New York Stock Exchange Failure. NEW YORK, May 7.-Lewis May & Co., stock brokers, today ansigned for the ben-eft of creditors. The firm is composed of Orrin S. Barnum and Lewis A. May. Taliaferro & Jones, attorneys for Lewis May & Co., estimate the Habilities of the house at between $30,000 and $40-600, and the assets at HA.000 to $30,000. The failure is ascribed to the beavy burfer of paper assumed by the senior partner, Lewis A. May, when he failed in De-cember last for a sum approximating $300-000. A settlement was made with the cred-itors largely in notes, and it was agreed in future transactions with the firm that the creditors might use three-fifths notes, and two-fifths cash. The old firm had a seat on the Consolidated Exchange, but sold it when first embarrased, and was later denied readmission. later denied readmission.

FOOR LITTLE JOHNNYI

AND HIS "TUMMY"!

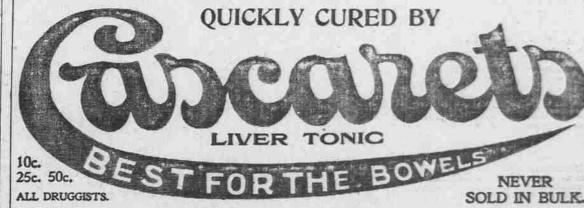

Small boys, and many times large ones, and occasionally girls, too, big and little, suffer terribly from convulsive pains or "cramps" in the bowels and stomachpain so violent that it "doubles up" the ones attacked, and makes it impossible for

Some people call it colic, but most honest, plain-spoken people call it "belly-ache" and very properly, for the seat of the trouble is in the bowels, and caused by the violent efforts of the bowels to rid themselves of something which doesn't belong there. The small boy usually gets it from over-eating or from eating forbidden fruit, and suffers mostly in the summer time. It's spring now, and "in times of peace, prepare for war." Let the boys and girls and the big folks, too, for that matter, clean out the clogged channels filled with winter bile and putrid undigested food, strengthen the 30-feet of bowel canal, liven up the liver, and "summer bellyaches" will have no terrors, because they won't
