His Majesty Emperor William A Purchaser of an Aeolian Orchestrelle

Emperor William's interest in the Acolian Orchestrelle began by his seeing one off the coast of Norway, on board the yacht "Varuna," owned by a prominent New York yachtsman, and a strong Acolian enthusiast.

His Maiesty was so much pleased with the instrument that negotiations were instituted by his officials for the placing of an Orchestrelle of the same style on board His italesty's yacht, "Hohemoliern." On January 2 an order was received from the Imperial Wharf for an instrument with case specially designed to match the interior decorations of the Yacht. The Orchestrelle was shipped by Hamburg-American line steamer, "Pennsylvania," and has now been placed on board His Majesty's yacht.

Interesting Day for the Pres-Ident and His Party.

ARIZONA GOLD MINE VISITED

Reception and Speech at Phoenix-Cowboys Inquired for "Teddy"-Will Enter California

PHOENIX, Ariz., May 7.—The Preside tial party spent an interesting day in Arizona. The beautiful torquoise sky, bright gunshine and invigorating air afforded the party much relief after the hot and dusty ride of yesterday. The two hours in the morning at the Congress gold mines, up in the clouds of the Blue Tank mines, up in the clouds of the Blue Tank Mountains, were replete with incidents, and were thoroughly enjoyed. A large American flag was draped across the tunnel through which the President passed, and after he emerged he told the little group of miners who congregated about the train that he had seen Old Glory floating from tower and statehouse and warship in many different places, but that never before during his life had he seen the American flag 1500 feet under ground. Leaving the rich mining section in the mountains, 5000 feet above see level, the train dropped down into the green Salt train dropped down into the green Salt River Valley, with its waving alfalfa meadows and big herds of cattle. This valley is called the garden spot of Arisona, and was reclaimed by irrigation.

Yesterday, while passing through New Mexico, and today in Arizona, the cow punchers at the steps along the route inquired vociferously where "Teddy" was. Many of the Vice-President's Rough Rid-ers during the Spanish War were recruited in this section, and there was much dison the way to Phoenix the tire of one wheels of the locomotive tender s loose, and for the first time since the long journey began the telegrapher with the train was compelled to climb a telegraph pole to tap the wire.

At Wickesburg, the scene of the recent gold strike, the train was halted long enough to permit the President to receive a visit from the school children. The children presented Mrs. McKinley with a cabinet of specimens. The President thanked the children in Mrs. McKinley's behalf, and addressed them briefly, as follows:

"It gives me great pleasure to be received by the Governor of your territory, and to receive your warm welcome as we fourney towards Phoenix. It is expensive pleasant to meet the children, the boys and the girls of the public schools. There is nothing so essential in a free government reating upon the people as educament resting upon the people as educa-tion, and I have been gisd to note that in your territory broad and ample provis-ions are made for education. The school-house is the university out of which come good citizens, and it is on good citizenship we must rely, not only for the present, but for the future good and glory of the

About 20 miles outside of Phoenix th party saw from the car windows the Gov-ernment agricultural experiment station, to which Secretary Wilson a year ago sent 40 date palms, which had been brought out of the Tripoli desert on the acks of camels. The palms are doing well, and much is expected of them in the future in the Southwest.

The accident to the locomotive tender delayed the arrival of the train at Phoenix two hours, and somewhat disarranged the programme there. Nevertheless, the party received a rousing welcome. Governor Murphy and the territorial officials had met the party at the Congress mine and accompanied them back to Phoenix. At the station the territorial militia, a company of cowboys on bronchos, and some of the friendly Pima and Maricopa Indians joined in the wildly enthusiastic reception. The party was driven to the Adams Hotel for luncheon, and afterward was escorted to the territorial Capitol, where the formal exercises took place. Governor Murphy delivered an address of welcome, to which the President responded, as follows:

