Mrs. McKinley's Condition Was Pa vorable, and If It Continues So, the Programme Will Be Carried Out.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13 .- At 10 o'clock Secretary Corteiyou gave the following bulletin to the Associated Press regarding the condition of Mrs. McKinley: the condition of Mrs. McKinley:
"The physicians in attendance report that their patient has passed a more comfortable day than for several days comfortable day than for several days past."

President McKipley expects to carry out in full the programme prepared for his entertainment in San Francisco, but he will probably be obliged to omit from his itinerary some of the smaller places which he was expected to visit. Definite plans for the remainder of his trip cannot be amounted until tomorrow. plans for the remainder of his trip cannot be amounced until tomorrow.

President McKinley returned late this afternoon from San Jose to the bedside of his wife, at the Scott residence, where he will remain until tomorrow. If Mrs. McKinley's condition is still favorable tomorrow, the President will carry out the arranged programme, with some curtailment. He will visit Leland Stanford, Jr., University, at Palo Alto, and make brief stops at San Mateo and Burlingame, At Paio Alto he will be joined by his entire party, and the President's official entry into this city will take place tomorrow afternoon, with the previously arranged schedule.

Secretary Cortelyou has given notice that Mrs. McKinley, should she continue the trip with the President, will not under any circumstances engage in any of the social functions arranged for the party at any place, but that she will emain as quiet as possible during the emainder of the tour.

THE PRESIDENT AT SAN JOSE.

a Brief Visit to the City and Returned to San Francisco. SAN JOSE, Cal., May 13.—Thousands of people between Del Monte and San Jose who have been antidipating a sight of the President for months, were disappointed today. The President's presence in San Jose for an hour this afternoon took the edge off of the disappointment here, where a rose carnival was being held in his honor, and where the floral display sur-passed anything ever before seen in this part of the country.

After leaving Del Monte this morning the Cabinet carried out the litnerary as originally planned, stopping at Pajaro and Santa Cruz, and visiting the big trees in Santa Cruz, and visiting the big trees in the San Lorenzo Valley; but they had no heart to put into the festivities in the absence of their chief, and the keen regret of the people was written on their countenances. Many expressions of kindly sympathy for Mrs. McKinley were heard at each stopping place. At Santa Cruz, Secretary of State Hay, as the representative of the President, responded to the address of welcome made by the

The President's presence here barely hurt. Francisco in his special car, arriving here just as the Cabinet train pulled into the city from the south. But he only remained for the formal exercises. At 3:30, when they were concluded, he was driven back to the station, and left immediately for San Francisco. At St. James Square opposite the Courthouse, a handsomely decorated stand had been erected, and here the formal exercises took place. The President responded as follows to the Mayor's address of welcome:

"Mr. Mayor, My Fellow-Citizens: We have had many warm and generous greet-ings as we journeyed from the Potomac to the Pacific Slope, but none have been FARNSWORTH-HERALD CO. - 248 Washington. more interesting, more general and mor nemorable than the one which the beople of Santa Clara County and of San J. accord us today. (Great a plause.) observe that I face not only this multi-tude of Americans, but I face the head-quarters of a thousand old Ohioans, who, other fellow-citizens, gave us We are all proud of our states welcome. We are all proud of our states and well we may be, whether we come from the North or whether we come from the South. We are proud of our birth-place and of our state citizenship; but above all we rejoice in the great Nation, the glory of its achievements, in the Flag which represents liberty and law and the Constitution of the Nation that shelters us all. (Applause.) We have seen everything in California; we have eaten of your fruits and your fishes; we have tasted the perfumes of your flowers; we have visited the ancient mission churches, where the altar of religion was first raised and whose chimes have sound-ed through the centuries their message of hope and benediction; we have heard the dashing waves of your ocean; we have felt the sunshine—and we have been tanned somewhat by its rays (laughter); but we have all the time felt the warm touch of your hearts. We saw at Red lands the other day that they sprinkled their streets with oil, and we discovered the next day that they bored for it at Los Angeles and got it. (Laughter.) Really, there is nothing that you have not got here. We have met your people— —your brave men and women; we have met the ploneers who builded and founded this state; we have met all kinds of people and wherever we have gone we have seen smiling, happy and contented faces and have heard the cheers of school children from one end of this state to the other.

"Here I am greeted in this the first capital under your constitution—a consti-tution that dedicated the territory of California to liberty and union foreve (great applause); whose people asked and were admitted into the Union of states and received the protection of the Fed-eral Constitution, and from that hour until now the people of California have been loyal to the Government and to its every interest. (Enthusiastic applause.) In peace or in war you have been faith-ful. We live, my fellow-citizens, under a Constitution taht was made for four millions of people, and yet it has proved quite adequate for seventy-five millions of people. (Applause.) It has embraced within it every National duty and pur-pose and has never stood in the way of our development and expansion. That instrument seems almost to have been inspired to carry forward the holy mis-sion of liberty. It seems not to have been made alone for those who framed it and their successors, but for all ages and for all mankind. We have lived under it for 125 years, in storm and in sunshine, in war within and war without, amidst the passions and tumult, and after a century and a quarter that great instrument stands unsulled by a single lapse of principle. (Applause.) To us, my fellow-citiens, young and old, the preservation of that Constitution is committed. It is a sacred instrument and it is a sacred trust given to us to see that it is preserved in all its virtues and vigor to be passed along to the generations yet to come. Glorious Constitution! Glorious Union! Glorious Fiag! Seventy-five millions of people stand together as they have never stood before to defend them all." (Enthusiastic applause.)

Immediately in the rear of the stand was the big bouquet of which so much has been heard. It was 30 feet in circumferance, and stood in its frame 25 feet high. The stem was a telegraph pole sunk in the ground. It was of cut flowers of every variety that blooms. The idea Philippine Army to Be Reduced 25,000 Men.
