonel E. W. Pike; Councilmen, A. C. Chapman, J. E. Chappell, W. A. McKenna, H. E. Carrott, William Enderby; Marshal, William Van Vector.

Idahoans Strike It Rich.

BOISE, April 1—There is much interest here in the discovery of oil by Boise people at Redding, Cal. The syndicate has secured control of 40,000 acres. It is reported on the ground by R. J. Anderson, who has been striking the first hole in the district, and tonight he telephoned his partners that he has a fine flow of oil.

COAST ARE REPRESENTED BY W. W. CURTIS, WHO IS NOW IN THIS CITY.

SALEM AND MACLEY WAREHOUSE FIRM SO CHARGED.

If Farmers Would Stop This Abuse, They Must Unite in Support of Candidates for Office.

SALEM, Or., April 1—About a score of Marion County farmers are grieving because they put their wheat in the warehouses of A. M. Humphrey & Co., of this city and Macley, and can now get neither their grain nor its value.

Strike is Still in Progress at the North Pacific Brewery in This City, and It is Expected to Continue for Some Time.

The strike is still in progress at the North Pacific brewery in this city, and it is expected to continue for some time. The proprietor of the strikers, who is the owner of the business, has refused to negotiate with the strikers.

Sheep Values Reduced.

The price of sheep has fallen considerably since the beginning of the season. This is due to a combination of factors, including a heavy rain in March and a shortage of feed.

Heppner Owners Will Accept Ten Per Cent Cut in 1900 Prices.

HEPPNER, Or., April 1—Some of the sheep here concede a slight reduction in the price of yearling wethers of mixed sexes, and say they are willing to take 25 cents off shearing. A Dakota buyer has secured one lot of 600 head, at $2; another lot of 400 head, at $1.75.

Large Increase Probable.

Sheep in Eastern Oregon have all wintered well, and indications are favorable for one of the largest increases on record. Last year some bands yielded an increase of 100 percent, while the average was probably 50 percent.

Wool Market Is Stagnant.

The wool market here continues stagnant, with more than 2,000,000 pounds in growers' hands, who hold it firmly for 12 to 15 cents. The only transactions for wool since the beginning of the season have been for 100,000 pounds of Eastern wool, who is here to receive consignments.

Sheep-Shearing Rate Reduced.

The Morrow County Woolgrowers' Association held a meeting here Saturday and reorganized. Its members resolved to pay 6 cents per head for shearing sheep this year, instead of 7 cents, as last year. The Morrow County Woolgrowers' Association, when the wool is sandy, 7 cents will be paid, where 3 cents was paid last year.

Mining Stock Quotations.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—The official quotations for mining stocks today were as follows: Alta, $10.00; Con. Cal. & Va., $1.00; Crown Point, $1.00; Eureka, $1.00; Gold & Curry, $1.00; Little Chief, $1.00; Nevada, $1.00; Pioneer, $1.00; Silver Hill, $1.00; Utah, $1.00; Western, $1.00.

OREGON-CALIFORNIA MEET.

Students Will Contest at Eugene.

EUGENE, Or., April 1—Arrangements have been perfected whereby there will be a dual track and field meet between the University of Oregon and the University of California in this city on May 27.

Notes of Oregon Mines.

A force of men has been put to work on the Gees group of mines, one mile south of Alamo. Messrs. John Ross and Joe Legore, who have been working in the Innaha copper mines last winter have returned home. They report having sold three claims for a total of $25,000.

Large Timber Deal.

Land Containing 40,000,000 Feet and Logging Machinery Sold. ASTORIA, Or., April 1—One of the largest timber deals made in the Columbia River for some time has just been closed at Cathlamet. The holdings of J. E. Yeon have been sold to the Pelton-Ardsong Company.

Idahoans Strike It Rich.

BOISE, April 1—There is much interest here in the discovery of oil by Boise people at Redding, Cal. The syndicate has secured control of 40,000 acres. It is reported on the ground by R. J. Anderson, who has been striking the first hole in the district, and tonight he telephoned his partners that he has a fine flow of oil.

COAST ARE REPRESENTED BY W. W. CURTIS, WHO IS NOW IN THIS CITY.

SALEM AND MACLEY WAREHOUSE FIRM SO CHARGED.

If Farmers Would Stop This Abuse, They Must Unite in Support of Candidates for Office.

SALEM, Or., April 1—About a score of Marion County farmers are grieving because they put their wheat in the warehouses of A. M. Humphrey & Co., of this city and Macley, and can now get neither their grain nor its value.

Strike is Still in Progress at the North Pacific Brewery in This City, and It is Expected to Continue for Some Time.

The strike is still in progress at the North Pacific brewery in this city, and it is expected to continue for some time. The proprietor of the strikers, who is the owner of the business, has refused to negotiate with the strikers.

Sheep Values Reduced.

The price of sheep has fallen considerably since the beginning of the season. This is due to a combination of factors, including a heavy rain in March and a shortage of feed.

