

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

SOME DEPOSITORS "OUT OF IT."—Depositors of the Portland Savings Bank are coming in for their dividends. The time in which claims which have not heretofore been presented could be brought in expired yesterday. There are about a thousand such claims, most of them small. The amount represented by them will go to swell the final dividend, but will not swell it so much as to hurt anybody. On Receiver Nixon's table are quite a number of claims. Behind the dividends are due, about the same number on which two dividends are due, and a lot on which only the last dividend is due. Whether these dividends are paid, Receiver Nixon will begin figuring up his final dividend. Those who have never presented their claims up to a time "out of it" altogether were ordered that a final dividend may be made and the whole business brought to an end. It is necessary that the receiver should know the names of claimants there are to divide the money among. Those who have never put in an appearance will not be counted, according to the order of the court.

FOUR CASES OF CONTAGIOUS.—Four cases of smallpox were reported to City Physician Zan yesterday. W. H. Dyer, of Kalama, called at the physician's office, stating that he was suffering from smallpox. It was raining at the time, and as he had an umbrella he was ordered to take it to the house. For one-half hour he stood outside Second and Oak streets with a crowd of people gazing at him, and ultimately he was driven away. The second patient is a boy named Ivanson, living on Penney street, and Dr. Zan decided that the boy, who has been sick a week, will be quarantined in his home. A woman became sick in a physician's office at Third and Morrison streets, and it was discovered she had smallpox, and she was moved to the pest house. The fourth patient is a woman living in a lodging house near the Terminal depot, and Dr. Zan ordered the place quarantined until an examination may be made in the case.

INCORPORATIONS.—Articles of Incorporation of the Bushby Flat Placer Mining Company were filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday. The incorporators are F. C. Barnes, R. C. Scott, James B. Upton, Jay H. Upton and P. A. Jones; capital stock, $25,000. The claims are located on Eugene and on the Clifton. The Clifton Combined Show Company by Isaac W. Baird, Richard Clifton and W. K. Jackson; capital stock, $10,000. The purpose of the company is to organize, manage and conduct a show business, including what are known as Oriental and Midway entertainments, minstrel, side shows, etc. BARROOM.—FRACAS.—Alf Bazler, bartender at the Cosmopolitan saloon on Third street, was in the Municipal Court, yesterday, charged with having assaulted two customers, J. B. Green and J. B. Green. The latter bore evidence that they had received a severe beating. Bazler testified he had been struck and kicked on the back and head. Bazler is a barber on a Pullman car, because he would not treat the crowd to beer. Bazler testified that he had been a pugilist in Australia, and once fought a man named Fred in ejecting Bazler. Bazler was fined $6, and gave notice of appeal to the Circuit Court.

PARENTS' MEETING.—The first of a series of parents' meetings will be held this evening at 7:45 at the W. C. T. U. headquarters, 107 1/2 Third street. An address on the "Moral Training of Children" will be given by Mrs. E. J. Green, of Palo Alto, California. Mrs. Green is a teacher, along the line of child culture, having a national reputation, and formerly held the position of superintendent of the kindergarten department of the National W. C. T. U., and is a forcible, pleasing speaker. Every one interested in childhood is cordially invited.

FEW PERFECT ROSES YET.—Roses are coming out everywhere, but the cool, showery weather is not favorable for producing really fine ones. Many do not develop perfectly, and some complain that their Marechal Niel buds are decaying inside. Climbing roses are doing better than others. A "Glenwood" plant in Fred Matthews' house has hundreds of blooms—many more than a thousand on it—while in his score of other rose bushes only a dozen or two of blossoms have yet appeared.

INDIAN WAR VETERANS.—The regular semi-annual meeting of Multnomah Camp, No. 2, Indian War Veterans, will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the City Hall. Officers will be elected to fill vacancies for the remainder of the year, and delegates will be elected to the grand encampment, which meeting will be on June 13 next. Other important business will be brought before the meeting. Every veteran is urged to attend the meeting.

