Increased Attendance at the Second Annual Exhibit of Portland

Judging In the bench show of the Portland Kennei Club was completed yester-day, and all the prize-winners proudly wore the blue, red and white ribbons that indicated their superiority over the other dogs in their class. Interest in the show was greater than on the opening day, and crowds watched the judges it the ring at work with the dogs. Judge Cole finished the sporting dogs in the morning, and Judges Stewart and Naira devoted the rest of the day to judging the collies and small breeds. At 3 P. M. today will be awarded the special prizes. which have been presented for the best dogs in various classes. Over these there is great rivalry and the decision of the judges is awaited with interest, wing is a list of the prize-winners decided yesterday:

Mrs. Jacob Danner's Daughter Denies Published Story.

The story printed in The Oregonian about a month ago to the effect that Mrs. Jacob Danner, who is divorced from her husband, had eloped with John Watrin, who has a wife living on the East Side, is denied by Mrs. Danner's daughter, who is a nurse in a local sanitarium. Miss Danner yesterday made the follow-ing statement:

SPRING GOLF MEETING

NEW CLOCK GAME THE CENTER OF INTEREST.

Bowers of Tacoma Wins in First Round of Men's Open Championship-Mixed Foursomes.

Golfers in bright-colored attire thronged the links of the Waverly Golf Club yes-terday at the opening of the club's sixth annual Spring meeting. The day was perfect for golf, clear and sunny, and not too warm to make the gentle exer-cise uncomfortable. All day over the links could be seen bits of color, bright scarlet or blue, or still more subdued tones in the golf coats of the men, while the links of the Waverly Golf Club yesthe women appeared in white shirt waists or jackets of red. All the matches were closely contested, and as the victors reclosely contested, and as the victors re-turned to the clubhouse from going over the course, the spectators sitting in the shade greeted them with hearty ap-plause. The events played yesterday were the mixed foursomes (handlcap), the mixed approaching contest, clock golf, and the first rounds of the men and women's open championship of Oregon. At the clubhouse all day the attrac-

At the clubhouse all day the attraction was clock golf, an innovation in Portland that proved popular. Sitting on the veranda, the spectators could watch the contestants putting at the hole on the sloping lawn, from the figures of the clock. The irregular distance of the hole from the putting points, and the slope of the green, made the feat of holing the the green, made the feat of holing the ball a difficult one, and consequently interesting to all the golfers. The men's prize was won by S. D. Bowers, of Tacoma, who scored 16, and that for women by Mrs. T. Kerr, who made 15. Wirt Minor, Zera Snow and Dr. A. A. Morrison also made good scores.

The mixed foursome handicap competition was plaused in the morning over 18.

tion was played in the morning over 18 holes, and resulted in a tie between P. B. Gifford and Miss King, scratch, who scored 98, and C. Hunt Lewis and Miss Sibson, score 107, handicap 9, net 98. The tie will be played off next week, as the match can not be arranged during the meeting on account of lack of time. In the mixed approaching contest, Jonathan Bourne, Jr., won easily, his scores of 6, 6, 7, 10 not being beaten, the nearest being 5. Bourne's approach shots were always made directly in line with the flug, and seldom overshot the mark, as

The first round in the women's open championship resulted as follows:

Mrs. Koehler defeated Mrs. Kerr, 1 up. Mrs. Snow defeated Miss Sibson, 4 up a Mrs. Wilson defeated Mrs. Shepard, 2 up. Miss King defeated Miss Flanders, 4 up and

Mrs. Kerr played in hard luck, her ball going into the railroad track and lodging in an unplayable position, losing her the hole. Miss Sibson in her match with Mrs. Snow broke her driver, handicapping her seriously. The semi-finals will be played as follows: Mrs. Koehler vs. Mrs. Snow, and Mrs. Wilson vs. Miss King.

Men's Open Championship. In the men's open championship, the first round brought out a large number of competitors, among them S. D. Bow-ers, of Tacoma, who defeated C. W. Lawrence, in an interesting match. Today he will meet P. B. Gifford, the local champion, and the contest is likely to prove the event of the day. The results of yes-terday's matches follow:

Minor defeated Morrison, 8 up and 2 to play. Millor defeated T. Kerr, 3 up and 2 to play. Macleay defeated Mills, 2 up and 2 to play. White defeated Dr. H. E. Jones, 5 up and 4 Cotton defeated W. M. Ladd, 2 up and 1 to

F. Adams won by default. Furcher defeated J. D. Carson. Walker defeated T. A. Linthicum, 4 up. Foung defeated Bourne, 1 up. Wright defeated Ayer, 3 up and 2 to play

Oregon King Mining Company in the United States Court yesterday, a motion to strike out parts of the complaint was sustained by Judge Bellinger and leave was given to amend the answer.

