There has been a great influx of visitors here. Numbers of Italians, who, with the regiments of infantry and members of the gymnastic societies, were in uniform, enhanced the color and animation of the street scenes. Troops lined the route from the station to the prefecture where th President will stay while in Nice. A vast concourse gathered early in the morning to await President Loubet's ar-rival. He was welcomed by the military and municipal functionaries at the station, where the "Marsellaise" was played by a regimental band. Proceeding to the courtyard, where the Alpine troops were drawn up, the President distributed iber of decorations to the officers and He then entered a gala landau and was driven slowly to the prefecture, amid a fantane of bugies and rolling drums. The President's reception by the speciators was most warm. The cheering was unceasing for the President and

The usual receptions were held at the prefecture where the consular, military, municipal and religious bodies, through their representatives, delivered short ad dresses, which the Presideit replied to. The utterances on both sides were without special significance. Replying to an adapecial significance, replying to an au-dress from a delegation of the clergy. President Louber pointed out that he had always favored tolerance toward the epis-copate, as he believed they ought to be a Stanch auxiliary of the government in effecting the union of all French and for the welfare of the country. To an ad-dress delivered by General Maginger, on behalf of the garrison, President Loubet assured the delegation that the govern-ment was proud of the army, and knew the giant efforts it had made to be ready for eventualities. The Fifteenth Army Corps was especially worthy of the confidence shown in it in charging it with the safety of the post of honor, a few steps from the frontier.

The says that "all military, civil and judicial powers necessary to govern the Philippine Islands shall be vested in such person and persons as the President, may suggest." The language has been weighed very carefully, and the designation "per-con" followed by "persons" is taken to mean that the President shall name some Judge Taft, it is understood, is to be the Governor of the islands, but it will be necessary to have some one in Washing-ton to act as the medium of communica-tion between the President and the Governor. There will be a great deal of busi-ness, with which the President cannot burden himself, and some Cabinet officer will be selected to have charge of the Philippines, as well as other insular affairs. Authority over the islands probably will be exercised by the President through Secretary Root, as the Secretary aircady is familiar with the governmental machinery of the Islands. He cific, Burlington, Erie and possibly the was a member of the firm of Smith, Elder St. Paul and Great Northern. It is not settled whether the debentures of the & Co., and published some of the first edl-

new company would be issued against the underlying securities, but this is con-sidered likely. This is the method pursued in the case of the railroad secur-ities company which was organized by the Harriman people for the purpose of handling the Illinois Central. In connection with a plan to control the charter of the St. Paul road so as to permit a majority of the stock, instead of two-thirds, to increase the capital, some new points of interest were brought out. It was alleged in the application that James J. Hill and associates ha dmade a traffic deal be-tween the Northern Pacific and Burlington, which diverted a large amount of business to the Burlington which former-ly went over the St. Paul road, and it was alleged that unusual discrimination is being practiced under the new regime against the St. Paul company. It is claimed that Mr. Hill and his associates have a large block of St. Paul stock and seek to control it."

Tearing Down Fences.

At last something is being done which shows that the road from Vancouver to Kalama is to be built. Men in the em-Bay Minette, near here, cell of a case of ploy of the Washington & Oregon Comnegroes were discovered attempting to set fire to a large store at Bay Minette. They pany are going along the grade through the Lewis River country, throwing down the fences of farmers across the line, opening gaps of 100 feet in width, which chase was made after the negroes by an armed posse. Bloodhounds picked up the trail at Hurricane Bayou. The dogs is the full width of the right of way. The company will, of course, fence its right of way some time, but many of the farmers are inclined to be wrathy at having their fields laid open so far in advance. If it was in Oregon some of these farmer would be claiming the ownership of the grade, as they have had it fenced in for 10 years, but in order to do this success fully in Washington, it is necessary that the claimant must have some color of title.