BRACING A BRIDGE.—Foreman Richmond, of the Morrison street bridge, has a large force of men at work under the western approach, bracing up the deck with new material. The old timbers are being replaced with new timbers, and the work on the piling below, which was overhauled a few years ago, and is still sound. After the supports have been attended to, the deck will be newly planked. Multnomah County is paying for the work.

THE RUMMAGE SALE.—Conducted by the ladies of St. Matthew's Church, at 113 Third street, will be open every afternoon from 1 P. M. to 5 P. M., and Friday and Saturday evenings until 10 P. M. Donations will be received from 3 P. M. until 5 P. M. Men's clothing, including hats, ties and shoes are in demand, also odds and ends of crockery and glassware. Telephone number has been changed to North 3911.

FELL FIFTEEN FEET.—While John Geiser, 15 years old, was playing on top of a store on Sixth street, near the Terminal depot, last night, he missed his footing and fell to the sidewalk a distance of about 15 feet. He was unconscious when picked up, and was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital, and is expected to recover.

ST. LAURENCE BAZAAR.—At St. Laurence Bazaar, Third and Washington streets, an interesting programme will be rendered this evening. The programme includes Miss Ida Jennings, Messrs. Hennessy, Fred Jones, Frank Tillman and others. Commences at 8 P. M.

AMERICAN WILL FIND NO PROBABLY OF VESTIBULES ON THE GROUNDS, BUT "PROPTILES," and no grand entrances, but "pylons" and "propylons." He will look in vain for the athletic field disguised under the sounding name of "stadium." The colonnades are "pergolas," the central spaces "plazas" and "aplanadas," and the main thoroughfares "mail."

OVERWORKED THE WIRE. Sow Patients at the Pesthouse Wish They Hadn't. The hospital for persons suffering from contagious and infectious diseases, commonly called the pesthouse, is located on one corner of the County Poor Farm, about a quarter of a mile from the County Hospital. It was necessary that the pesthouse be equipped with a telephone, and the County Commissioners allowed this to be connected with the wire to the County Hospital. Lately there has been a pretty constant succession of patients coming from the pesthouse to the pesthouse, and a number of them belong in this city. They found it rather lonely being cooped up where their friends and acquaintances could not visit them, and they flew to the telephone for relief. One after another would take his turn at the phone, and they kept the wire hot about all day.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT TO KILLINGSWORTH. Seneca Smith offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That the account of W. M. Killingsworth, financial agent of the Board of Trade for the preceding year, be approved and allowed, and that a warrant be drawn for the amount due him, as shown by his said account, and that the thanks of this board be extended to Mr. Killingsworth for his efficient and faithful service. The per capita tax of members of the board was placed at 25 cents a month; sub-boards to pay 10 cents per month into the general treasury for each member.

SUITABLY ACKNOWLEDGED. King Formally Thanks Portland for Sympathetic Greeting. HIS BRITANNIC MAJESTY'S CONSUL, Portland, Oregon, May 16, 18 (To the Editor.)—I inclose copy of a dispatch I have received from the Marquis of Lansdowne, and request that you will be good enough to publish it as an expression of the thanks of His Majesty King Edward, to the clergymen and others who, from their pulpits and through the lines of the press, have expressed their sympathy to the king on the occasion of the death of Her Majesty Queen Victoria. I am, Your obedient servant, JAMES LAIDLAW, H. B. M. Consul, Portland, Or., U. S. A.

COMING ATTRACTIONS. Charles Erin Verner. Charles Erin Verner, the Irish comedian and the man whom Dion Boucicault pronounced to be the most perfect delineator of the Irish peasant he had ever seen, will open a week's engagement at Corday's Theater, beginning Sunday evening. Mr. Verner is a remarkable man in many respects. He has traveled more widely than any other actor living or dead, and is not only familiar with every portion of America, but has played in India, China, Japan, South Africa, Australia, Tasmania, New Zealand and throughout the length and breadth of England, Ireland and Scotland. He is simply idolized, and never fails to draw crowded and enthusiastic audiences.