"Governor Murphy, My Fellow-Citizens: I am glad to be greeted here by the Governor of your territory. I have heard a good deal about it from those of your people who come to Washington. They people who come to Washington. They have, as I suppose, never understated the facts. I am prepared since my visit through your territory to believe that what they have said to me and to others s no exaggeration of your real condition You need a few more people and there is nothing helps immigration like irrigation. (Great applause.) I have been glad to note the splendid progress you have made and I am glad to bow in admiration of the pioneers of progress in the Territory of Arlzona. (Applause.) You have triumphed over many trials you have tory of Arisona. (Applause.) You have triumphed over many trials, you have overcome many difficulties, you have done what it has been given to few people to do, you have made grass grow where it never grew before. (Applause.) You have field and forest, you have mines, you have rich products from one end of your territory to the other, and you have a larger area of square miles than the Kingdom of Italy that contains a popula-tion of 30,000,000. (Applause.) I am glad to make acknowledgement to the statebuild-ers here in Arisona, the men who build the commonwealth that at last will become one of the glorious states in this glorious Union. I have been glad to note your splendid public improvements. This capitol, on the steps of which I stand today, should be a matter of pride to the people of your territory. (Applause.) Your public schools, your university of learning at the old capital of the territory, your care for the unfortun-ate people that dwell in your midst, all give evidence of that splendid civilization which you so nobly represent. Nor do i forget, standing in this presence, that when we were constrained, refuctantly, to go to war with Spain and the call was to go to war with Spain and the call was made for volunteers, it was in this territory that the first patriotic response was made. (Great applause.) This territory furnished nearly 200 soldiers for that unique and gallant regiment of Rough Riders (applause), and here the flag was made by the noble women of Phoenix that first floated over a Spanish fort in Cuba. (Applause.) What a record that regiment had! It lost some of its bravest and its best at Guasimas and at San Juan Hillbut they fell for a noble cause. The first Colonel of your regiment is now successfully administering the affairs of the Island of Cuba as its Governor-General-Wood. (Applause. A voice, "Three cheers for General Wood." (Cheers.) And your second Colonel is the Vice-President of acter of your people; and I leave with you my best wishes for their happiness and progress, and that they soon may be able to show the Congress of the United States that they have builded well and strongly and wisely this great territory and are prepared to be admitted into the Union of the States." Enthusiastic ap-

A drive afterward gave the President ar opportunity to see the interesting ruins of the ancient Aziec Irrigation system.

At the Indian Industrial School, fou miles from Phoenix, the party had a glimpse of what is being done in the way of education for the wards of the Nation A pretty little ceremony was enacted her for the benefit of the President. Whil an Indian band played "Haif Columbia a beautiful Indian maiden in pantomim a beautiful Indian malden in pantomime pleaded with a man dressed to represent Uncle Sam for statehood for the territory. At 5 o'clock this afternoon the Presidential special resumed its journey. The departure was so timed that the Colorado desert and old basin of the Gulf of California below the see level and harven of desert and old basin of the Guir of Cali-fornia, below the sea level, and barren of all vegetation, would be traversed during the night. The Colorado River, which is the boundary of Arizona, will be crossed at Yuma, and the party will awake to-morrow in California. Redlands, the first stop, will be reached at 3 A. M.

IN THE CONGRESS GOLD MINE.

All the Party Except President and CONGRESS, Aria, May 7.—The Prest-dential party spent several hours this morning visiting the big gold mine located at this place, which is about 70 miles northwest of Phoenix. The original itinerary contemplated spending the entire day until 5 o'clock this afternoon at Phoenix, but it was modified to permit the party to take this little side trip and in-spect the works of the Congress Mine. spect the works of the Congress Mine, the largest gold mine in the territory, It produces $300,000 in gold a month The party tramped up to the mouth of the shaft, which descends at an angle the shaft, which descends at an angle of 30 degrees 3790 feet into the mountain. The President did not make the descent, but all of the members of the Cabinet except Secretary Wilson went down in a cage to the lowest level and witnessed the drilling and blasting process. The President, accompanied by the president of the mine, E. B. Gage, walked through a half-mile tunnel lighted by candles to the stamp mills where 30 stamps were crushing ore. He then inspected the cyanide works, and saw cast a bar of gold worth $2500. The President was much interested and asked if he could not see the bar.

"It is red hot," said Mr. Gage.

"I will show it," shouled one of the melters, a man named Richmond, stepping forward, and with the protection only of a few rags on his hands he selzed the red-hot mold and dumped the white-hot bar of glowing metal upon the stone. The rags were ignited by the heat, and the young man's hands were scorched, but he did not wince.

