TREATED TO SALMON

VISITING SHRINERS TASTE THE ROYAL CHINOOK.

Caravan From Honolulu Partakes of Portland Hospitality and Enjoys

The anxiously awaited caravan of Mystic Shriners, on their way home from a pligrimage to Honolulu, rolled into the Union Depot in a train of six magnificent Union Depot in a train of six magnificent was photographed by McAlpin.

Finally the hour of leaving—2:45 P. M.—Finally the hour of leaving—2:45 P. M. of George H. Hill, H. L. Pittock, Henry Roe, Ben Lombard, Thomas McCusker, Dr. George H. Chance, J. C. Moreland and where a large number of their brethren of al Kader Temple were on hand to receive and welcome them and escort them to the Portland Hotel, where an elegant breakfast had been prepared for them, and to which they were prepared to do full justice On arriving at the hotel they found in the parlors a lavish supply of roses, carna-tions, illies, tulips and other flowers pro-yided, which were distributed among the ladies, the men being furnished with carnations for boutonnieres. Introductions, handshaking and congratulations were in order for a few minutes, but all were hungry, and no reluctance was displayed when it was proposed to adjourn to the dining-room. The principal feature of the repast was a handsome 50-pound chinook salmon, which was brought into the din--room on a huge salver carried by four ored waiters, preceded by a plump head walter armed with a huge scimitar, who marched around the tables to give all an opportunity to view the magnificent fish. on-fishing season has not yet ened, and Manager Bowers has relig-us scruples against violating the fish and game laws, being fully advised as to the penalty, he had declined to provide a salmon for the breakfast, but the Port-land Shriners were determined that their fishes. How this was accomplished was explained preparatory to the fish being served by Potentate I. W. Pratt, of Al Kader, as follows: Ladies and Gentlemen, Potentates and Nohies: I take pleasure in presenting to you this Royal Chinook. The fish is, as you well know, out of the season until the light of this month. However, not wishing to have you visit our state without having had the opportunity to sample one of our chief products, we have so cured for you this specimen. He was caught near the mouth of the Willamette by an old descendant of Chief Concomly, of the Chinook tribe, confiscated by Fish and Game Warden Quimby and sold to Temple Al-Kader. When oxptured the name Al-Kader was found manufed upon its side, and I hope you will ap-ing brethren should sample the royal ook of the Columbia, the pride of Ore-

ron and the fish par excellence of all Potentate Lou B. Windsor was about to respond in his usual witty style, but hunger was heavy on him, and a glance over his fellow-travelers showed him that this was no time for persiflage, so he merely ed thanks and remarked that the salmon was a fine, large fish, and his as-sociates would be pleased to put it where it would do the most good in the shortest possible space of time. His brevity was applauded, and all fell to with good will reclate our successful effort to secure this

Breakfast being over, the company ad-ourned to the parlors and enjoyed themselves for a time forming and renewing acquaintances. There were about 175 in the party of visitors, including over 50 women and a mascot in the person of a grandson of Dr. J. B. Barnett, and they represented 38 different states, and many They found many friends and business men. They found many friends and business acquaintances among the Portland people, and a very pleasant time was passed. Owing to the brief time at the disposal of the visitors, no programme of exer-

Carriages were in waiting, and as soon as the speaking was over the guests set out to enjoy themselves and see the town, dent. "Senator Mitchell being ill," said accompanied by their friends. Some took Mr. Hall, "Mr. McBride is our next best carriages and rode around, some patron-ized the electric car lines and went to When the discussion on plans of entertaining President McKinley was opened, H. M. Cake spoke strongly for a visit to the mouth of the Columbia. He said were easily distinguished by their fer and badge, and every one treated them as old friends. The women interested themselves in many things. A large saloon sign having a dozen or more Cupids sky. dgn having a dozen or more Cupids say-arking around attracted a crowd of them: a chocolate-colored infant, dressed in a bia River Railroad, would make arrange-ments, Mr. Cake said, and the Presiden-would be just as comfortable fex, with eyes, in a fine frenzy rolling, and labeled "My Honolulu baby," pleased them immensely, and a steam wood saw delighted a Kansas City woman, who had not seen one before, and she arranged for having plans and specifications for one sent to her. The men made themselves sociable, fraternized with everybody, and noticed the old shacks on some prominent streets on which more in the way of im-provements was being spent than the buildings were worth, and wondered that

At 1 P. M. the pligrims began gathering at the Union Depot. They were all in the best of humor, and expressed themselves as highly gratified with the warmth and geniality of their reception and much leased with the city and the views they had from the heights. The only regret was that the clouds had not allowed them to see Mount Hood and the other snow

Several members of the caravan said that their pilgrimage had been a perfect pleasure trip all the way. They had been accorded enthusiastic receptions everywhere. They were sorry that they had not planned a shorter stay at the Hawalian Islands and taken more time to tisit some of the Western cities.

