BASEBALL—Portland vs. Spokane, Twentyfourth and Vaughn eth., 3:50 P. M.

IN PLENTIFUL SUPPLY.-The hot weather has caused strawberries to mature rapidly and has also improved the quality of them, and they are coming in now in great quantities. The price is, however, very well maintained, choice berries retailing at 5 cents and good ones at 4 cents, which is as low as they ever ought to get. Some were sold on Front street for 3 cents, but unless the berries arrive in such quantitles that the canneries cannot take care of them, the price is not likely to reach the rulnously low rates of past years. Of course outside berries are no longer com-ing to this market. Puget Sound cities are now receiving their supplies from home growers, but many berries are being shipped to the Grays Harbor country, to Idaho and other distant markets. A very large number of cases of berries change hands every morning at Second and Salmon streets, where growers congregate and retailers go to procure supplies. The streets in that vicinity present a lively scene at an early hour. Some growers get a little more for their berries in this way than what the canneries pay. Other growers who, have no desire to waste time turn their loads over to the commission men and do very well. It is the demand created by the canneries, however, which regulates the price, and if it were not for them berries now would be practically worth nothing. If the very hot weather continues, the crop will now begin to shrink and the prices will keep up. BERRIES FOR BUFFALO,-W. J. Magoon, the originator of the famous Magoon strawberry, "the biggest and the best," called at the permanent exhibit and left a sample case of these berries to be forwarded to Commissioner Dosch at the Buffalo Exposition. If they arrive in good condition more will be sent. Mr. Magoon also had enough fine berries to "put up" two glass jars to be added to the permanent exhibit. These were at once put up, and Mr. Lamberson promptly for-warded the sample case to Buffalo. Mr. Lamberson also visited the canneries of the Portland and Oregon canning comberries and cherries are being canned by the ton, and each company agreed to put up 10 cases of atrawherries and Royal Arm cherries to send to Buffalo. Berry and cherry-growers will please remember sloper Dosch has been anxlously awaiting shipments of these fruits to brighten up and add interest to the Oregon exhibit at Buffalo, which has excited so much and so favorable comment. Now is the time, when daily shipments of berries, cherries, etc., should begin to be made to him, to be followed by other fruits as they come in. All packages will be forwarded to Buffalo at once, free of charge, if left with George Lamberson, at the Permanent Exhibit, 246 Washington

NEITHER HAD CERTIFICATES.-Hing Fou and Joe Ka Toy, arrested Sunday evening as they were about going on board a boat for Astoria on charges of being unlawfully in the country, were examined before United States Commissioner Sladen yesterday. One hailed from Seattle and the other from Astoria. Neither of them had registration certificates, but one said he had one but has lost it. The other one did not appear to know that he ought to have a certificate or to know much of anything else. Deputy Collector of Cus-toms Gallagher, who arrested them, is of opinion that they are newcomers, and that they ought to be deported. This they object to and will contest the point. On motion of their counsel their case was

COMMENCING ON BEECH STREET SEWER Sidney Smyth, of Smyth & Howard, contractors, has returned from Seattle, where his firm has extensive street contracts in progress under supervision of Mr. Howard, and this morning will get work started on their contract for the Beech street sewer system. The work will be in charge of Archie Mason, and as large a force as practicable will be employed. The job includes a main sewer on Beech street extending across the O. R. & N. DR. H. W. KELLOGO WILL LEAVE. While the announcement has not been officially made, it is definitely decided that W. Kellogg will accept the call to the Central-Avenue Methodist Church, of Indianapolis. He expects to take up his work at the Hoosier capital at the beginning of the conference year. He will continue at Taylor-street church until August 1, take his vacation and then start for Indiana. There will be no haste in selecting a successor for Dr. Kellogg. A. M. Smith, Dr. E. C. At the close of the service luncheon will be served in the parish house. At 1:30 P. M. the busies meeting will begin. Reports will be read and addresses made by visiting clergy. A cordial invitation is extended to all interested for the entire day.

WILLOWS FOR GOVERNMENT WORK .- A force of 40 men in the employ of James McIntyre, who had been cutting willows on Sauvie's Island, have been forced to suspend operations on account of high water. The willows are used to form mattresses for the Gray's Harbor jetty and are tied in huge bundles to be shipped as deckloads on the barges carrying rock from Vancouver to the jetty. The work of cutting and tying the willows will be resumed when the waters fall, and is expected to last all this year and next. It seems like a long distance to haul brush, but no willows can be found available at Grav's Harbor,

YACHT RACE TONIGHT.-Weather peritting, 19 yachts will start tonight at 7 clock in the three times postponed race. The boathouse on the Enst Side, just above Madison street, will be the starting point. PRIZES FOR ADVERTISERS. The Eastman Kodak Company Will

Give Away Six Hundred Dollars,

The Eastman Kodak Company believes that good advertising ought to be en-couraged, and with that end in view in 1899 offered $450 in cash prizes for the best newspaper advertisements of dealers handling their goods. In 1990 they increased the prize list to $500, and with several thousand competitors, Woodard, Clarke & Co., of this city, secured second prize in the initial contest and first prize in the second contest. This year the Eastman company has increased the prize list to $600. Both of the prize ads ap-peared in The Oregonian at the time of the contest, and in a circular just issued by the kodak company the following advice is offered to prospective competitors: "In announcing the results of last year's contest we said something about the disat work writing numerous letters on the typewriters, and a great many of the letters were bogus. He did not pay the play of advertising that is worth repeat-ing: "There are evidently many of the dealers who are good ad writers. We wish that the typographical display had been as good as the ideas brought forth in the text of the matter. Display is a matter which is well worthy of attention and good display is something that can only be secured at the price of eternal vigilance and "kicking." The ad writer is too apt to buy his space, furnish the copy and cuts and let the printer "do the rest." This is a mistake, for "composi-tion" is all-important in ad setting, and several competitors whose ads contained splendid ideas failed to win prizes simply because of the poor work done by the
