CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Amusements.

MARQUAM GRAND-Gavin Spence and Flora MacDonald, Soutch entertainers, under the auspices Clan Macleay, No. 122, St. Andrew Society, Caledonia Society. CORDRAY'S THEATER-"Through by Day-

TROUT EXHIBIT FOR BUFFALO,-The Fish and Game Association of this city is anxious to secure fine specimens of each of the various species of trout inhabiting the waters of this state to be placed on view in the Oregon exhibit at the Buffalo Exposition. Only a dozen or so of each process. Bolly, Verden exhibits. Dolly Varden, rainbow, cut-etc., are required, and perhaps it species, Dolly might be possible to procure some spe-cimens of the Eastern brook trout, plant-ed here some time ago. Secretary Geb-hardt, of the Flah and Game Association, is in correspondence with several persons in regard to securing the desired specimens, and hopes that all sportsmen will take an interest in the matter and, if possible, aid in the successful carrying out of the scheme. It ought to be easy to send an exhibit of Oregon trout to the Buffalo Exposition which would as far surpass the trout of other states as do the Oregon agricultural, horticultural, mineral and forestry exhibits surpass similar exhibits from other states. A 10-pound Dolly Varden trout could and some of the hig six and eight-pound trout from Williamson River would give Eastern sportsmen a good idea of the trout-fishing

VANDALISM ON RIVERSIDE DRIVE,-HOOK lums and junk thieves have been playing smash with the water tanks erect-ed along the White House road to furnish water to the wagons which sprinkle the road during the dusty season. The tanks have been riddled by pistol shots, some of them having a score or more holes in them. The trestles supporting the pipes for conveying water to the tanks have been torn down and the pipe stolen, and even the blocks, faucets and other plumbers' work inside the tanks have been broken loose and carried off. The Driving Association has had to pur chase 800 feet of two-inch galvanized iron pipe to repair the tanks. The only pos-sible excuse for this vandalism and thievery is that the perpetators may have con-cluded, with some show of reason, that there would be no necessity for sprinkling the road this season, but no such excus-will go down with the Driving Association, which will use every means to have the culprits arrested and punished.

FARMING MORE PROPITABLE THAN POLI-TICS.—Hon, George J. Currins, who was a Representative from Clackamas County in the Legislature of 1891, but for the past two years has been located near Ione, in Morrow County, was in Portland yester-day, on his way to visit his mother, who still resides at Currinsville, Clackamas County. Since he was in the Legis-lature he has kept out of politics and attended strictly to farming. He now has 2000 acres in grain within three and one-half miles of lone, and is doing well with it. He has 300 acres of barley and 160 acres of rye, which will be ready for the harvester in about 10 days. The rest of his ranch is in wheat, about equally divided between sown and volunteer crops The outlook is very promising, both for a larger yield and for higher prices than last year, and last year he made $5000 on the ranch. Mr. Curring still retains his terests in Clackamas County.

WILL SLAUGHTER 25,000 HORSES.-The ughtering of horses and the salting of their flesh for export will be resumed at the Linnton abattoir in a day or two, S. Kinsman, the proprietor, has purchased 25,000 horses on the ranges of Eastern Oregon and has been waiting for the river to fall so as to leave his corrais dry. The water has now gone down sufficient-ly and the first installment of horses will arrive today or tomorrow and slaughtering will be commenced at once. The horses are in prime condition, and as they have never been worked they will make unusually fine "beef" for export, and the consumers will form a high opinion of the quality of Oregon horses, as an article of diet. The abattoir will be run continuously till the whole 25,000 are

ENGINE-HOUSES GOING TO RUIN .-- If the Common Council does not soon devise some method for providing the money asked for by the Board of Fire Cmmissioners to put engine-houses in order, The house of engine company No. I, at Washington and Sixteenth streets, is slowly but surely settling below grade, and the water from the street now runs in at the doors. The engine, while being started for a fire a day of two ago, broke through the floor and caused a sen-sation among the boys. Some of the other engine-houses are in about as bad

WORLD'S FINEST STRAWBERRIES .- The cool showers appear to be favorable to the growth of strawberries, judging from the quantities of remarkably fine ones with which the market is supplied. Yesterday fine berries were selling at 5 boxes for Z cents, and the finest Magoons at four boxes for Z cents. There is enough sunshine to ripen the berries, and enough rain to make them grow to a large size, and without doubt the strawberries now being supplied to the people of Portland cannot be equaled anywhere in the United States or anywhere else.

THREE PRISONERS ESCAPE.

Found City Jail Irksome and Yearned for Rain Again.

Elmer Kelly, William Dailey and Will iam Ludwig three prisoners under arrest at the City Jail, became dissatisfied with the quietude and security of the main cell early yesterday morning, escaped from the jail and walked away in the midst of a heavy rain. Kelly was charged with the larceny of a cow, Dalley was charged with being a morphine-user, and Ludwig was detained as a witness against anoth er prisoner who is charged with the lar-ceny of a cow. The three men have only recently been arrested, and Kelly and Dalley were to have had hearings before Municipal Judge Cameron today. Ludwig was about to appear before the grand jury.