They said the islands were booming, and the sugar business looking up. Their acquisition was a good thing for the acquisition was a good thing for the Untied States, and the Kanakas were beunited States, and the Kanakas were be-ginning to realize that it was a good thing for them. They were in a major-ity in both Houses of Parliament, and were inclined to run things their own way. but this would be remedied. They had been allowed to have everything their own way so far, but by the next election they would be made better acquainted with the American style of politics and elections, and they would be inducted into the cus-toms of the higher civilization.

It was remarked by several that the party had received more general notice and attention here than in any other place and attention here than in any other place they had visited. Usually a reception committee met their committee, and the welcoming and joilification was mostly confined to the committees, while here the committee had fraternized with the entire party, and everybody had been made acquainted with everybody, and all had had a good time. Many regretted that they could not stay longer here. The women were delighted with the flowers presented to them. Several of the party who had come ahead had visited Vancouver and Mount Tabor and had seen the snow mountains, and their tales of what they had seen made the others envy them.

While the party were sightseeing their effects were transferred to a train of six Great Northern sleeping-cars, and the long banners, bearing mottoes in Arabic and everything else but Chinook, had been attached to their sides. Ten boxes of selected flood Bluer applies. lected Hood River apples, raised near the snow line, and a number of dainty little boxes of Oregon prunes for the women, had been placed in the party commissary by the Shriners here, and 200 copies of the beautiful souvenir published by the O. R. N. Co. containing illustrations of the less and gray with Parker's Hair Balsam. Greve's Ointment makes a healthy skin. 50c. & N. Co., containing Illustrations of the

been provided for distribution among the

While the party were strolling on the platform, a rather touching incident oc-curred. Colonel J. C. Herkimer, who served through the Civil War as a Cap-tain, recognized in a crowd James M. Eg-gleston, of this city, as a member of his company. The men embraced each other like two Franchesen and artifilited the like two Frenchmen, and exhibited the most lively pleasure at the chance meet-ing after a separation of so many years. Some one found a genuine camel in a stable near the depot—a regular ship of the desert—and a young son of Dr. Palin, of Grand Rapids, was placed on his back and about 30 pilgrims gathered around the camel and had their pictures taken.

morning, accompanied by the committee arrived, and amid waving of hands and sent out by Al Kader Temple, of this handkerchiefs and general good-byes the city, to meet them at Ashland, consisting train rolled out, just as the sun had rolled away the clouds and Mount Hood came forth in all his glory to see them off. The caravan started from Chicago February H. Beckwith. The pilgrims were not allowed to hlight at the depot, but their train was run up Fourth street to Morribecoming slightly weary and look forward with pleasure to reaching Chicago

Return Over the Great Northern. The Shriners were scheduled to leave Seattle at 1 o'clock this morning over the Great Northern. They will have a train of 11 cars, their own baggage-car and commissary car, and nine cars of the Great Northern equipment, namely, six sleepers, two diners and a library observ-atory car. They will reach Spokane at noon tomorrow and remain there until 4 P. M. They will then make the run from Spokane to Fargo, N. D.,1230 miles, without a stop, except for coal and water. The train will be under the personal charge of C. E. Stone, assistant general passenger agent, who will take hold at Seattle and remain with the caravan until they reach St. Paul. The Great Northern has prepared a special dining-car menu richly illustrated with scenes emblematical of the Order of the Mystic Shrine. These will serve as pleasant souvenirs of the return journey across the continent over a very popular line.

RECEPTION TO M'KINLEY.

General Features Adopted by Ex ecutive Committee.

Three features of President McKinley's reception in Portland were practically de-cided upon at yesterday's meeting of the executive committee, Mayor Rowe pre-eiding. These are: May 22, afternoon-Parade from the Union Central Station to the Portland Hotel, with reviews by the President in front of the hotel, and by the school children at the park blocks, conclud-ing with a drive about the city.

