

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

STATE MEETINGS HERE THIS WEEK. Oregon Homopathic Medical Society—Monday and Tuesday. Grand Chapter of Eastern Star—Monday and Tuesday.

AMUSEMENTS. CORDEY'S THEATER—Ten Nights in a Barroom. ALL OF THEM LIGHT CASES.—The addition to the hospital for persons afflicted with contagious diseases is completed, and as soon as a stove has been placed in each ward, it will be occupied.

MORE HOPEFUL VIEW.—Now that the water in the Columbia is falling rapidly, fishermen on the lower river are looking for a boom in the arrival of a new run in salmon from the ocean, and perhaps more so, although there have been plenty of the latter already for all practical purposes.

FOUND DEAD.—Charles Allen, a contractor from Prairie City, was found dead in his room at the New Grand Central Hotel, 23 Third street, last night, probably from paralysis of the heart, due to alcoholism.

THE ORIGINAL "ICE MAN."—George M. Kallich, whose horse has run away in this city twice of late without injuring him, and who has been described as a "well-known farmer of Columbia Slough," probably has a good claim to that title, as about 20 years ago he bought the Shepherd place out near Columbia Slough, and has resided there ever since.

ROSES, FINEST IN THE WORLD.—Rose bushes are at last beginning to put forth perfect buds and mature as fine roses as can be produced. The hearts of rose-growers are rejoicing, and many of the best and large bouquets of roses were gathered and sent to their friends yesterday.

MAKING CLOSER CONNECTION.—License Officer McEachern and his deputy, Phil Rogaway, have been doing their best this quarter to get delinquent licenses squared up and the license business handed by preparing a list of all who are liable to occupation or other license.

ON PAGE 12 of this issue of The Oregonian is shown a cut of the new money, C. Stratton & Co. building, 7 and 9 Waverly place, New York. This is one of the most famous suit and cloak establishments in the United States, and a view of the interior is one of the most interesting sights in a metropolis noted for great enterprises.

SCHOOL OF COOKERY CLOSED.—The School of Cookery, which has been so successfully carried on for the past five months by the home department of the Woman's Club, at 3624 Third street, will close this week. There will be two meetings, one this evening, when the regular class will be held, and another on Wednesday, June 12, the home department will tender a social evening to all members of the school.

EX-POSTMASTER FINED.—Charles M. Hill, formerly postmaster at Belknap Springs, who was found guilty by a jury in the United States Court, a few days ago, of fraudulently increasing the amount of stamps canceled at his office, in order to increase his salary, and who was sentenced to apply for a new trial, was granted that it was not worth while to have one, and yesterday was sentenced by Judge Bellinger to pay a fine of $100.

LECTURE ON ALASKA.—Rev. M. D. McClelland will give a lecture on "Alaska," at the Fourth Presbyterian Church, this evening. The lecture will be illustrated by stereoscopic views. No admittance fee.

HOWELL'S laughable farce, "The Elevator," at Arion Hall, Thursday, June 13, 8 P. M. by Mrs. M. D. Daughter, Trinity Street. Tickets 25c and 50c; on Woodard & Clarke's.

FOR CITY BICYCLE PATHS.—At the meeting of the Bicycle Taxpayers' Council, last evening, it was decided to press the construction of city bicycle paths. To further this end, the following committee was appointed: Messrs. E. C. Brown, C. E. Stummel and E. B. McFarland, to appear before the meeting of the County Commissioners, Wednesday morning, and to urge that construction be begun immediately upon two city paths.

THE FREDERICKSBURG. An almost entirely new bill greets the patrons of the Fredericksburg this week. Sisters Prince, the clever little Spanish song and dance artists, met a rousing reception last night. Their songs are new and catching, and their dancing was so good as to bring out hearty recalls.

WHERE TO DINE TODAY. The best the market affords and a constant aim to please its patrons characterizes the Portland restaurant, 206 Wash. For home-like cooking go to E. House's Cafe, 123 Third street; he only buys the best; fresh eggs, milk and cream from his own ranch daily.

SUNDAY EXCURSIONS. Every Sunday during the summer season the O. R. & N. Co. will sell round-trip tickets Portland to Bonneville at rate of $1.00. Trains leave Union Depot 9 A. M., returning leave Bonneville 3:30 P. M., arriving Portland at 4:30. This convenient schedule allows five hours at Bonneville. Tickets on sale Saturdays at O. R. & N. ticket office, Third and Washington, and on Sunday mornings at Union Depot.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE. At a special meeting of the Exempt Firemen's Association, held in their rooms, City Hall, June 10th, the following resolutions of sympathy were unanimously adopted: Whereas, An all-wise God has seen fit to remove from our midst three fellow-members of our association and members of the board of trustees, the Christian gentlemen and men whose abilities made them peers among their fellow-men, and whereas, in the death of Mr. T. B. Trevett, Mr. W. B. Jones and Mr. E. J. Dougherty, the Exempt Firemen's Association has lost three of its most ardent and enthusiastic members; be it

COMING ATTRACTIONS. "Through by Daylight" at Cordey's Tonight. "Through by Daylight," a stirring melodrama, the scene of which is laid in New York, will be given by the James Ward company tonight and tomorrow night. The play is said to be full of heart interest and is elaborately mounted. It was given with great success in Seattle, and it is expected that it will draw crowds here, as the engagement is limited to two nights only.

BRIGHT FARCE AND DANCE. Rehearsals for Howell's "Elevator," the bright farce to be given by the King's Daughters Thursday, June 13, at Arion Hall—are progressing with great success. Mr. Fred Gilmore being the coach. Everybody who enjoys a good laugh—and everybody does not—will find the play as full of

BRIGHT DOGS AND PONIES

NORRIS & ROWE'S BIG SHOW DRAWS CROWDS. Finely Trained Animals Please Young and Old Alike—New Features.

Norris & Rowe's dog and pony show, grown almost to the proportions of a three-ring circus, opened a week's engagement in Portland yesterday to a big matinee, and was witnessed last night by a crowd that taxed the ample seating capacity of the big tent. And, although shortly after the evening performance opened the rains descended and the floods came and beat upon the tent, the audience sat beneath its sharp-pitched roof as dry as if they had been beside their own hearthstones.
