PROMINENT EASTERN OREGON SHEEPMAN AND RANCHER.

Coroner's Jury Brought in a Verdict That Death Resulted From Heart Failure.

BAKER CITY, Or., June 12.-Donald McPhail, a prominent sheepowner and rancher, was found dead by the roadside near the town of Durkee, on the O. R. & N. Raiiway early this morning. He was in Durkee yesterday, and left on porseback for his ranch last evening. He had got down from his horse and re-moved a bag of sugar, which he used as a pillow for his head. The verdict of the Coroner's jury was death from heart

McPhail was about 60 years of age, and was quite well to do, having a large band of sheep and other property. Mr. Whit-tier, of Huntington, was interested with him in business. Deceased was a Scotch-man, and so far as known all his relatives reside in Scotland. He will be buried in the Catholic cemetery here tomorrow.

RELIEF CAME TOO LATE.

Two Miners, Overcome by Foul Air, Died After Reaching Surface.

BAKER CITY, Or., June 11.-This morn ing a party of miners who were changing shift, about 5 o'clock at the Baby Mc-Kee mine, near Sumpter, in the Cable Cove district, found J. B. Conroy and Herbert Thomas, who had been working in the long tunnel, in an unconscious state from the effects of foul air. They were still breathing, and the day men carried them to the mouth of the tunnel and sum moned medical aid. Everything possible was done to revive them, but they both died about two hours after they were brought out. There was no evidence of foul play, and the theory is that they were asphyxiated by the foul air caused by the repeated explosions of powder used in blasting.

ACCIDENT IN SAWMILL.

Man's Trousers Caught on Shaft-He Was Seriously Injured.

CORVALLIS, Or., June 12.-Robert Logan met with a scrious accident at his awmill on Greasy Creek, southwest zere, Monday afternoon. He was st ping over a swiftly revolving shaft, when trousers caught on the machinery was jerked downward, and his weigh knocked the rim from the pulley, leaving one jagned-edged pulley-spoke to tear away flesh, muscles and ligaments in the back of his leg from the thigh down. Even portions of the bone were chiseled off by the rapidly revolving pulley-spoke. The mill was stopped in time, perhaps, to save Logan's iffe, though his injuries are

STATE HAS NO POWER.

Cannot Stamp Out Mange Among Horses of Indians.

SALEM, June 12-Stockmen in the vi-inity of the Umatilla Indian reservation have for a long time been caused great loss by mangy horses being permitted stray off the reservation, and mingle with horses on the range. Repeated ef-forts have been made to control the Indians and their horses, on the reservation, but all to no avail, thus far, and the present indication is that the state authores are powerless. State Veterinarian McLean recently made a visit to the reservation to ascertain the extent of the lisease, and reported to the State Domestic Animal Commission that about two-thirds of the horses on the reserva-tion are affected with mings. Dr. Mc-Lean corresponded with United States District Attorney Hall to ascertain what steps can be taken with a view to sur pressing the disease, and the latter official referred the matter to the Attorney-Gen-eral of the United States. After receivreply from the Attorney-General, iall wrote Dr. McLean, saying:

The attorney decides that the State of Oregon has no power to enact or enforce laws for the punishment of offenses committed by Indians upon the Indian reservations, so long as they maintain their tribal relations. So I am bound to infrom you that under such ruling you cannot go upon the Umatilia reservation for the purpose of enforcing the laws for the prevention of contagious diseases, enacted by the last Legislature."

McLean concludes from this that unless other means than state interference can be devised, the contaglous diseases will be perpetuated indefinitely in that vicinity. While at the reservation he secured a piece of skin from the body of a diseased horse and sent it to the Bureau of Animal Industry, at Washington, D. C., so that that department may know the actual conditions, and so as to enlist their aid in stamping out the

the Granite District.

BAKER CITY, June 12 .- John F, Haree, of the Climax mipe, in the Granite district, arrived here yesterday. He says a 19-foot ledge of gold-bearing quartz rock has been cut at the mine. In his opinion it is one of the greatest strikes ever made in the district. At first it was hought the foot wall had been struck, but the find proved to be a large ore body, in a slate formation. When the news of the strike became noised about, there was a great rush of prespectors to that vicinity, and in a very brief space of time every available foot of ground was staked out and location notices now dot the hillsides in every direction.

Good Strikes in Several Mines. Encouraging reports come from the Su-sanville district of rich strikes in several new mines and prospects. The Badger mine is sending two carloads of ore daily to Whitney for shipment to San The new wagon road from Whitney to Alamo will soon be completed. ## FINISHED THEIR STUDIES

TEN PUPILS RECEIVED WHITMAN COLLEGE DEGREES.

Subject of Oration to Class Was the "Whitman Controversy"-Well-Known Missionary Defended.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., June 12.-At Whitman College this morning, Rev. Myron Eells, of Twana, Wasa., activered the annual address on the history of Marcus Whitman, devoting over an hour to a discussion of the "Waitman Contro-versy." Mr. Bells is a son of Rev. Cusn-ing Bells, founder of the college. He is one of the trustees of the conege, and arrived yesterday to participate in the annual meeting of the board. Mr. Eells spoke at length of the criticisms of Professor E. C. Bourne, who gained notoriety some time ago by the publication of a lengthy article in the Acrican Historical Review, under the cap-tion, "The Legend of Marcus Whitman." The objections and criticism were taker one at a time and answered by testimony gathered from every source. Numerous prominent historians were quoted, showng the truth of the Whitman story, and collaterally the facts were substantiated by evidence of pioneers and missionaries ho labored in the field many years ago. For 20 years, Rev. Mr. Eelis has been engaged in gathering facts to demonstrate the correctness of the story of Waitman's early missionary work, his trip to Wash-ington and his efforts to keep the North-west for the United States. He has attempted many times to get from pioneers and people in Missouri facts as to Mr. Whitman's efforts to get a colony to come to Oregon, thus making the most positive proof of the legend. The work has never been given up, for the critics have always asked for proof of the trip to Missouri, and everything possible has been done to get the facts

Referring to this part of the criticism.