Evening-Public reception. May 23-Leave at 7:30 A. M., by boat for Kalama, Wash., via Vancouver and the mouth of the Willamette. At Kalama the Presidential party will find a Northern Pacific train waiting to take them to Puchange. It may be that President Mc-Kinley will not feel like arising at 6 A. M., for a river ride to Kalama, after a reception in Portland the previous day. More definite arrangements will be made by the sub-committee on programme, which will meet at the Commercial Ciub tomorrow morning. This committee con-sists of H. C. Breeden, General C. F. Beebe, Henry Hahn, John H. Hall and A. B. Steinbach. In the meantime an ef-fort will be made to induce the President to prolong his stay in Oregon. Eleven of the fifteen members of the executive committee attended yesterday's meeting at the Commercial Club. George Taylor, Jr., sent word that he would be out of the city, and would be unable to serve. Mayor Rowe will make an ap-pointment to fill the vacancy. H. C. Breeden was elected treasurer and E. C. Masten assistant secretary.

Masten assistant secretary.

In reply to Henry Hahn's inquiry whether the President could not be induced to make a longer stay in Portland, John H. Hall said the matter had been laid before Secretary Cortelyou by Senator Fulton of the Legislative committee, and a reply had been received that the litherage and a reply had been received that the cises had been prepared.

Hon. W. D. Penton delivered a short and felicitous address of welcome, to which imperial Potentate Windsor made a fitting response, and Hon. M. C. George followed with a few remarks addressed was sent last night to Binger Hermann, principally to the women, which were well.

H. H. Gilfrey, ex-Senator McBride and solution of the metallicity and solution of the legislative committee, for a divorce against Sadig May Moore, and divorce against Sadig May Moore, the and solution of the Legislative committee, for a divorce against Sadig May Moore, the and solution of the metallicity and solution o principally to the women, which were well H. H. Gilfrey, ex-Senator McBride and other Oregon men in Washington, asking them to take action. Mr. Hall said that portance of improving it for the benefit of the constantly growing commerce of the region tributary to Portland. A. B. Hamtial party would be just as comfortable in a night ride down the Columbia as if they remained in Portland. The ride on the jetty, he added, would be novel and

Henry Hahn and others agreed that the river trip would be a fine thing, but the general opinion was that it would discommode the party. Mr. Hahn said that the wish of Secretary Root to see Van-couver should not be ignored. Mr. Breeden was for giving the President the best that Portland is able to afford. This could be accomplished, he thought, by a trip to Vancouver. On the way to Kalama the President could see Portland's shipping and form a good idea of the importance of the Columbia. Mr. Breeden was specially anxious that the school children should have a good op-portunity to see the President. He said they should be congregated on the park blocks to give them an unobstructed

A. B. Steinbach, E. H. Kilham and Mesers. Hall and Cake advanced a num-ber of ideas for entertainment. Incorporating all but one of the suggestions, Mr. Cake moved that there be a parade from the Union Station to the Hotel Portland, review in front of the hotel by the President, review at the Park blocks by the school children, a drive about the city, a reception i nthe evening, and a river trip the next morning to Kalama by way of Mr. Hall moved as an amendment that there be a banquet at the hotel in the evening.

W. W. Cotton thought the banquet feature would keep the President constantly on the move, and would give him no chance for rest. The result would be, he said, that the President would be discommoded, and he would go away from Portland very much fatigued and out of could not stay longer here. The dent at the state line. They wish to have dent at the state line. They wish to have their car attached to the Presidential train for the return trip o Porland. The train for the return trip o Porland. committee.

All organizations wishing to take part in the parade in Portland are requested to communicate with Sanderson Reed, sec-retary of the executive committee, whose office is in the Chamber of Commerce building.

Patience—Do you know, when Will went to put the engagement ring on my finger he really didn't know which finger it should go on. Patrice—Well, he must have a very poor memory.—Yonkers Statesman.

WORKING IN

THE COMMISSIONERS' COURT GETS READY FOR BUSINESS.

Two Members May Transact Business at Regular or Special Sessions-New Bids Probable.