Heppner Owners Will Accept Ten Per Cent Cut in 1900 Prices.

HEPPNER, Or., April 1—Some of the sheep here concede a slight reduction in the price of yearling wethers of mixed sexes, and say they are willing to take 25 cents off shearing. A Dakota buyer has secured one lot of 600 head, at $2; another lot of 400 head, at $1.75.

Large Increase Probable.

Sheep in Eastern Oregon have all wintered well, and indications are favorable for one of the largest increases on record. Last year some bands yielded an increase of 100 percent, while the average was probably 50 percent.

Wool Market Is Stagnant.

The wool market here continues stagnant, with more than 2,000,000 pounds in growers' hands, who hold it firmly for 12 to 15 cents. The only transactions for wool since the beginning of the season have been for 100,000 pounds of Eastern wool, who is here to receive consignments.

Sheep-Shearing Rate Reduced.

The Morrow County Woolgrowers' Association held a meeting here Saturday and reorganized. Its members resolved to pay 6 cents per head for shearing sheep this year, instead of 7 cents, as last year. The Morrow County Woolgrowers' Association, when the wool is sandy, 7 cents will be paid, where 3 cents was paid last year.

Mining Stock Quotations.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—The official quotations for mining stocks today were as follows: Alta, $10.00; Con. Cal. & Va., $1.00; Crown Point, $1.00; Eureka, $1.00; Gold & Curry, $1.00; Little Chief, $1.00; Nevada, $1.00; Pioneer, $1.00; Silver Hill, $1.00; Utah, $1.00; Western, $1.00.

OREGON-CALIFORNIA MEET.

Students Will Contest at Eugene.

EUGENE, Or., April 1—Arrangements have been perfected whereby there will be a dual track and field meet between the University of Oregon and the University of California in this city on May 27.

Notes of Oregon Mines.

A force of men has been put to work on the Gees group of mines, one mile south of Alamo. Messrs. John Ross and Joe Legore, who have been working in the Innaha copper mines last winter have returned home. They report having sold three claims for a total of $25,000.

Large Timber Deal.

Land Containing 40,000,000 Feet and Logging Machinery Sold. ASTORIA, Or., April 1—One of the largest timber deals made in the Columbia River for some time has just been closed at Cathlamet. The holdings of J. E. Yeon have been sold to the Pelton-Ardsong Company.

Idahoans Strike It Rich.

BOISE, April 1—There is much interest here in the discovery of oil by Boise people at Redding, Cal. The syndicate has secured control of 40,000 acres. It is reported on the ground by R. J. Anderson, who has been striking the first hole in the district, and tonight he telephoned his partners that he has a fine flow of oil.

BIG SHORTAGE IN WHEAT

SALEM AND MACLEY WAREHOUSE FIRM SO CHARGED.

If Farmers Would Stop This Abuse, They Must Unite in Support of Candidates for Office.

SALEM, Or., April 1—About a score of Marion County farmers are grieving because they put their wheat in the warehouses of A. M. Humphrey & Co., of this city and Macley, and can now get neither their grain nor its value.

Strike is Still in Progress at the North Pacific Brewery in This City, and It is Expected to Continue for Some Time.

The strike is still in progress at the North Pacific brewery in this city, and it is expected to continue for some time. The proprietor of the strikers, who is the owner of the business, has refused to negotiate with the strikers.

Sheep Values Reduced.

The price of sheep has fallen considerably since the beginning of the season. This is due to a combination of factors, including a heavy rain in March and a shortage of feed.

Heppner Owners Will Accept Ten Per Cent Cut in 1900 Prices.

HEPPNER, Or., April 1—Some of the sheep here concede a slight reduction in the price of yearling wethers of mixed sexes, and say they are willing to take 25 cents off shearing. A Dakota buyer has secured one lot of 600 head, at $2; another lot of 400 head, at $1.75.

Large Increase Probable.

Sheep in Eastern Oregon have all wintered well, and indications are favorable for one of the largest increases on record. Last year some bands yielded an increase of 100 percent, while the average was probably 50 percent.

Wool Market Is Stagnant.

The wool market here continues stagnant, with more than 2,000,000 pounds in growers' hands, who hold it firmly for 12 to 15 cents. The only transactions for wool since the beginning of the season have been for 100,000 pounds of Eastern wool, who is here to receive consignments.

Sheep-Shearing Rate Reduced.

The Morrow County Woolgrowers' Association held a meeting here Saturday and reorganized. Its members resolved to pay 6 cents per head for shearing sheep this year, instead of 7 cents, as last year. The Morrow County Woolgrowers' Association, when the wool is sandy, 7 cents will be paid, where 3 cents was paid last year.

Mining Stock Quotations.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—The official quotations for mining stocks today were as follows: Alta, $10.00; Con. Cal. & Va., $1.00; Crown Point, $1.00; Eureka, $1.00; Gold & Curry, $1.00; Little Chief, $1.00; Nevada, $1.00; Pioneer, $1.00; Silver Hill, $1.00; Utah, $1.00; Western, $1.00.

