EARNED THEIR VICTORY

PORTLAND NINE DEFEATED SEATTLE IN LAST GAME OF SERIES.

Score Was Two to Two in Eighth, When Muller Lifted the Ball Over Fence, Scoring Home Run.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 16.—The last game of the Portland-Seattle series resulted today in a well-earned victory for the visiting team. The score stood 2 to 2 in the eighth inning, when Muller, of the visitors, put the ball over the right field fence, scoring Deisel and making a home run. Seattle scored twice in the fourth inning on an error and a two-base hit by Rand. Attendance, 2500. Score:

TOOK THREE OUT OF FOUR.

Tacoma Won Another Game From Spokane—Score, 4-2.

TACOMA, June 16.—Tacoma made it three out of four from Spokane today in a fast game. Glendon was in the box for the visitors, and the home team gave the finest exhibition of consecutive hitting in the first inning, after two men were out, that has been seen here this season. Five clean singles and a double by McCloskey were touched off, scoring four runs, while McCloskey was caught at the plate after a desperate slide. Glendon then settled down, and not another run was made off him. St. Vrain pitched a nice game for Tacoma, being every effective with men on bases. He should have shut them out, as Thielman dropped an easy chance that would have resulted in a double play, after which Spokane scored their only two runs. The fielding feature was a running one-handed pick-up by McCarthy. Attendance, 3000. The score:

Chicago and New York Play Fourteen Innings to a Tie.

CHICAGO, June 16.—Darkness ended today's game, with the score a tie, after 14 innings of all kinds of playing. Three errors, a gift, two steals and a hit started the locals off with three runs in the second. Two singles with a theft and an out gave them the other. Van Haltren spoiled their other only chance by cutting Menefee off at the plate by a great throw. The visitors scored their first two on a pass, a double and a single, and scored two in the eighth by a bunching of four hits. Attendance, 9600. Score:

CINCINNATI, O., June 16.—O'Day was responsible for the defeat of the locals today. In the ninth inning Bransfield was clearly struck out, but O'Day would not allow the deciding strike, and Bransfield then doubled to left. Wagner followed with a long drive to left, on which two men scored after it had been caught. Both Tannehill and Hahn pitched great ball, and the fielding of both teams was brilliant. PLAYED LIKE LOBSTERS.

Fontellas and Yellow Hammers Put Up a Don't-Care Game.

In a game that fairly sizzled with errors and all sorts of play that was not baseball, the Fontellas yesterday covered the Vancouver Yellow Hammers with defeat, that was, numerically, by the score 18 to 6. Three hundred spectators sweltered in the grandstand and shuddered at the horror of the sight on the diamond, fumbles, muffs, passed balls, wild pitches. They saw men stagger to first, hit by pitched balls, saw men get to first on errors, and score on throws that had no semblance of either direction or speed. It was the fiercest exhibition of attempted baseball ever seen on a Portland diamond. If the amateurs had gone out there deliberately to play lifeless, dull, uninteresting ball, the gate money to go to the loser, the result could not have been worse.

Some of the spectators squandered carfare from Vancouver to see the exhibition. They staid through the whole game to get their money's worth. Fans of the old school paid 50 cents to get seats in the grandstand, and felt that they had been touched. They said so, too. They said that the Portland Baseball Club ought to refund the money for letting the aggregation play on the diamond.

The Vancouvers were responsible for the 50-degrees-below-zero frigidity with which the crowd watched the game. Their play was as yellow as the gaudy stripes on their bonnets. They had bees inside that kept buzzing, and when they saw a grounder coming, the added hum of that was too much, and they dodged away. The game knocked the old adage, "Good baseball to play, choose a warm day," into a cocked hat. The day was there, but the players were not. The hotter it got the less ginger there was in the game. The Fontellas early in the game implored Trilby Rankin to call off the slaughter.

The game started out with a nice double by the Fontellas. Tressler had taken first base on a crack in the foot by a pitched ball. Corey sent a ball to Fleming, who, with the assistance of Schmeer and Arch Parrott, retired the two basemen. The fans said they were glad they came. They changed their minds when the Vancouvers took the field and commenced their yellow work. Bases on balls, wild pitches, stolen bases, passed balls, and one solitary, measly hit scored three runs. Then the game went to pieces. The big feast came in the sixth, when the Fontellas sent eight men across the plate. Any old thing went. Hits were made that good fielders could have cut off. A man took first on an error or a base on balls, then usually ambled like a sprinkling wagon down to second; third was his for the taking, and a passed ball was then opportunely arranged by the combined efforts of the battery to send the man home; this in order to follow out the approved baseball tactics of Vancouver: "When a runner gets on a base, advance him around, to get rid of him, so that you can play for the batter." Kane was a strike-out pitcher, but could not field his position or cover the home plate on a passed ball, Harrison, the catcher, was said to be sick, and was later replaced by Joe Stutt, who demonstrated how not to play behind the bat for the benefit of the rising generation of ball players, who greatly admired his work.

