Rice surrendered, Today Rice and Rutledge were sentenced to 21 years' imprisonment in Kingston penitentiary Rutledge was being taken to dinnet with another prisoner in charge of one of the guards, about 3 o'clock. Suddenly he made a dash, and springing up the stairway, mounted to the gallery running around inside the jall, 30 feet from the floor. Climbing the railing, he fell head foremost on the stone floor, fracturing his skull. He was immediately taken to the hospital, where he died without re-gaining consciousness.

STRICKEN IN COURT.

Dr. Unger's Lawyer Paralysed While Addressing the Jury.

CHICAGO, June 7.-John J. McDonald, chief counsel for Dr. August M. Unger, the principal defendant in the Defendach insurance swindling case, while address-ing the jury today in Judge Tuley's without a word of warr court. denly fell forward on the bar and lapsed into a state of unconsciousness. It was feared for a time the attack might prove fatal to the young lawyer and ex-Judge and Congressman, but Unger, the prison-er, after an hour's work, finally succeeded in reviving McDonald. The stroke that laid away the counsellor followed a passionate declaration charging Francis Wayland Brown and Frank H. Smiley with being equally guilty with ollen if the latter was not absolved from all

"Just as the conspiracy trial of Dr. Unger, Wayland Brown and Frank Smiley is drawing to a close and the lawyers" arguments are being made, John Weick, ler, the ex-deputy Coroner who conducted what the prosecution has characterized as a 'fake inquest' over the body of Marie Defenbach, has been located not far from Chicago, and will be produced later in court if possible. Judge Tuley, the trial jurist, has been anxious to secure Weick-ler and ask him about those 'six empty chairs' that are said to have served as a jusy in the inquest. The state's infer-ence, of course, would be that had Marie Defenbach died a natural death there would have been no necessity for a 'fake' inquest. It is not known what steps will be taken to bring Weickler back, and he may not return in time for the present trial, which will go to the jury tomor-

PIEDMONT, Wyo. June 1.-Mesger re ports have been received of a shooting at fray about 20 miles cast of here. From what can be learned, several ranchmen and cowbrys went to the camp of some sheepherders and told them they would have to get out of that country, but the herders resolved not to comply with the request, and were immediately shot by the ranchers. One of the herders was shot in the arm and another in the foot. Af-ter doing this the attacking party shot all the horses, killed several head of sheep and burned the wagons. The ranchmen and cowboys are under arrest.