The suit of Nels Pierce against the British ship Langsdale to recover damages in the sum of $5000 for injuries sustained by falling down a hatchway on board that ship, was on trial in the United States Court before Judge Bellinger yesterday. Pierce was employed on board the Langsdale and fell into the lower hold, breaking his left arm and wrist, so that, as he alleges, he can never work again.

WHERE COMPLAINT LIES.

Principal Objection to the New Property Redemption Law.

H. E. Noble, in his comments on the aw for the sale of land bid in by countles, states that the complaint most made is that the delinquent taxpayer is too much favored by remitting the pen-alties, when the fact is that there is attles, when the fact is that there is little or no complaint by the authorities on that score. Where taxes have been due for years past, it was considered no more than right that a penalty should be exacted, but the county officers are not stubborn about it, and recognize aiready that the new law is working well and that the remission of the penalty is resulting in county of the penalty. is resulting in a rush of people to pay back taxes.

The principal objection to the new act is to that portion of it which provides for the sale of property bid in by coun-ties, on the first Monday after July 1 next, to the highest cash bidder, the sale to begin with the latest year and proceed backwards in inverse order, and that no property shall be bid in more than once, and that after sale, etc., no tax shall be a lien against the property except a subsequent tax to that for which the property was sold. This is not the preproperty was soid. This is not the pre-cise language of the section, but it is its general effect. Through this means by bidding in property for one year's tax when there may be taxes due for half a dozen years, the delinquent taxes are all wiped out. This is the feature of the bill which is in the interest of Mr. Noble and other nurebosers of tax titles. and other purchasers of tax titles. A property-owner can also bid in his taxes in this way. In fact, one man who owes being 5. Boirne's approach shots were always made directly in line with the flag, and seldom overshot the mark, as did most of the players. Mrs. Zera Snow won the women's prize with a score of 3.

When the title to a piece of property is being perfected and taxes are paid the county gets all of the back taxes in, and if the penalty is lost it will not cut very much figure.

much figure. At the July sale it is possible for the property to be bid in for even less than one year's taxes, as the law simply says the highest cash bidder. These taxes re-ferred to are not necessarily mortgage taxes. There is as much straight taxes delinquent as mortgage taxes or even more. Concerning the mortgage compa-nies, it is expected that where they own the property by having acquired it through mortgage foreclosure, they will protect their interest at the sale or otherwise as to mortgage taxes or any other wise as to mortgage taxes or any other kind of taxes due.

The $30,000 collected in the past few months is all moneys collected for the county, city, school districts, etc., and not for individuals. The Clerk of the County Court has also collected considerable for brokers on account of delinquent taxes bid in by them with penalties. able for brokers on account of delinquent taxes bid in by them, with penalties. This is done right along, as the office of the Clerk of the County Court, being the place where the delinquent tax rolls are kept, is naturally the place where attorneys and others go to make settlement of old tax accounts. The books show to whom property was sold at delinquent sales, and it is no more than proper for the Clerk to receive the money for brokers when redemption is made. The broker having paid the county what is due, is entitled to have it collected for him when offered, with the interest. The Clerk col-

County Judges of the state after dis-cussion in their convention. I was not instrumental directly or indirectly in the framing or drawing of the original bill which Mr. Noble so warmly criticises, nor the law as enacted which he so ardently favors. He may be right in his criticism, and if so, it only fortifies my views concerning the late 'reform' Legislature. The substitute of one graft for another is no improvement, and but a weak defense."

JUSTICE TO SENATOR SWEEK Conection With Certain New

State Laws. An injustice was done to Senator Alex Sweek in the Salem correspondence of The Oregonian, Wednesday, in the statement that his relatives were interested in the passage of a bill introduced by him January 15, one provision of which made taxes uncollectible if not collected within five years after being levied. The bill was printed in The Oregonian of January 9, five days before the Legisla-ture met, and five days before the Su-preme Court rendered its decision validpreme Court rendered its decision validating the mortgage taxes.

