COMMERCIAL FINANCIAL

There was nothing of special interest in the market situation yesterday. The rain held down receipts of produce from nearby points, but there was enough to go round, and in the case of potatoes and cases, more than enough. Both of these commodities have been working toward a lower level, and yesterday if was the top price for the best stock obtainable. THE WOOL MARKET. Consumers Are Still Buying Only for Immediate Needs, BOSTON, May 22.-The American Wool BOSTON, May 22.—The American Wool and Cotton Reporter will say tomorrow:

A number of large mills have been represented in the wool market the past week, and there has been generally more looking around on the part of manufacturers, but the business transacted has consisted mostly of small lots, the aggregate of which, however, makes a fairly good-sized total.

Consumers are still buying only to meet current needs, and as regards prices they current needs, and as regards prices they are buying very carefully. It is impossible for holders to secure any advance in prices and the market, except possibly on fine wools, is in buyers' favor, although 252 Oak st. Telephone Main 96. nne woois, is in buyers favor, although quotations are not noticeably lower than those of a week ago. The new wools are slow in moving in this market. Duplicate orders for heavy-weights are coming forward in greater volume than a week ago. This is helpful and welcome to the manufacturer, and, if continued, may be the reflector of a better demand for wool.