Without doubt some recent visitor to the jail must have passed a screwdriver to some prisoner, and thus helped the trio to escape. Night Jailer Crate found the prisoners secure under lock and key Monday night about 9 o'clock, but shortly after midnight it was discovered that Kelly, Ludwig and Dalley were gone. Some one with a screwdriver had unfastened the screw bolts that held the ends of an iron bar on a door leading from the jall to the Municipal Court. Immediately the main door of the jail. Once in the Municipal Court, however, it was easy to force the courtroom door and walk own stairs to Oak street.

"The three prisoners will be *aught without delay," said a police official, philosophically. "They can't leave the city. Every avenue is watched. Bill Dalley cannot want morphine very long. We know his haunts."

ROBBING BIRDS' NESTS.

School Children Fined $15 for Gathering Mendow-Lark Eggs.

Robbing birds' nests, for the future, will ot be a popular amusement among ortland school children. At the meeting the John Burroughs Society last nigh in the Unitarian Chapel, the president, Mr. Wilson, gave an account of the ar-rest by Game Warden Quimby of some children from one of the East Side public schools for gathering eggs from the nests of meadow larks. Mr. Wilson had been requested by Mr. Quimby to be present at the trial last Saturday to assist in the prosecution. It seems that the teacher-who was present and heard the testimony, but refused to take the stand -had encouraged the children to collect eggs. One boy of 13 confessed that he had 15 different varieties of birds' egs. The Judge who, with the District At torney, did not appear to be familiar with the law protecting song birds, was disposed to be lenient and dismiss the case, but after being enlightened on sundry points by Mr. Quimby and Mr. Wilson, it ended in a fine of $15 being imposed upon the children. It is needless to say there will not be any more robbing of birds' nests in that school.

The John Burroughs Society, after hearing this recital, voted to print 500 copies of the law protecting song birds, and dis-tribute the same, in order to familiarize Judges, attorneys and others with the fact that song birds as well as game birds are protected by law.

The latter half of the meeting was filled with stimulating and delightful talk about Oregon birds. Nearly everyone present had found time during the past two weeks to go bird-hunting with a pair of field-glasses and a note-book, and the resuit of their exploration of country lanes and hedges was a fund of interesting in-cidents, and stray bits of ornithological talk such as nature-lovers delight in.
Arbor Lodge on the road to St. Johns had been visited and found to be the home of the lively, tantalizing, long-tailed chat, that is as full of surprises as a day in April. The black-headed grosbeak, one of the best songsters in America, is also to be found there. There was so much to entertain the visitors that another excursion is planned to the same spot for Saturday afternoon, club mem-bers to meet on the corner of Third and Morrison at 2:20 P. M.

Hing's Daughters to Give Howell's "The Elevator."

Great interest is being manifested in the private theatricals, followed by a dance, to be given at Orion Hall Thursday evening, June 12, by the Trinity Church Circle of King's Daughters. Rehearsals are progressing with zest and enthusiasm, and there is every indication that the affair will be one of the bright est and most entertaining ever given by Portland amateurs. The curtain will rise at 8 o'clock on Howell's absurd farce "The Elevator," which has perhaps been fun than anything he has written. The occasion is a Christmas dinner given by one of Mr. Howell's most delightful women, Mrs. Roberts. The first act is laid in her drawing-room, while the second introduces the audience to a most udicrous situation, which gives rise to no end of funny episodes, the elevator being caught between floors. The third act straightens out the tangle. Following

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"Twa Hours at Hame" Tonight. Gavin Spence, tenor singer, lecturer and delineator of Scotch character, Miss Flora MacDonald, singer of Scotch ballads and lancer, and Professor James L. Moon olper, will appear at the Marquam Grand Theater this evening in a novel entertain ment entitled "Twa Hours at Hame. Their coming is an event which has been looked forward to for some time past with keen anticipation by local Scotch residents, as well as the general public, and a good big audience is assured. The entertainment is to be given under the auspices of the Portland Caledonian and Clan Macleay Societies, and a feature will be selections on the pipes by Professor Moon, who is a Portland resident, so that more than usual local interest attaches to the event. Some good seats are still to be had at the box office.

Return Concert Camilla Urso, the wonderful lady violinist, who created such a furore of pleasure by her artistic playing Monday night at the Marquam Grand, will give her second recital tomorrow (Thursday) evening with an entire change of programme. The Curlo Store,

It is certainly the part of wisdom for the afflicted to give osteopathy a thor-ough investigation. Delay in most every disease is very unwise, the disease rap-ily reducing the vitality and making re-covery impossible. If other means have failed to restore to health, why not try osteopathy? Cases that have baffled the most skillful of the medical doctors yield readily to this treatment.