"Under the circumstances," said Senator Sweek, yesterday, "I do not see how any person can form the impression that the bill was intended to have any effect upon a decision that was rendered five days after a synopsis of the bill was published in The Oregonian. The bill was drafted by P. L. Willis, of Portland, acting for the Taxpayers' League, with advice from Representative Nottingham, Deputy County Assessor Maxwell, and having paid the county what is due, is entitled to have it collected for him when offered, with the interest. The Clerk collects a large share of the redemption moneys.

County Judge Gray, of Clatsop County, expressed the sentiment of his section when he said that they were willing to a struck to an advice from Representative Nottingnam, having paid the county Assessor Maxwell, and myself. The five-year clause was not intended to be retroactive, but when the Supreme Court decided the mortgage cases the Senate committee on taxation realized that the provision opened an avenue for contest in the courts and attricts the section.

NEW KINDERGARTENS.

Two Will Be Added to the Portland Public Schools.

The members of the Kindergarten Association are very busy just now carrying out their plans for the new schools. Most of this work necessarily involves upon Miss Valentine Prichard, the superintendent, every moment of whose time is filled just now with the thousand and one details that attend the opening of new schools. These will begin operations next Monday, April 22. Both will be le-cated on the east side of the river—one on the corner of East Alder and East Seven teenth streets, with Mrs. Carrie Aikin principal. Mrs. Aikin is a graduate of a Portland training school, and has taught at Sunnyside. Her assistant will be Miss Martha Webb, of this city. The other school will be in Lower Albina, on Rus-sell and Delay streets. Miss May Gage will be the principal of this one. She is a graduate of the Minneapolis training school, and has taught in the public kindergartens of St. Paul. She will be assisted by Miss Adele Lewton, who con from a well-known training school in Florida.

In addition to these two new schools, the one on Fourth and Harrison streets has been adopted by the Kindergarten Association, and will hereafter be one of the public schools of the city, though the Conscious Motherhood Club, which start-ed it, and has done such practical and valuable work in its behalf, will still continue to aid in its support. Miss Lutie Cake will remain principal, and Miss Beda Williams assistant.

John Kensit and Mrs. Nation. NEW YORK, April 18.-The Duke of Newcastle, who is regarded as one of the leaders of the Ritualistic movement in England, in an interview denounces the brawling that prevailed at the installa-tion of the Bishop of London.

War Feeling in Japan.

YOKOHAMA, March 30, via San Fran cisco, April 18. - Whether the feverish activity at the arsenals and navy-yards, or the unanimous voice of the native press or the corroborative reports of a decided stand being resolved upon by the Govern ment are taken into consideration, there remains little or no doubt that Japan has made up its mind to face Russia alone if necessary. There is no mistaking the patriotic fervor of the people. A DAY ON THE COLUMBIA RIVER.

A visit to Portland is incomplete without devoting at least one day to the Co-lumbia River and its magnificent scenery. You can leave Portland at 3 A. M. any day on the O. R. & N. Co.'s palatial Portland-Chicago special train, lunch at The Dailes or in the dining-car, be back at 4:30 P. M., and have seen the most attractive portion of the Columbia. In making the trip by rail you obtain a near view of the many beautiful cascades, the train coming to a standstill for a few moments at Multnomah Falls, and as the track skirts the south bank of the river the stream and its north shore are constantly in sight. Should you desire a ride on a river steamer, take the O. R. & N. Co.'s train at 9 A. M. any day except Sunday, for Cascade Locks, spend a short time there; and then board the steamer as she passes through the locks en route to Portland.

A more extensive river excursion can be had by leaving Ash-street dock Port. Astoria, on the O. R. & N. Line and Translates It.

Asked about Mr. Noble's letter, published yesterday, M. L. Pipes said:

"Yes, I have observed Mr. Noble's fling at me. I did not know when The Oregonian asked me about this law that Mr. Noble was interested in it. It is not surprising that he cannot conceive of an opinion about anything that does not involve a 'private snan'. I did not even the property to be sold, and for the the property to be sold, and for the additional reason that it enables poor people to redeem property that they lost in hard times. A similar law was enacted in Washington after the hard times and it worked good results. Wherein are the interests of the county endangered? The law provides that the property shall be sold to the highest bidder. The county, if it wishes to protect itself, from loss through the schemes of any person, has the right to be represented. at the sale and to become the highest bidder. In a general way, the law aims at a general cleaning up of accounts. nething like the National bankruptcy . I think its operation will be found
