Fear Undesirable Immigration,

The question of allen immigration is A good many people fear that, following the colonization of South Africa on a large scale by men and women of Anglo-Saxon blood at the close of the war, there will be an invasion of this country by impoverished middle men, money lenders and tailors from Jewish centers of population on the continent. The feeling among the working classes of the East End of London with regard to the immigration of destitute aliens is very strong. Whitechapel is largely inhabited by Hebrews of the very owest class, whole streets being occupied by an undesirable population from the ghettos of Western Russia, Germany and Austria

Lord Selisbury, Mr. Balfour and Mr. Chamberlain have at different times in-sisted on the necessity of preventing destitute allens from taking up their abode there, but the colonization of the country who are un fron War serving in an Ohlo regi
