OUT FOR THE SENATE

Ambition of Representative Jones, of Washington.

REGARDED AS A PEACEMAKER

His Candidacy is Supported by Those Who Want a New Deal in Republican Politics of Washington.

SEATTLE, June 2.—That Representative Wesley L. Jones, of North Yakima, has his lightning rod in the hope that it may attract the United States Senatorship, there seems little doubt. Although politics is somewhat quiet these days, there is persistent talk that Mr. Jones is feeling his way preparatory to entering the race, and this talk is causing considerable uneasiness among the friends of other candidates.

So far as the press and the public are concerned, Mr. Jones has not signified his willingness or desire to stand for the Senate. Neither has any prominent politician heretofore allied with either of the contending factions declared his intention to support him; but among men who have been prominently allied, and those who earnestly desire the success of the Republican party, and who believe that Mr. Jones would be the proper man to harmonize the warring elements, the report that he will be a candidate has been received with great favor.

Of course there has been more or less talk for several months that Mr. Jones would be in the race. Several months ago, when it appeared that the probability of a combination being formed between Senator Foster and Levi Ankeny, strong rumors were set afloat that the "Foster push," headed by Senator Foster, of Tacoma, general counsel for the Northern Pacific Railroad, would have Mr. Jones enter the race.

Another story that is going the rounds is that Mr. Jones is John L. Wilson's candidate, or rather that Wilson is responsible for much of the talk that is being made in Jones' favor. This declaration was made by a prominent politician the other day, who coupled it with the remark that Jones "reports at the P.-L. office whenever he comes to Seattle." This statement is being taken as a belief that Wilson was urging Jones to make the race with the idea of thus dividing the Ankeny forces.

A more rational view of Jones' alleged candidacy, however, is that it is being urged by men who fear that the Ankeny-Wilson factional fight will disrupt the party, and that some middle man must be selected for the senatorship, and Jones the old candidate placed on the ticket. In short it would seem that the Jones sentiment is coming from the rank and file. He is very popular with the party, and it is said by many that he is a man who is fast developing into a good statesman. He is the candidate of those who desire a new deal all around. Jones has been fairly neutral in previous fights, and considerable enthusiasm could be aroused for him.

Some of his enthusiastic admirers are advocating his endorsement for the senatorship by state convention. There is small probability of this, however. Ankeny and Wilson would combine against it, and the result of such an attempt would probably be not only Jones' failure to get the nomination, but his turning down for the Congressional nomination as well. The fact of his candidacy, however, affords an interesting subject for speculation, and the names of Jones, lacking, as it is in having a machine behind it, threatens to make a formidable factor in the fight which everybody in Washington admits is going to be the hardest the state has ever experienced.

SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH.

Rockefeller Institute Will Begin by Investigating Milk Supply.

NEW YORK, June 2.—The Herald will say tomorrow: "Within a comparatively few days the work on behalf of science and humanity which the newly incorporated Rockefeller Institute of Medical Research is to carry on will be started in the pathological progress of the names of the various diseases. Indications are that the $200,000 which Mr. Rockefeller has given as the capital of the new institute is a trifling sum compared to what he contemplates giving ultimately to the cause. The work will be done at Columbia University, Harvard University, the University of Chicago, the University of Michigan, the University of Pennsylvania, Johns Hopkins University, McGill University of Montreal, and the headquarters of the New York Health Department. The directors of the new Rockefeller Institute will have supervision over it, but it will be performed by physicians whom they will employ, and who will work more or less independently in the different places mentioned."

"The heads of the various laboratories will have general charge of the investigation, whether they happen to be directors of the institute or not. Periodically the directors, whose joint judgment will be the sole regulator of the expenditure of the $200,000 provided, will meet to discuss the result of the work, and will jointly give out the information which it may have developed. The work may go on for a year or two before definite

FIRE RAGED TEN DAYS.

Over Seventy People Burned to Death on the Isthmus of Tehantepec. OAXACA, Mexico, June 2.—Further details of the great fire which raged on the Isthmus of Tehantepec for several days have been received here. Over 70 people were unable to escape the rapid progress of the flames, and were burned to death. The fire started on a coffee plantation, and owing to the dryness of the vegetation it was soon beyond control. It wrought great destruction to growing crops. Many thousands of acres of coffee trees, bananas, orange trees and other tropical products were destroyed. Those who met death in the flames were all families of plantation laborers, who, being unable to escape the flames, perished in their huts. The fire burned for 10 days and was finally quenched by a heavy tropical rain.