Temple Beth Israel. Dr. Stephen S. Wise will preach this evening on "Sinners Beer and Giant." The last meeting of the season of the Teachers' Class was held May 14, at which an excellent paper on "Moral Training of Children," was read by Isaac Sweet.

ALL TO GO THIS WEEK. Square Piano Selling at Eilers Piano House—Good Ones for Little Money, at $35 or $44 a Month. "I like the tone of this piano, and I like the action," said a lady yesterday, who was looking at one of our square piano bargains, "but such a large piano can never be sold through out the country. She did not know that in moving square pianos the legs are taken off, and that even the largest square piano can be placed wherever an upright piano will go. When she learned of this it did not take her 10 minutes to decide upon buying a fine Chickering square piano, which she secured on payments of $14 a month and $3 a month, and on payments less than ordinary rent. If you want a good piano, come in and let us show you some of these remaining square pianos. Many of them are really fine musical instruments, and at the price, they are willing to sell them, they should be snapped up quickly."

Dr. Samuel Johnson. It is wonderful what coolness and indifference the greater part of mankind feel when war commences. The life of a modern soldier is ill represented by heroic fiction. War has means of destruction more terrible than the cannon, the sword, and the bayonet. Of the thousands and tens of thousands that perished in our late contest with France and Spain, a very small part ever felt the stroke of an enemy; the rest languished in tents, amidst damp and putrefaction, pale, torpid, spiritless and helpless, gasping and groaning, unattended among men, made obdurate by long continuance of hopeless misery, and were at last overwhelmed in pits of heave into the ocean without notice and without remembrance. By innumerable encampments and unwholesome stations, where courage is useless and enterprise impracticable, fleets are silently depopulated and armies slyly melted away. Thus is a people gradually exhausted, for the most part with little effect. The wars of civilized nations make very few changes in the system of empire. The public perceives scarcely any alteration but an increase of debt, and the few individuals who are benefited are not supposed to have the credit of the advantages. If he that shared the dan-

BOARD OF TRADE WANTS HIM FOR MINISTER TO CHINA. Committee Appointed to Secure a Condensed Milk Factory for Portland.

John Barrett, ex-United States Minister to Siam, was given another boost yesterday in his candidacy for Minister Plenipotentiary to the Chinese Empire, by the Portland Board of Trade. President Council appointed a committee consisting of P. E. Beach, Seneca Smith and C. W. Miller, whose duty will be to formulate resolutions endorsing Mr. Barrett for the position, and have them forwarded to the proper authorities at Washington City. The various members of the Board of Trade, in speaking on the matter at the meeting, considered the ex-Minister to Bangkok a young man of ability, who had shown talent for the position to which he had been appointed by President Cleveland, and being a Portland man, his influence at Pekin would naturally be of great interest of the city he has called his home. The committee will take steps immediately to acquaint the Oregon delegation with the wishes of the Portland Board of Trade in the matter.

For a Condensed Milk Factory. The Board of Trade also took action toward the establishment of a condensed milk factory in the vicinity of Portland, and to this end Richard Scott, Joseph W. Bailey and W. R. Cotton were named as a committee to investigate the various methods of milk condensation and the cost of a plant. J. W. Crutcher spoke of a man who was in Portland several months ago, offering to build a condensed milk establishment, but obtaining no encouragement here, went to Kent, on Puget Sound, and there put a plant in operation, which is making money, and has raised the price of milk 100 per cent in that neighborhood. The plant will have to be enlarged shortly in obedience to the growing business, and the merchants of Portland are not offering a cent for condensed milk from him at a time. "The consumption of condensed milk will increase all the time," Mr. Crutcher said. "Even now the past 40 days, our loads a year, and our increasing trade with the Orient will open up a greater market for it than ever." The process of condensing milk is a very simple and inexpensive one, and the vicinity of Portland would be of great benefit to the community.

