COUNTY JUDGES MEET. They Will Discuss the New Property Redemption Law.

County Judges and Commissioners from various counties of the state will meet this morning at the Courthouse to discuss the law regarding the sale of property bid in by counties and school districts for delinquent taxes. The new law reverts all benefits of the redemption law, if they are paid before July 1. The meeting was called about 10 days ago by Judge Bartholomew, of Morrow County, who is the chairman of the Association of County Judges, and the judges were directed to urge the Commissioners to come also. A large attendance is expected.

The principal feature of the law which is objected to is the section which provides for the sale of all property previous to July 1 by the county on the first Monday after July 1, to the highest bidder. No property shall be sold more than once, and as interpreted, the law will permit the cancellation of taxes if they are paid before July 1. The meeting was called about 10 days ago by Judge Bartholomew, of Morrow County, who is the chairman of the Association of County Judges, and the judges were directed to urge the Commissioners to come also. A large attendance is expected.

The principal feature of the law which is objected to is the section which provides for the sale of all property previous to July 1 by the county on the first Monday after July 1, to the highest bidder.