Mr. Eells spoke briefly, referring to the facts as he had gathered them. He said: "The next objection is that Dr. Whit-man did nothing worth mentioning to induce people to come to Oregon in 1848. Dr. Geiger's statement is that after the doctor's interview at Washington he sent back word to Missouri to those who wished to go and had it published in the papers and in a pamphlet. The objection has been raised more than once that this was not true, because no such pamphlet and no such statement in the papers has ever been found. This, to the speaker, is objection, for he has lived so long on hlets go so completely out of existence that some are never found, and others by mere accident. It is almost or quite im-possible to find full files of the papers published in the '40s. Even books go to the unknown. For example, I have never seen a copy of 'Palmer's Travels Over the Rocky Mountains, published in 1845-46, a book of 189 pages, although two editions were published, the second in 1852, yet I have searched the East and West to obtain a copy for nearly 20 years. All I know of it is from the testimony of those who have seen it. It is many times more probable that a pamphlet of 1848 would go to the unknown, when those interested in it could not well bring it to Oregon with them, for they had to leave everything rally be thrown away.

"In order to settle this question as far as possible, I have been trying for nearly 20 years to learn what reason caused the immigration of 1843 to start westward. Thus far I have heard from 38. It is not necessary to reproduce the letters of those ploneers who were not in any way influenced by Dr. Whitman to come. names are: Hon. Jesse Applegate, Hon. Lindsay Applegate, A. Hill. Whitman, Nineveh Ford, W. Martin, J. P. Martin, Enoch Garrison, J. Zachary (with several of his neighbors). Miles Eyers, T. Smith, Mr. Ricard, John Hobson, William Waldo and Mrs. C. B. Cary. Many of these letters I have had published in a pamphlet treat-I have had published in a pamphlet treat-ing on this subject. One and all of those coming from men who knew of Dr. Whit-man speak of the work of the doctor, and several of them state that they caused to go West by the pamphlet or newspaper notices of Dr. Whitman sent out for the purpose of interesting immi-

The address made a good impression on the audience, and many new facts were established, while others were corroborated nicely. The matter is considered of great importance to the college, and is held more than a myth by the people, and Mr. Eells, being so closely connected with the work of establishing the Whitman story, is known to be an authority. Commencement Exercises.

The nineteenth annual commencement exercises of Whitman College were held at the college chapel tonight, when a class of 10 were given the degrees of the institution. The exercises began promptly at 8 o'clock, and the chapel was clab-orately decorated with flowers and potted lants The class consisted of three young ladies and seven young men, one of the number, Ross R. Brattain, being absent, He was graduated "short" to allow him to proceed to China to accept a place in a school at Amoy. Other members of the class were: Agnes E. Adams, Clara A. Chittenden, Carl D. BUTCHERS GO ON STRIKE

ABOUT 1100 MEN WALK OUT IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Question at Issue Is the Displaying of Union Cards by Retail Butchers.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.- The strike of the journeymen butchers, which for several days has been impending, went into effect at 10 o'clock this morning, and at noon the strike committee made statement that about 1100 journeymen meat-cutters, slaughter-men and drivers had left their employment. The causes leading up to the strike are unusual and of a unique character. The question at issue is the displaying of union cards by retail butchers. Wages and hours are not involved.

The strike was the culmination of a long controversy. On the one hand the members of the union declined to patron-ize houses which failed to hang out the union card after granting union demands as to the work and wage schedules, and, on the other, the wholesalers, at the re-quest of a majority of the retailers, as they allege, declared that they would reterday the news went out that the Wholesale Butchers' Association had given no-tice to all retailers to withdraw the union card by 16 A. M. today or take the alternative of going without a supply of every shop at 10 A. M. today, save those showing the union card, providing the wholesaiers' demand was not withdrawn. The union butchers report that between 100 and 150 shops out of a total of 250 have retained the union cards, and that about 400 men are at work. The wholesale butchhowever, allege that there will be difficulty in supplying meat to their customers. They will not furnish any to houses showing a union card. The union men insist that they have had offers of ment from the Middle Western States, and that they have turned the matter over to the retailers in harmony with their plans who may obtain their future supply outside of California. The non shops are displaying signs inform ing their patrons that a meat famine need

A polluted blood is always a menace to health; not only does it keep the skin in a chronic state of inflammation, but every organ and fibre of the body suffers from an impure and sluggish circulation. You never feel well, you are not and never can be well until the system is relieved of its terrible load of impurities. With the blood so contaminated, so deeply poisoned, ulcers, boils and sores of every kind are apt to become chronic and often develop into Cancer. Sores and ulcers are most often caused by poverty of the blood and a weak and slow circulation, brought on by long continued sickness, malarial poisoning tornid poisoning, torpid liver, the use of mercury, or whatever is calculated to destroy the vitality of the blood and break down the constitution.