The County Commissioners and County Judge held another informal meeting yesterday in the Judge's chambers. The matter of contracts for county supplies was again discussed, and it is probable that in some instances advertising will be done over again. In other cases where the conover again. In other cases where the contracts are plain and business firms un-derstood what they were bidding on, the contracts will not be disturbed. Some of the specifications are said not to have been sufficiently explicit, and the intention is to give every one a fair chance, It has been remarked that certain printing concerns formed a combine so as to obtain about an equal division of the

The Clerk of the Circuit Court is walt-ing for new books made to conform with the requirements of the new fee bill. Some other supplies are needed, and it is lo be hoped that the contracts will be disposed of soon. Under the law everything has to be advertised for. George Fawcett, who has charge of charity cases for the county, yesterday moved his office to the grand jury-room. The Commissioners' Court has not yet held a public meeting, but will probably hold one next Wednes-day and consider road matters and such other business as may be on hand.

The Commissioners' Court is now working harmoniously, and meetings will be held in future when necessary, by either two or three of the members, as the case may be. If a member is unable to attend for any reason, two may hold a meeting. The statute is plain upon the subject, and

The court is held by the County Judge ex-cept when county business is being transacted, and then it is held by such Judge and two Commissioners designated by law, or a major-My of persons.

When in the transaction of county business only two of the persons authorized to hold the court are present, and there shall be a disagreement between them, upon any ques-tion or matter before them, the same shall be continued until the next term, or until the third person authorized to sit is present.

Alice M. Wells Is the author of a new story for boys and girls. It will appear IN THE BUNDAY OREGONIAN. ******************

W. E. McGregor was divorced from Alce McGregor yesterday, by Judge Cleland, because of desertion. The testimony of the plaintiff was that they were married at Grant's Pass in May, 1894, and his wife left him in April, 1899. He said he pro-vided her with a comfortable home and repeatedly urged her to return to him, and she refused to do so.

Annie L. Flynn was granted a divorce from Michael Flynn, on the grounds of cruel treatment and desertion, and was restored to her malden name, Brown, The evidence of Mrs. Flynn was that her hus-band, from the time of the marriage in this city in September, 1888, until March, 1889, when he abandoned her, continually used abusive and offensive language to her, and since he left her she has been compelled to support herself by her own

In the suit of Rosa Westerman against solution of the matrimonial bonds. They were married at San Francisco in 1886. Answer Not Stricken Out.

Judge Cleland yesterday denied the moion to strike out the answers of J. W. Hill and Jessie W. Hill in the suit against them by E. C. Goddard & Co., J. K. Gill & Co. and Lipman, Wolfe & Co.; to have a mortgage for $3000 on lots 10 and 11, block 12, Goldsmith's addition, canceled, and for a decree that Mrs. Hill holds the property as trustee for the benefit of the creditors of her husband. Dr. Hill in his answer denies that the mortgage was not valid, and states further that, October 24, 1899, he was discharged in the bankruptcy court of all of his debts. Mrs. Hill in her answer avers that the mortgage was valid, and was transferred to her by her father, George Adams; also that there is $5000 due, while the property is not worth over $4000. There was a further allegation that the plaintiffs were not acting in faith, but were merely seeking to hin-der and delay the defendants. The motion to strike out the answers was based on the ground that they were frivolous. Two questions were raised according to the opinion of the court, the first being directed toward the allegations of the defendants that the plaintiffs were not acting in good faith, but had formed a th conspiracy to hinder the defendants, and the other question as to the sufficiency of the discharge from bankruptcy: Judge Cleland said the questions were both important ones, and proper to be looked into, and for that reason he would deny the motions to strike out. Dr. Hill contem-plates erecting a school on this ground.

Decisions Today. Judge Cleland will decide the following ases this morning at 10 o'clock:

A. W. Moudy vs. Eliza J. Darling et al.; on merits. Title Guarantee & Trust Company vs. Caleb A. Aylsworth: demurrer to answer.

Court Notes.

George W. Williams, administrator of the estate of T. K. Williams, deceased, filed a semiannual report yesterday, showing $12,287 received and $185 disbursed. Stephen J. and Mildred Willeford yes-terday filed a petition for the adoption of their grandchiid, Orita Jack Searfass, 3 years old. The mother is dead, and the father, it is stated, abandoned the child in 1898 and is now in Alaska. His name is Benjamin Searfass. Sven Anderson, administrator of the es-

A. Foster to recover about $50 on a note and to foreclose a chattel mortgage. Judge Cleiand yesterday found for the defend-ant. The court held that there was a fallure to make any statement concerning consideration being given. The defense of Foster was that he had already paid more than the principal and legal interest in the way of interest and brokerage.