JAMES HERNE DEAD

acute bronchitis and pneumonia, after an illness of eight weeks. Mr. Herne was taken ill in Chicago while playing in "Sag Harbor" a play of his own composition. It had been supposed for some days that he was improving, but Saturday night there was a change for the worse, which resulted fatally. At his bedside when he passed away were Mrs. Herne, his three daughters and his 5-year-old son. Mr. Herne was born in Troy, N. Y., February 1838. He had a beautiful home in this city and was accounted wealthy. The body will be cremated. It has not yet been decided when the funeral will be held.

(James A. Herne began his stage career in New York 40 years ago, and his life was a busy one up to the beginning of the present season, when he was compelled to withdraw from "Sag Harbor" on account of the illness which proved his last. Always a good actor, he soon found that his faithful interpretation of characters as they really are was appreciated, and he became the apostle of a realism which has done much to uplift the stage. He was a realist in all that he did, and he was a realist in his private life. He was a realist in his private life. He was a realist in his private life. He was a realist in his private life.

BUTTE AGAIN SLIDING.

The Strange Phenomenon Causes Alarm Among the Citizens. BUTTE, Mont., June 2.—The strange sliding movement of the City of Butte which has been noticeable at intervals for several years is again making itself felt in different sections of the city. The largest crevice occurred on West Grand street, where the cracks have wide and of considerable length and depth has appeared. Three of the openings occur on the west side of town and two on the east side. There is no carving, but a distinct parting of the earth, and the granite walls can easily be seen in them. The gas and water companies have much trouble on account of the strange movement, which frequently breaks their underground pipes. City Engineer Rickenbach says the engineering department of the city encounters the same trouble, and for several years has been marking certain parts of the city are constantly changing. This is particularly true of the section west of Main street and north of Broadway, where the marks have been known to shift to the extent of a foot in a very short space of time. The continuance of the strange phenomenon is beginning to cause some alarm among the citizens of Butte.

HER CASE CRITICAL

Mrs. McKinley's Condition Causes Much Concern.

DOES NOT GAIN IN STRENGTH

She Has Become So Weak That It is Feared That She May Lose Her Rallying Power.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Mrs. McKinley continues very weak. Her condition is not greatly changed from that of yesterday, but each day that elapses without a gain in strength lessens her power of recuperation. The complaint which came near ending her life in San Francisco is still present. It is in a slightly less aggravated form, but gives the physicians at the President much concern. Mrs. McKinley has shown remarkable vitality, but her illness has so reduced her strength as to leave her very feeble indeed. It is feared that unless a change for the better soon manifests itself, her strength may become so near exhausted as to leave her without rallying power.

The news given by the physicians in attendance today was not reassuring, though hope of better things still continues. After a consultation between the doctors the following bulletin was issued: "Mrs. McKinley spent most of the day at the bedside of her wife, though late in the afternoon he went out for an hour's drive. He departed alone, but met Judge Watson, of Ohio, an old friend on the way, and the latter accompanied him to the White House. Mrs. McKinley and Sternberg both were in attendance at the White House during the evening, although the latter did not remain very long. Dr. Rixey was at the mansion for over two hours and when he left for the night, shortly before 11 o'clock, he announced that at that time Mrs. McKinley was resting comfortably, as she had done all the afternoon. Senator Elkins called on the President during the evening and was with him for about 15 minutes.

M'Laurin's Intentions.

He Will Send the Governor His Resignation About Next December.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., June 2.—A special to the Observer from Bennettsville, S. C., to the home of Senator M'Laurin, says there are good reasons for believing that M'Laurin will resign his seat in the Senate. M'Laurin will resign and request Governor McSwain to appoint his successor. Should the Senator resign, it is understood that he would expect the Governor to appoint a man representing the same political views of Bryan and Tillman and the Senator would favor the nomination of M'Laurin, or anyone else, Mr. M'Laurin says that Mr. Bryan and Mr. Tillman both opposed true Democracy and advocated Populism and Communism. The earnestness with which the fight is to be carried on may be judged from the announcement that a daily morning paper will be established at Columbia, with a South Carolinian now residing in Richmond, Va., as editor.

Annie L. Diggs Prophesies.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 2.—Mrs. Annie L. Diggs, the prophetess of the People's party of Kansas, has prepared an interview in which she deals with the question of fusion of the Populist and Democratic forces. She says: "The strength of the People's party never did lie in its party organization. Indeed, one of its minor impulses was a protest against the dangers and the tyranny of permanent party organizations. The foolishness of the fusion party name prevent the political co-operation of people who believe alike. But whatever comes or does not come next year or may happen the few years after that, the intelligence of the American voters is growing. Tom L. Johnson will be the next President."
