Working together for the common good of all mankind, we may keep open the door for trade, we may spread civilization, we may protect the oppressed, and we may establish peace among the nations." There was a murmur of expectancy as Lord Lansdowne, the Foreign Secretary, rose to toast President McKinley. he said, "that this honor-'I imagine," able duty has been assigned to me be-cause I am connected with-the Department of Foreign Affairs, and because it may be that a toast, coming from my llps, may seem to denote something more than a mere private expression of admi-ration and good will. I think I may say that to all the subjects of His Majesty, it equires an effort to think of our relations with the United States as foreign relations. (Prolonged cheers.) All these, ike myself, are servants of the public, and feel that they hold an unwritter sion that no pains shall be spared to maintain the most friendly relations With regard to President McKinley, we think of the great office he fills, and in addition to his public cares, we remember the burden of private anxiety he has to bear, and it is the prayer of our whole country that his wife may be restored to health, and that he may continue to he to the whole world a potent influence for the good of the human race."

SALT LARE, June 5.- The wedding of Miss Emily Kats, ex-society editor of the Salt Lake Herald, and Governor Heber M. Wells, of Utah, took place this even-ing at the home of the bride's mother, 1328 East South Temple street, in the presence of about 100 relatives and immediate friends of the bride and groom. The cere-mony was performed by Bishop O. F. Whitney, in accordance with the religious ritual of the Mormon church, and was exceedingly beautiful and impressive. The ceremony took place in the receptroom, which was a perfect mass of the took place in the reception and flowers, white marguerites and the sago llly, the state flower of Utah, pre-dominating. The bride wore a gown of white bolting cloth over chiffon and taffeta, trimmed in bands of white taffeta. The veil was fastened with a large crescent of pearls and diamonds, the gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The bride was given away by her brother, Alms Katz, Miss Jose phine Katz acting as bridesmaid. General Charles S. Burton, of Governor Well's staff, acted as best man. The ceremony, which took place at 7 o'clock, was followed by a reception. The big lawn of the Katz residence WAS walled in with canvas and lighted by scores of incandescent lights and here and in the flower bedecked house the Governor and his bride received con-gratulations until 11:30 P. M., when they took a special train for Ogden. Tomor-row Governor and Mrs. Wells will take the Union Pacific overland limited for a six weeks' bridal tour of the East, Chicago will be the first stop. New York, Boston, Washington and Philadelphia will be included in the itinerary, the return trip being made via Buffalo, Niagara trip being made via Buffi Falls and the Great Lakes.

The occasion was the annual dinner of the Hardwicks Society.

BUTCHERS MAY STRIKE.

Amalgamated Association Has Trouble With Swift & Co.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 5 .- The executive council of the Amalgamated Butcher Workmen has been called together at Chicago by International President O'Donnell, because of grievances against e Swift Bros'. Packing Company, Chicago and Omaha, and there is the thought to be danger of a strike being ordered, involving all of the employes of the company throughout the country. Some days ago it was reported to the In-ternational officials that the company was discharging union employes. Third International Vice-President Sheehan was ordered to Chicago to make an investi-gation and he notified the headquarters in this city that the foreman making the discharges had been removed by the company and that the men had been rein-stated. Subsequent events, the labor peo-ple say, showed that this was not so. The international union now numbers 25,000, of whom more than 4000 are employed by Swift & Co.

Cuptinuous Scale Favored.

MILWAUKEE, June 5.-The Amalga-mated Association of Iron, Steel and Tinworkers' convention adopted by a viva voce vote today the recommendation contained in the wage committee's report for a continuous scale. The deta of the plan remain to be considered.

Mr. Jessup, president of the New York Chamber of Commerce, replying to the address of welcome, spoke in part as fol-"It is said that kind words are the mu ic of the world. For the gracious and kindly words with which you have made us welcome and for the generous warmth of our reception manifested in every eye and felt in the clasp of every hand, it is my privilege to express the thanks of the New York Chamber of Commerce, especially of my associates here present as your guests, at this memorable banquet. It was a happy inspiration that dictated your kind invitation, and I assure you that it was accepted in the same spirit, and if our coming together at this time served to bind in closer ties the relations between the two nations, our hopes and expectations will be fulfilled, and we shall ount it a high privilege to have been here." Mr. Jessup then reviewed the founding of the New York Chamber of Commerce, and said:

"We don't forget how you instilled into our minds habits of industry, thrift and fair dealing, so that now, in the dawn of the Twentieth Century, we are able to state with some pride that the business relations between the two countries amount to the astounding sum of over We don't forget $960,000,000 yearly. you have, during the past 130 years, alded us to produce this result, primarily by the inculcation through your example of these principles of justice, religion and law which we have imbibed from you at the foundation of all commercial transactions, and, secondarily, by the free loaning of capital to enable us to make use of our great resources, develop our mines, build our railroads and extend our commerce. We don't forget the kindness shown us in times of financial distress, notably in 1837, when specie payments were susp ed, business was at a standstill and our people disheartened, when one of our hon-ored citizens and princely merchants (af-terwards a President of our Chamber).

Decision Under the Copyright Law

CHICAGO, June 5.-A decision, which is novel under the copyright law, was announced by Judge Kohisaat, in the United States Circuit Court here today. The court holds that the act of a sub-scriber in using a copyright story without notice of the copyright owned by the company which had leased, does give another company the right to appropriate the story for its own use. In deciding this point of law, Judge Kohlsaat denied the injunction asked by the American Press Association to restrain the Daily Story Publishing Company from suing customers of the American Press Associa tion who had used a story used by the Daily Story Publishing Company.

VIENNA, June 5 .- Die Infermation says: "The pope is willing to meet the desire of the United States and accredit a repre-sentative of the Holy See." wick, Sir Edwin Carwick, the Solicitor-General; Sir Robert Findlay, the Actorney-General; Sir Francis Juene, president of the probate, divorce and admirally divisions; Lord Morris, Sir Edward Clarke, and other prominent men, taking care to refer to M. Labori as the representative of the bar of a great friendly nation, praised his splendid courage, indomitable persistence and valuable services to the cause of justice.

Overcome with emotion, Maitre Labori wiped the tears from his eyes. Mme Labori, who is an English woman, and who sat in the gallery amid 100 of her kinswomen, was no less affected as she heard her husband honored in such an exceptional manner. For nearly five minutes a deafening din made M. Labori quite inaudible. Handkerchiefs were waved wildly, and "He's a Jolly Good Fellow" was sung. Then, with marvelous control of English, he modestly, yet thrillingly, told how grateful he was for such a reception. Every period was wildly applauded, and his splendid peroration, which was delivered in his native French, was followed by scenes of enthusiasm, such as have seldom been witnessed at a banquet in this country. After the formal ceremonies were concluded he was literally mobbed by admirers.