In the case of J. H. Montgomery vs. D. M. Dunne, Collector of Internal Revenue, a hearing was had in the United States Court yesterday on a demurrer to the complaint, and the demurrer was over-Court yesterday on a demurrer to the complaint, and the demurrer was overruled by Judge Bellinger. Montgomery is the manager of the Copeland Medical Institute in this city. He was asked to put revenue stamps on the bottles of children Grape-Nuts and use the food medicine sent out from the institute.

the ground that they are proprietary medicines, but declined to do so, alleging that he sent out only prescriptions. Collector Dunne thereupon examined his books and taxed him some $800, and brought suit demurred to his complaint, and the com-plaint has been overruled. Whether the matter will be carried any further or the money refunded is not known.

STIRRING UP PORTLAND.

Clubwomen Show How an Ideal City May Be Made.

The Woman's Club, at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon, discussed "What Makes an Ideal City?—Portland's Needs." When one comes to the subject of mu-nicipal improvement, it is surprising how much half a dozen members of a wom-an's club can say in 10 minutes. Madame Bauer advanced the idea that Portland could be made an ideal Summer resort. Only a few hot days occur during the season, and for those we are within three hours of the coast. After dilating upon hours of the coast. After dilating upon our scenic splendors, forest reserves and other advantages, she broached the plan of building a palatial Summer hotel on Portiand Heights and establishing bathhouses, swimming schools and boathouses on either side of the Willamette.

Mrs. Peter H. Ward welcomed this idea with enthusiasm, saying that, as for our hot days. Easterness to not feel the heat hot days. Easterners do not feel the heahere, as thin-blooded Oregonians do. Last Summer she said some Eastern friends were visiting her, and she found them out in the yard, sitting in the sun, on one of our warmest days, complaing that they were nearly frozen.

Mrs. Stears then read a letter bearing on this topic from Mrs. E. W. Bingham, who is now in California. She earestly advised, in view of the fact that Port-lad was to have a great exposition in 1905, that the members of the Woman's Club should inaugurate a movement to pave and otherwise improve the streets pave and otherwise improve the streets of the city, which at present are a disgrace to all self-respecting clizens.

Dr. Mary Thompson—We have the finest scenery in the world, the purest water, and a club of 200 women. What cannot be accomplished with such a combination?

Mrs. A. S. Duniway-As clubwomen we are today dealing with great topics that a few years ago would have scared the life out of us. We have become parlia-mentarians. But now let us bend our efforts toward matters of practical util-ity. It is true that the virgin resources of Oregon are unrivaled, and I sincerely hope some steps will be taken to put this great movement on its feet, of transform-ing Portland into an ideal Summer resort. Let us have a committee of sensible, earnest, conscientious taxpaying women, such as will command the respect of our business men, to take preliminary steps for making Portland a model

Summer resort. This will do more than anything I know of to awaken the sterner sex from their Rip Van Winkle slumber. Previous to this discussion, which occupied the closing 10 minutes of the procupled the closing 10 minutes of the programme, the club was entertained for nearly two hours by Miss Mabel Lankton Carter, dean of oratory at the Willamette University. Miss Carter recited in delightful fashion the quaint village idyl "Timothy's Quest," a poem by Robert Browning; two stories by Richard Harding Davis, and Tennyson's "Mermaid."

FOR RIVER IMPROVEMENT.

to Be Laid Before River and Harbor Committee.

The urgent necessity of action being taken by the commercial bodies of the Inland-Empire to secure recognition at the hands of the river and harbor com-mittee of Congress, which visit this Coast in June, was brought to the attention of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday by the receipt of a letter from a special committee appointed by the Commercial Club of Lewiston, Idaho. The committee was appointed for the spurpose of enlisting the support of commercial bodies of other cities in preparing data to be presented t othe committee, setting forth as vividly and yet as briefly as possible the im-mense good to be derived from the opening of rivers in the district, and particuand Snake Rivers. The letter states that it is the committee's desire to secure the co of the commercial bodies of Portland, Spokane, Walla Walla, North Yakima, Colfax, Pendleton, Astoria, The Dalles and Grangeville, Idaho. The plan is to have each body appoint one member of a committee, which is to be entrusted with the duty of preparing a circular on the subject-matter in question, and possibly of accompanying the river and har-bor committee on that portion of its trip which shall include the Inland Empire. The letter was signed by James E. Babb, B. F. Morris and Robert Schleichler, the special committee.

