ARRESTED ON SUSPICION OF BEING A BUXAWAY.

GIRL IN MALE ATTIRE

Was Accompanied by Man Believed to Be Wanted in Eastern Oregon for Abduction.

OREGON CITY, April 29.-Chief of Police Burne today arrested a man accom-panied by a young girl attired in boy's clothing, about a mile south of here. The couple arrived in town yesterday. Their actions aroused suspicion, as information had been received that a Russian had left Condon a few weeks ago accompanied by a 13-year-old girl. The couple were by a is-year-old girl. The couple were leaving town on foot when arrested. The man gave his name as Charles Wilson, and stated that it was his son who was accompanying him on his travels. Later, his companion was compelled to acknowl-edge that she was a girl in male attire, but stated that she was married to Wilbut stated that she was married to Wil-son at Vancouver about a year ago, and previously had lived at Grass Valley, hack of Vancouver, her malden name having been Cora Fletcher. She said she was 17 years old. The man was secretive and told the girl not to talk, at the same time pretending to be deaf. Sam P. Hockett, of Condon, was here a few days ago and informed a friend that a man had run away with his 13-year-old daughter. He told several peo-ple of the fact, but did not tell the Chief of Polles Hocketr want from here to of Police, Hockett went from here to Clatskanle to continue the search for the runaway couple, and an effort is being made to get him here to identify the couple. The man answers the description sent from Condon, where the person who abducted the girl was known under the aliases of Charles Upton, Charles Raymond and Frank Smith.

Salem Citizens Active in Behalf of an ex-Resident of Their Town. SALEM, April 29.-Friends of J. G. Lubrman, an ex-Salemite, who is serving a five years' term in the penitentiary for manslaughter, under a commitment from Baker county, today began the circulagion of a petition asking the Governor to grant the convicted man a full pardon and restoration to citizenship. Since his incarceration, Luhrman's

Since his incarceration, Luhrman's wife has been working faithfully to se-cure his pardon. She has just returned from Baker county with a petition signed by 300 of the citizens of Sumptor, the of-ficials of that municipality, the Baker county officers and cleven of the jurors that convicted Luhrman. The services of the Circuit Judge who presided when Luhrman was convicted have also been enlisted in the prisoner's behalf.

The petition being circulated here is supplementary to that brought from Eastern Oregon and is being largely signed. After the usual preamble, the petition prays for Lubrman's pardon and restoration to citizenship, "believing such Oregon-Increase, John Wood, The Dal-lee, $12; John M. Perry, Moro, $8; Boyd F. TOOK HIS OWN LIFE. Man at Astoria Ended His Suffering With a Bullet.

ASTORIA, April 29.-J. M. Center, of Stevenson, Wash., committed suicide here last night by shooting himself in the head with a pistol. His body was found lying on the wharf near the Parker Hotel this morning. He came to Astoria yesterday, registered at the Parker House and sat around the hotel office until about 9 o'clock, when he opened his grip and took something out. He then went out and walked in the direction of the river. Very little is known of him here except that he was in Astoria a few monts ago and at that time he had a young son with him, who is now supposed to be under the charge of the Boys' and Girls' Society of Portland. Last evening he had his head bandaged up with a towel to protect a wound in his jaw, which had been injured. He was a man of about 60 years of age. He was without money, and evidently took his life to be relieved from suffering.

ASHLAND, Or., April 29,-Thomas P. Robb, an oil expert brought here from the Bakersfield, Cal., field by the oil company recently organized here, to investi-gate and report upon this field, has made a report which is encouraging. He says unqualifiedly that the indications of oil about Ashland are as favorable as in the famous Kern River field in California and superior to the Sunset and McKitt-rick districts. He also reports that the indications are that oil will be found here in large quantities. The report has given an impetus to operations by the lo-cal oil company, which has nearly closed negotiations for its drilling plant and equipment for active work in boring for The California company which has been so quietly acquiring large bodies of lands south of Ashland for several months past will soon have its equipment for boring on the ground.