The score looked like a crazy patch quilt. Following are the runs by innings:

Company A Beat Ramblers.

OREGON CITY, Or., June 16.—The local Company A team played baseball with the Rambler nine, of Portland, this afternoon, resulting in a victory for the former by a score of 30 to 14. It was late before the visiting club reached Willamette Field, and the game was too much one-sided to be interesting. The Vancouvers will play the local team next Sunday, when an interesting contest is expected.

LARGE FLEET OF YACHTS

OREGON CLUB HAS 30 SPEEDY BOATS AT ITS MOORINGS.

Several Races Scheduled for the Season—Sailors and Rowers Preparing for July 4.

Yachting on the river has taken on new life since the Oregon Yacht Club opened the season in its new clubhouse, near the east approach of Madison-street bridge. Over 30 yachts of various types and sizes are now numbered in the fleet of the club, and they make a pretty sight on the river when they hoist sail at the signal of the commodore and prepare for a regatta. But in the membership of the club the freshwater sailors say there is a Jonah. On every day that a regatta has been announced this season, the wind has been fresh up to the time for starting, when it died down in the most tantalizing fashion, lending truth to the growing belief that there is a "hoodoo" in the club.

Regattas planned for May 30 and June 8 had to be postponed because of the languid laziness of the Willamette breezes. Saturday there was to have been a challenge race for the Friedländer cup, now defended by Wolfe, owner of the Swallow, between the former's boat, Johannsen's Australia, and the Taylor brothers' Owyhee. The wind again failed to come up, and no start was made. There was also scheduled for Saturday evening the first club race for the silver cup presented by Butterfield brothers, a free-for-all contest between the yachts of classes B and C. This cup must be won three times to insure permanent possession, and the winner will also receive a club ensign. "No wind" was the mournful story told by the yachtsmen returning from trying to whistle up a gust of wind.

Yesterday the club took a cruise up the Willamette. Seven of the boats started: General Beebe's Muriel, Commodore Woodward and Catlin's Wizard, Todd's Skylark, Taylor brothers' Owyhee, Clarence H. Jones' Eva, John Wolfe's Swallow, and Johannsen's Australia. Every boat carried a number of guests in addition to its crew, and the cruise was made up the Willamette with a fair breeze until the fleet was opposite Oswego, when the landing was made for a lunch on the east side of the river. Going before the wind was an easy matter, but coming back the narrowness of the river made the tacks small and the progress slow. The river is high at the present time, which was the reason for sailing up the river. When the water goes down the channel will be still narrower, and will offer little inducement for a sail up the Willamette. These club cruises are to be made occasionally during the season. The next one will be taken within several weeks down the Columbia.

The racing schedule of the season is as follows: June 22, July 4, 13, 27, August 10, 24, 31. The Astoria regatta has been set for August 15. A dozen or more boats will go down for the races if the necessary arrangements can be made and inducements as to prizes are offered, as has been customary in the past. Horace Thing, of the Astoria committee, will be in Portland this week to confer with the officers of the Oregon Yacht Club as to its representation in the regatta.

The club is making great preparations for the regatta on July 4. It is expected that the Fourth of July committee will offer liberal prizes for the yachts, which will insure a good afternoon's sport on the river.

The Portland Rowing Club is also preparing a good programme of crew races for the morning of the Fourth. Prizes will also be offered by the Fourth of July committee. With the races offered by these two clubs, the programme of the day will be filled in part by two of the best aquatic events ever held on the Willamette.

Golfers Going to Europe.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The Herald will say tomorrow:

"Amateur golfers, with some pretensions to a mastery over the ball, have planned a trip to Great Britain, which will extend at all events until August, and maybe later. The party will include Walter J. Travis, R. H. Robertson, J. M. Robertson, Devereaux Emmett and Arden M. Robbins. Mr. Emmett is a familiar face at Prestwick and Troon, but the remainder have yet to make their acquaintance with the Scottish links."

Cyclists Thrown at Vailsburg.

NEW YORK, June 16.—At the Vailsburg track today a dozen riders out of a field of 27 entered in the five-mile handicap interclass championship race were thrown; one man, Walter Babb, was painfully injured, a splinter of wood entering his groin. Tom Cooper, of Detroit, finished first in the race; time, 10:23.