"That is the true American pluck," cried the President, advancing toward Richmond. "I want to shake your hand." He grasped the man's hand and shook it cordially.

On the way back to the train the President had a good yiew of the mining camo dent had a good view of the militar came. In the valley occur. The famous Vulture mine, on one of the spurs of the Vulture Mountains, 40 miles away, was pointed out to the President.

Justice Street and other territorial of-ficials came here on a special train to welcome the President to the territory.

The Buckeyes ex-pect to have a drive at Riverside sariy in the morning and reach Los Angeles at 1 o'clock tomorrow, where they will remain until Friday. At various places former residents of Chio assembled at depots to meet the Governor, but his excellency made his first speech on the trip cellency made his first speech on the trip at Kingman, Ariz, this evening, just before crossing the Colorado River on passing from Arizona into California, As the Ohlo special pulled into Kingman a salute was fired. After being presented with a beautiful floral design Governor Nash returned thanks and spoke of Ohio people in the West. He said:

"While we claim citizenship in Ohlo, we also claim that greater and grander citi-zenship in our common country. We go to California to christen the battle-ship Ohio with the certain feeling that she will ever fight for the honor of the fing and the honor of our common country."

ELECTION IN BALTIMORE.

Resulted in a Sweeping Victory for the Republicans.

BALTIMORE, May 7.—The municipal election in this city today, the first one of importance held under the new ballot law, resulted in a sweeping victory for the Republicans. They carried 18 out of the 24 wards, electing 18 members to the first branch City Council and all three candidates for the second branch. Only about 55 per cent of the entire registered vote was polled and the colored vote was very light. Democrats attribute their de reat to factional differences, the friends of Mayor Hayes, who met with defeat in the primaries, being arrayed against the followers of Freeman Rasin. The majorities were greatly reduced in the six wards carried by the Democrats.

Saloon Smashers' Party.

TOPEKA, Kas., May 7.—A movement is on foot here to organize a new politi-cal party which shall champion the cause cal party which shall champion the cause of the saloon smashers. Those agitating the organization are mostly followers of Mrs. Nation and the party will be known as the "Nation party." Mrs. J. P. White is at the head of the movement. She says that neither of the old parties will give the aid expected in the suppression of the saloon traffic.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., May 7.—The elec-tion today resulted in an overwhelming Democratic victory, the majorities being larger than in 1895 and 1888.

New Jersey Prohibitionists. TRENTON, N. J. May 7.—The State Pro-hibition Convention today nominated Joel Brown, of Jersey City, for Governor.

Measures to Suppress Smallpox. CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., May 7.—All the lumber camps in the northern part of the state will probably be burned down this Summer by order of the State Board of Health. During the past two-Winters many camps have been breeding-places of smallpox, and it is feared that the disease will develop in more deadly form next Winter unless heroic measures are taken for its suppression. But in all fairness it may be said that the great bulk of the criticism and condemnation was absolutely unfair and unwarranted, having originated from personal motives, and been pressed as spliework solely, or because uninformed persons suffered themselves to become the dupes of crafty pension sharks, who were yet not sharp enough to evade our admirable system of pension laws as now ad ministered. It may be said of Commissioner Evans, who presided over this bu reau during those four years, that no fairer man ever held Government officand none enforced the law more justly. It is not to his discredit that he did not allow all pension claims that were presented, for it is a well-known fact that pension frauds are attempted every week, if not every day and many times a day. On the other hand, it is to his credit that he detected these many frauds, and not only disallowed such claims, but debarred from further practice the attorneys who attempted to eagineer them through. There is every reason to be-lieve that every old soldier who filed a claim and furnished the evidence required by law which showed him entitled to a pension, received favorable recognition as Heath, sec-retary of the Republican National Com-mittee, takes occasion to boom Hanna for mittee, takes occasion to boom Hanna for the Presidency, saying "he would be the easiest man to nominate and the easiest man to elect in 1904." Hanna himself says it is all stuff and nonsense, and that he punctured a boom started for him by Sentator Scott, of West Virginia. At the same time it is no doubt pleasing to Hanna to be thus mentioned for the Presidency, but he is shrewd enough a politician to understand that he would not be an ideal candidate.