The communication will be laid before the trustees of the Chamber at their meeting next Tuesday, when some action will probably be taken.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS.

Camp Harrington Mustered Into the National Association.

Camp: Harrington, No. 210, Spanish-American War Veterans, was mustered into the national association Wednesday evening by Captain Josiah Kemp, who had been appointed to perform that serv tee upon the recommendation of General O. Summers, commanding the Department of Oregon. Thirty comrades surrounded the altar, which was draped with the National colors, and reaffirmed their al-legiance to the United States and the State of Oregon. Camp Harrington en-joys the distinction of being the first organization in the National Association of Spanish-American War Veterans mus-tered in the State of Oregon.

After the muster-in and close of the charter, the following officers were elected and installed: Commander, Josian Dunbar; junior vice-commander, H. P. Kemp; senior vice-commander, T. N. Hunter; adjutant, George H. Carr; quarters with W. Wilson; chaplets of the commander of the termaster, W. W. Wilson; chapiain, C. Ritterspacher; officer of the day, W. O. Stuart; officer of the guard, Henry Hock-

By-laws which had been prepared in conformance with the by-laws of the Na-tional association were adopted. It is the intention of the camp to appoint a relief committee which will see that no worthy mrade shall suffer in time of deed,

Wreck Removed. The wreck caused by the collision on the O. R. & N. Railway at the mouth of Sullivan's Gulch, which occurred at 13:30 Thursday night, was quickly re moved yesterday morning. Three freight cars were involved. One was telescoped rosy, Peady for study or play, there is probably something lacking in the food.

SCIENTIFIC FOOD. Mothers Feel a Responsibility in Selecting Food.

A sure body builder for children (or adults) is Grape-Nuts, the famous ready-cooked food, and there is a reason.

Grape-Nuts contain natural phosphate of potash and albumen obtained from grains, and these elements combine in the human body to form gray matter in brain and nerve cells all over the body. Such nourishment means vigor, snap, strength and force of both mind and body.

If children are not healthy, round and

This is scientific feeding, and with Grape-Nuts you have the youngsters fed in a way that will bring the biggest kind

17 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7

PERSONALLY CONDUCTED

To Complete HEALTH

From the State of Danger, County of Depression, City of Unrest, Under the auspices of Warner's Safe Cure Co. and Its Corps of Registered Physicians.

2 2 2 2

Begin the tour and cure today, by procuring a bottle of Warner's Safe Cure from your nearest dealer and writing to Warner's Safe Cure Co., Rochester, N. Y., requesting further advice and Guide Bookwhich will be sent you free by reinto another, and one was flung from the track on the side of the embankment, This latter was so badly used up that the trucks were removed and the body was burned. The operation of clearing the tracks was witnessed by a large crowd from the Union-avenue bridge.

EEEEEEEEEEE

EAST SIDE MATTERS.

Arbor Day Exercises in One School, but No Tree Planting.

Brief Arbor day exercises were held in the assembly hall of the Williams-Avenue Schoolhouse yesterday afternoon and were attended by a number of the patrons of the school. The programme was given in divisions. The primary department first gave its exercises, which were opened with the bugie call. Then came singing and recitations exercises. singing and recitations pertaining to the day. The second division then assembled and went through a programme of song and recitation. Professor Pratt, the principal, made a short address on the objects of the day and what is expected to be accomplished through its observ-ance. The ninth grade closed the exercises with clubswinging. There was no tree planting and the day was not generally observed by East Side schools

At a meeting of the Society of St. Paul's German Lutheran Church, East Tweltth and Clinton streets, Friday evening, there was a large attendance and much interest was displayed. Charles Bartel presided. There was a general programme. Rev. August Krause delivered an address on "Progress According to the Word of God." This lecture will be published in the church organ printed in Ohio. Meetings will be held regularly and other lectures will be given, interspersed with various exercises.

The elevated roadway on Weidler street between Williams avenue and East First street has been redecked, and is now again open to the public. It was in a dangerous condition.