The inter-city professional half-mile open was won by Frank Kramer, East Orange, N. J.; Tom Cooper second, H. B. Freeman, Portland, Or., third; time, 1:09 2-5.

Arthur Ross broke the track record, held by Michael, in a five-mile exhibition. His time was 7:51 3-5. Track record, 8:48.

STARTED BY FIREWORKS.

Boston Lumber Yard Burned—Other Fires.

BOSTON, June 17.—C. W. Leatherbe's lumber yard was burned at 1 o'clock this (Monday) morning, and is probably a total loss. It was thought that there were between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 feet of dressed lumber, nearly all of which was destroyed. The fire is thought to have been started by fireworks, as men and boys all through the city, on their way to the Charlestown celebration, have been burning Greek fire and setting off firecrackers.

Twenty-Nine Buildings Burned.

DURANT, I. T., June 16.—Fire today destroyed nine brick and 20 frame buildings in the center of town. The total loss is estimated at $50,000; insurance about two-thirds. The heaviest losses are: B. Scholzberg, dry goods, in whose place the fire started, $12,000; Richie & Childress, building; O. L. Shannon, drugs; Blanton machine shop; J. W. Gallagher, drugs; — Kimbriel, drugs.

Chocolate Factory Destroyed.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The chocolate factory of Runkel Bros. was destroyed by fire today. The loss is estimated at $250,000, with ample insurance. The factory employed 150 hands.

To Prove White's Alibi.

TACOMA, June 16. — The news that Charles Lilly White had reached England has put the friends of the ex-Tacoma painter on the qui vive as to the outcome of the case. For six months they have left no stone unturned to supply the authorities with evidence that White is not the Arthur Blatch who murdered the man named Walsh in Colchester, England, December 8, 1893. As soon as it was learned that White was under arrest, affidavits were secured from residents of Tacoma who had known him here to prove that he had resided here continuously from 1890 to July 1, 1894, and these, with a card showing that he belonged to the painters' union, were forwarded to the prisoner's attorneys, at Wellington, N. Z. But they arrived too late to be of any assistance. Secretary of State Hay has been asked to see that White's interests are protected.

Ex-Senator Pettigrew is credited by the Chicago Chronicle with saying that as between Hanna and Hill as candidates for the Presidency, he would have no hesitation in supporting Hanna. The reports that Pettigrew made a million in stocks must be true; nothing short of a million could have made Hanna a possibility to him as against anybody.

Budget for British India.

The budget for British India for the ensuing year provides, without extra taxation, for a surplus of half a million sterling, after making due allowance for spending two millions sterling on the strengthening of the army, paying the costs of the famine, and increasing the contributions to railway construction and irrigation.

Will Reappar Next Year.

The great brood of the 17 years' locust, according to Professor P. R. Uhler, provost of the Peabody Institute, Baltimore, will reappear next year in most parts of Maryland, north of the Patuxent River. Great swarms of this species may be expected in 1902 between the latter part of May and the early part of July.

No Trouble on the Maine Central.

PORTLAND, Me., June 16.—Quiet prevailed today among the striking section men and coalheavers of the Main Central road. President Wilson tonight returned to Montreal to direct the strike on the Canadian Pacific, which has been called for tomorrow morning.

OLYMPIAN BADLY BEATEN

CHERI WON THE GRAND PRIX DE PARIS YESTERDAY.

Victory of a French Horse Ridden by an American—Tibere Was Second, Lady-Killer Third.

PARIS, June 16.—The Grand Prix de Paris was won by Cheri, Tibere second, and Lady-Killer third.

After two false starts, owing to the nervousness of Olympian, whom Henry had much difficulty in mastering, the horses got away in good shape, with Olympian ahead. Olympian maintained the lead for half the distance. Then, as he was taking the incline, the fast pace told upon him, and it could be seen that he could not stay for the entire distance. Cheri, the winner, Tibere, who got second place, and Lady-Killer, who was third, all passed Olympian coming down the hill into the stretch. Olympian, now hopelessly beaten, fell back and finished next to last. The winner covered the distance in 3:19. Henry, the American jockey, had four mounts in today's races. In two he rode third, and did not get a place in the others.

Although Olympian failed to secure the Grand Prix, Americans here gather much satisfaction from the fact that for the first time in the history of this race the winning horse was ridden by an American jockey. His name is Rigby.

The big American contingent present in the paddock today lost a considerable sum on Olympian, as well as on Henry's four mounts, as the success of Henry yesterday tempted Americans and large numbers of Frenchmen to back him today. In the opening race, the Prix d'Armenonville, Henry's riding of Pile et Face made this horse a favorite. But Henry lost ground from the start, and only succeeded in finishing third, Rigby taking second place on Lieutenant. William K. Vanderbilt's Dauphin did not get a place. The Prix d'Ispahan was won by Mr. Vanderbilt's Dido, Legers, ridden by Rigby, was second, while Monoecicliarx, with Henry up, an equal favorite with Dido in a field of three, finished last.