OREGON-CALIFORNIA MEET.

Students Will Contest at Eugene.

EUGENE, Or., April 1—Arrangements have been perfected whereby there will be a dual track and field meet between the University of Oregon and the University of California in this city on May 27.

Notes of Oregon Mines.

A force of men has been put to work on the Gees group of mines, one mile south of Alamo. Messrs. John Ross and Joe Legore, who have been working in the Innaha copper mines last winter have returned home. They report having sold three claims for a total of $25,000.

Large Timber Deal.

Land Containing 40,000,000 Feet and Logging Machinery Sold. ASTORIA, Or., April 1—One of the largest timber deals made in the Columbia River for some time has just been closed at Cathlamet. The holdings of J. E. Yeon have been sold to the Pelton-Ardsong Company.

Idahoans Strike It Rich.

BOISE, April 1—There is much interest here in the discovery of oil by Boise people at Redding, Cal. The syndicate has secured control of 40,000 acres. It is reported on the ground by R. J. Anderson, who has been striking the first hole in the district, and tonight he telephoned his partners that he has a fine flow of oil.

MONEY IN OIL

SALEM AND MACLEY WAREHOUSE FIRM SO CHARGED.

If Farmers Would Stop This Abuse, They Must Unite in Support of Candidates for Office.

SALEM, Or., April 1—About a score of Marion County farmers are grieving because they put their wheat in the warehouses of A. M. Humphrey & Co., of this city and Macley, and can now get neither their grain nor its value.

Strike is Still in Progress at the North Pacific Brewery in This City, and It is Expected to Continue for Some Time.

The strike is still in progress at the North Pacific brewery in this city, and it is expected to continue for some time. The proprietor of the strikers, who is the owner of the business, has refused to negotiate with the strikers.

Sheep Values Reduced.

The price of sheep has fallen considerably since the beginning of the season. This is due to a combination of factors, including a heavy rain in March and a shortage of feed.

Heppner Owners Will Accept Ten Per Cent Cut in 1900 Prices.

HEPPNER, Or., April 1—Some of the sheep here concede a slight reduction in the price of yearling wethers of mixed sexes, and say they are willing to take 25 cents off shearing. A Dakota buyer has secured one lot of 600 head, at $2; another lot of 400 head, at $1.75.

Large Increase Probable.

Sheep in Eastern Oregon have all wintered well, and indications are favorable for one of the largest increases on record. Last year some bands yielded an increase of 100 percent, while the average was probably 50 percent.

Wool Market Is Stagnant.

The wool market here continues stagnant, with more than 2,000,000 pounds in growers' hands, who hold it firmly for 12 to 15 cents. The only transactions for wool since the beginning of the season have been for 100,000 pounds of Eastern wool, who is here to receive consignments.

Sheep-Shearing Rate Reduced.

The Morrow County Woolgrowers' Association held a meeting here Saturday and reorganized. Its members resolved to pay 6 cents per head for shearing sheep this year, instead of 7 cents, as last year. The Morrow County Woolgrowers' Association, when the wool is sandy, 7 cents will be paid, where 3 cents was paid last year.

Mining Stock Quotations.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—The official quotations for mining stocks today were as follows: Alta, $10.00; Con. Cal. & Va., $1.00; Crown Point, $1.00; Eureka, $1.00; Gold & Curry, $1.00; Little Chief, $1.00; Nevada, $1.00; Pioneer, $1.00; Silver Hill, $1.00; Utah, $1.00; Western, $1.00.

OREGON-CALIFORNIA MEET.

Students Will Contest at Eugene.

EUGENE, Or., April 1—Arrangements have been perfected whereby there will be a dual track and field meet between the University of Oregon and the University of California in this city on May 27.

Notes of Oregon Mines.

A force of men has been put to work on the Gees group of mines, one mile south of Alamo. Messrs. John Ross and Joe Legore, who have been working in the Innaha copper mines last winter have returned home. They report having sold three claims for a total of $25,000.

Large Timber Deal.

Land Containing 40,000,000 Feet and Logging Machinery Sold. ASTORIA, Or., April 1—One of the largest timber deals made in the Columbia River for some time has just been closed at Cathlamet. The holdings of J. E. Yeon have been sold to the Pelton-Ardsong Company.

Idahoans Strike It Rich.

BOISE, April 1—There is much interest here in the discovery of oil by Boise people at Redding, Cal. The syndicate has secured control of 40,000 acres. It is reported on the ground by R. J. Anderson, who has been striking the first hole in the district, and tonight he telephoned his partners that he has a fine flow of oil.

PUGET SOUND PETROLEUM COMPANY. Oil will be the leading business and the greatest wealth-producer of Washington within the next two years, and all those who profit by an early investment in the oil stock of the...

The Gordon Hat. Discerning men are quick to appreciate the best in wearing apparel. That is why they wear The Gordon Hat. Every Gordon Hat is warranted perfect. See the Gordon for women.