The contractor is grading the school block, on which the new Central building will stand, down to a level with the street. This was made necessary in order not to change the plans prepared by the late Architect Miller.

It has been decided to call another meeting of the citizens of Multnomah Adnue engine-house, to hear the report the committee appointed to investigate the probable cost of the proposed sewer sys-tem for that district.

Dr. Wise has removed to rooms 211, 212 and 213, The Failing, cor. 3d and Wash.

CERTIFICATES ARE GIVEN. of Successful Applicants for Medical Examination.

The State Board of Medical Examiners has completed its examination of applicants for physicians' certificates, and yesterday the names of the successful ones toria for this occasion, is but $1.25; return Graduates Medical Department, Uni-versity of Oregon-August M. Stark, of day, 10 P. M. Albany; Mary M. Goffin, Octave J. Cof-fin, Clarence W. Keene, Leo Ricen, John D. Scanlon, Frank M. Taylor and Neille S. Vernon, all of Portland.
Graduates Willamette University—Ben.

jamin F. Brooks, of Portland; Harlon Fin- Three doses of Hood's Sarsaparilla dally ley Ong, of Scotts Mills; John Rex Byars, after meals for awhile will build you up.

TONIGHT! TONIGHT!

GRAND SPECTACULAR

==MASK==

Under the Auspices

MUSICIANS' MUTUAL ASSOCIATION

SATURDAY EVENING, APR. 13

MUSIC HALL EXPOSITION BUILDING

60-BAND OF 60 MUSICIANS---60

GRAND MARCH AT 9 O'CLOCK

GENERAL ADMISSION50 CENTS

DOOR PRIZES-Cabinet Grand Upright Plano, $75 Singer Sewing Machine, Ladies' "Mitchell" Bicycle, and dozens of other valuable and useful articles. Also, valuable prizes for best costumes, groups and characters.

Robert Ellis Rings and Eberle R. Selly, all of Salem. Graduate Hahnemann Medical College and Hospital, Philadelphia, Pa.—Arthur William Ball, of Portland. Graduate South Carolina Medical College-Boylis H. Earle, of Astoria. Graduate Georgetown University-Al-

Graduate Baltimore Medical College
Samuel L. Perkins, of Mitchell.
Graduate University of Baltimore—
Charles C. Taggart.

Graduate University of Baltimore—

Charles C. Taggart.

WEATHER CONTESTED

OCEAN STEAMSHIP ON WHEELS

To enable the public to visit the ocean beach and see the Government lightship now being moved overland to Bakers Bay, the O. R. & N. Co. has arranged an excursion for Sunday, April 14, between Astoria, Fort Canby and Ilwaco. Steamer Astoria, Fort Camby and Invaced Science.
Nahcotta will leave Astoria at 8:30 A. M., returning leave Fort Camby 4 P. M. and Ilwaco 4:15 P. M., arriving at Astoria at 5:45 P. M., thereby enabling passengers to reach Portland 9:40 Sunday night. Rate.

Never fall to cure sick headache, often the very first dose. This is what is said by all who try Carter's Little Liver Pills.

DAILY METEOROLOGICAL REPORT.

PORTLAND, April 12-6 P. M.-Maximum temperature, 53; minimum river reading at 11 A. M., 5.0 feet; change in the past 24 hours, -0.4 foot; total-precipitation, 5 P. M. to 5 P. M., trace; total precipitation since Sept. 1, 1900, 31.31 inches; normal deficiency, 2.37 inches; total sunshine April Pair weather prevails in the Rocky Mount ain and Pacific Coast States, with temperatures generally slightly above the normal, Light frosts occurred Friday morning in Northwestern Washington, and there will be frosts Saturday morning in Washington, Northern Idaho and in low places in Oregon. It will be warmer Saturday afternoon in Western Oregon.

and Western Washington. WEATHER FORECASTS. Porecasts made at Portland for the 28 hours ending at midnight Saturday, April 14: Portland and vicinity—Fagr, with light frosts in early morning; warmer during afternoun; northerly winds.

Western Oregon-Fair, with frosts in north portion in early morning; warmer during the afternoon; northerly winds. Washington-Pair, with frosts in early morning; warmer in west portion during the after-noon; northerly winds. Eastern Oregon-Fair, with frosts in early orning in north portion; northerly winds. Idaho-Fair, with frosts in north portion in