The running of the Grand Prix produced a splendid finish between Cheri and Tibere, Cheri winning by a head. Lady-Killer, with Lester Reiff in the saddle, came in 2½ lengths behind the second horse. The correct time of the race was 3:19. The betting in the mutuals on the Grand Prix totaled 1,706,840 francs.

The final race, the Prix du Duc d'Aoste, showed Henry again having considerable trouble with Pomme d'Or, on which he won yesterday. Pomme d'Or made several false starts at the post, and finally when the horses got away he was last and 20 yards behind the bunch. He ran well, however, but failed to gain ground lost at the start, and finished fourth. Rigby rode one winner, secured second place in two events, and was unplaced in two others.

Longchamps presented a brilliant scene during today's racing, and more pretty toilettes were visible than for several years past. The weather was overcast most of the time, but there was no rain, and the contest for the Grand Prix was favored by a brief spell of sunshine. President Loubet, accompanied by his wife, drove to the racecourse, with the traditional ceremony, in a four-horse landau with outriders, and escorted by cuirassiers. King Leopold of Belgium, who is on a special visit to Paris to attend the race, was also present, as were MM. Deschanel and Falleres and most of the Cabinet Ministers. The Count and Countess of Castellane were also present.

The victory of Cheri was popular, as he is a French horse, but was a disappointment to a majority of the bettors, who backed Saxon as a certain winner. The betting on the favorite was even. On Cheri it was 14 to 1 against, 30 to 1 against Tibere, 20 to 1 against Lady-Killer, and 14 to 1 against Olympian.

As President and Mme. Loubet left the Elysee Palace, two youths, to satisfy a craving for momentary notoriety, shouted "Vive de Roulede!" They were arrested, but subsequently released.

READY FOR HER SPIN.

Rigging of the Defender Constitution Is Completed.

BRISTOL, R. I., June 16.—The force of riggers, with several members of the Constitution's crew, practically completed the rigging of the Constitution this evening, enabling the crew once more to hoist the yatching ensign, the New York Club pennant and the owner's absence sign. It is now a matter of possibly a couple of hours to get the boat ready for sailing in the morning. The Constitution looked very neat this afternoon with her topmast on end, colors flying and clean decks. An unusually large number of steam yachts and steamboats passed through the harbor today, bringing people from various points to view the cup defender.

Shamrock II at Greenock.

LONDON, June 16.—The Shamrock II arrived at the Clyde this evening, and docked at Greenock. Her mast will be stepped and her spars fitted tomorrow. It has been arranged that the challenger shall sail in two races on the Clyde, one June 27, and the other July 6. Afterwards the yacht's headquarters will be at Lamlast for racing against the Shamrock I.

STRIKE OF TRACKMEN.

Employes of the Canadian Pacific Will Go Out Today.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 16.—All of the Canadian Pacific trackmen will go out tomorrow morning at 6 o'clock, the demand of those in the Eastern division for an increase in wages of 20 cents per day not having been acceded to. Officials of the road state that the granting of this demand would mean an additional annual expenditure of $400,000. Men Made Strong!

CONSULT THIS OLD DOCTOR

THIRTY YEARS CURING MEN

YOUNG MEN who are suffering from the effects of youthful errors, among others showing some of the following symptoms: Nervous and Physical Debility, Varicocele, Losses, Exhausted Vitality, Confusion of Ideas, Dull and Loss of Brilliancy to the Eye, Aversion to Society, Despondency, Pimples on the Face, Loss of Energy and Frequency of Urinating. A POSITIVE and PERMANENT cure is ALWAYS GUARANTEED by OUR "New Method Treatment." You may be in the first stage, but remember you are fast approaching the last. Do not let false pride and sham modesty deter you from attending to your agonizing ailments. Many a bright and naturally gifted young man, endowed with genius, has permitted his case to run on and on, until remorse racked his intellect, and finally death claimed its victim. Remember that "PROCRASTINATION IS THE THIEF OF TIME." The asylum awaits you.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN married or single, who are prematurely old as a result of excesses or youthful follies, and who are troubled by too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, deposits of ropy sediment in the urine, and sometimes small particles of albumen, the color first of a thin or milkish hue and again changing to a dark and torpid appearance, causing nervous debility and loss of vitality. Remember, this is the second stage of LOST VITALITY. In all such cases a perfect cure that remains cured is guaranteed. Consultation at office or by mail free and invited.