ELKS TO GIVE CIRCUS. Will Hold It During the First Week in June—Committee Appointed. Portland Lodge, No. 142, of the Elks, decided at its meeting last night to give a circus during the first week in June in connection with Norris, & Dixon's dog and pony show, which will be in Portland at that time. The following committee was appointed to take charge of the affair: Alex. Snek, W. J. Riley, Otto Weintelder, George E. Chamberlain, D. Solis Cohen, Dr. Sanford Whiting, C. E. McDonnell, Paul Kelly, H. D. Griffin and Fred T. Merrill.

IMPORTANT TESTIMONY. To whom it may concern: For more than 30 years I have been a sufferer from sick headache. I have been much troubled with constipation all my life and for more than two years I have been greatly annoyed with a distressing form of diabetes. About two months ago I began drinking "Whittier Medical Springs Water," and have continued its use to the present time. As a result, I have not been afflicted with even such a symptom of sick headache since I commenced using this water. My constipation has disappeared and my bowels move freely. I am no longer harassed with sufferings from diabetes. Prior to beginning the use of this water I had tried nearly all sorts of remedies without avail as to any of the above-named ailments. It therefore affords me pleasure to give these words of testimony as to the merits of the "Whittier Medical Springs Water."

NO PLACE FOR A POOR MAN. Canadian Homeseeker's Low Opinion of California. Robert Meyers, a farmer of Galt, Ontario, who was induced to visit California while the homeseekers' rates were in vogue, has returned to his native land, and has expressed his opinion of California in a letter to his friends. He had been landed at Dixon, Solano County, where he expected to obtain a farm allotment for the asking, but he soon found this was a snare and a delusion. "The whole country is taken up in ranches, embracing thousands of acres," he said, "and the owners would not part with a piece for love or money." It cost him $80 to reach California, but it took about $20 to pay his fare back.

DREDGE NOT ORDERED

PORT OF PORTLAND NOT READY TO SPEND $100,000. President Hughes in Favor of Going Ahead, But Other Commissioners Want Information.

Not even the eloquence of Ellis G. Hughes could persuade the Port of Portland Commission to order a $100,000 dredge yesterday afternoon. Six Commissioners attended the meeting, and four votes were required to carry the project through. All were agreed that the river channels should be kept open, but not that a dredge is needed at this time. The discussion revealed that President Hughes and Commissioners Swigert and Reilly are in favor of building now, while Commissioners Adams, Banfield and Selling are in favor of an investigation to determine what is best to be done. Further consideration of the subject was postponed until a special meeting which will be called next week.

President Hughes' position was that Portland's maritime commerce demands deep channels, and that the second dredge is necessary to protect shipping. The present dredge is not old or worn out, but constant use is rapidly putting it in a condition which will soon call for a long lay-off for repairs. Besides, the machine is likely to break down at any time and leave the city without appliances for deepening the channels. The urgent need of a new dredge, Mr. Hughes said, was recognized by the old board, which went so far as to have drawings made. The old board proposed to issue $150,000 bonds and to use $75,000 for a dredge and $75,000 for dredging. Mr. Hughes said he had constantly opposed a bond issue for a dredge, as on a basis of $150,000 it would add $700 to interest account, and make a proportionate reduction in the operating fund. The best way to pay for a dredge is by direct taxation, as proposed by the law of 1901. The tax can be distributed over two or three years, and the first installment will not be payable until 1903.

Commissioner Adams opposed a dredge for two reasons, because he does not like raising the fund by direct taxation, and because the present dredge, if repaired, he made to last for two or three years. Commissioner Selling thought if the dredge could deepen the channels eight or nine months in the year, repairs could be made in the remaining time. Commissioner Banfield said the question was whether Portland would keep the channels open or compel vessels to lighten between Portland and Astoria. This remark made it appear that Mr. Banfield would vote to go ahead with the dredge, but he shortly afterwards moved to postpone consideration until the effect of the June freshet on the channels can be determined. The discussion that grew out of this suggestion ended in deferring the matter until the next meeting.
