P. C. CHENEY DEAD.
Ex-Governor of New Hampshire and ex-United States Senator.
DOVER, N. H., June 19.—Ex-Governor P. C. Cheney, of Manchester, died here today. Besides having been Governor of New Hampshire, Mr. Cheney had served as United States Senator, having been appointed in 1886 to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Austin E. Pike, and as United States Minister to Switzerland under President Harrison. Since 1892 he had been a member of the Republican National committee.
H. Matland Kersey Reported Dead.
NEW YORK, June 19.—The World says: "A report reached the White Star Line pier late last night that H. Matland Kersey, ex-agent of the line, had died in South Africa, where he went as a commissioned officer in a British regiment. It was impossible to verify the rumor, and Mr. Kersey's friends were not inclined to credit it. Mr. Kersey was the agent of Lord Dunraven at the time of that nobleman's efforts in connection with the American cup. He retired from the line and went to the Klondike, where he became general manager of the Yukon Steamship Company. He married in 1882 Miss Ivy Wadesford, a California singer, who subsequently obtained a divorce."

Future of the Colorado Fuel & Iron.
FUEBLO, Colo., June 19.—A special dispatch received by the Star-Journal, from New York, says:
The Colorado Fuel & Iron Company will remain an independent corporation. President Schwab, of the United States Steel Corporation, emphatically stated that the corporation never had any serious intention to seek control of the Colorado Fuel & Iron Company. The Colorado Fuel & Iron Company will be let alone in its own field west of the Missouri river.
Presmen's Convention.
WASHINGTON, June 19.—The printing pressmen in their National convention today nominated the following officers, who will be voted on tomorrow: President, M. T. Higgins, Boston; vice-presidents, James E. Callery, Philadelphia, and E. A. Bales, Washington; second vice-president, D. J. McDonald, Boston; R. J. Unger, Denver; R. T. McGrath, New York; secretary-treasurer, W. J. Webb, New York.

NO DUTY COLLECTED
Status of the Russian Petroleum Controversy.
ONLY DECISION BY APPRAISERS
If the Contest Is to Be Carried Further, the Next Move Must Be Made in the United States.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Treasury officials protest against the assumption in some quarters that the department has taken up the question of the duty on petroleum imported from Russia and decided it adversely to that country, well knowing that little or no petroleum is brought from there into the United States. Since the Dingley tariff act went into operation, the officials say the department never has directly passed upon the question at issue. The act itself makes it obligatory upon the authorities to impose a corresponding duty on petroleum or its products imported from any foreign country which imposes a duty on the American article, but the Treasury officials say nothing was done as to imports from Russia until January 1, 1901, when the Board of General Appraisers held that petroleum produced in Russia and imported into England, there refined and then imported into the United States, was equal to the rate imposed by Russia on petroleum imported into that country from the United States, and further, that the provisions of paragraph 521 of the act of July 13, 1897 (the Dingley tariff law), apply to the country where the oil is produced, and not to the country of exportation. This decision, it is contended at the Treasury Department, was the only one which could be made in view of the plain wording of the law. As far as the department knows, not a dollar in duties had been collected on Russian petroleum imported directly into the United States since March 3, it is claimed, taken with any special reference to that country.

The situation is such that the next move must be made by the United States, if the contest is to be pursued. Secretary Gage, in his letter, raises the question whether the Russian Government has not infringed upon the rights of the United States under the treaty of commerce with Russia of 1832 reads: "No higher duties shall be imposed on the importation into the United States of any article, the product of Russia, than those which are imposed on the importation of like articles from any other country." "By levying maximum duties on United States bicycles, and on steam machinery, especially designating them as United States products, the Russian Government has, it is not doubted, made just such a discrimination as is provided against in this article of the treaty. There is no penalty article in the treaty, but under the common practice of international law, a country may denounce the whole of a treaty when it is satisfied that one of its provisions has been purposely broken. If such extreme action is taken in the case, there will be no trade treaty between Russia and the United States, and, as far as Russia is concerned, the tariff, which would apply to all imports from the United States, on the other hand, if such action by Russia is regarded as a violation of the treaty, the Russian Government may, by existing law, exclude any or all imports from Russia.

A PURELY COMMERCIAL MATTER.
Cassini Says No Political Significance Can Be Attached to It.
WASHINGTON, June 19.—Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, in discussing the tariff issue which has arisen between Russia and the United States, said that the issue does not seem to him to be very grave, and he is hopeful that they will be satisfactorily adjusted. He said that the action of Russia was an economic move, pure and simple. Count Cassini said that no political significance could be attached to a matter of purely commercial nature. "Each government undoubtedly is acting according to its view of what the situation requires, and not in any general spirit of animosity," he said, "and regarded as a great commercial matter, and the splendid products of its industry and invention are welcome to Russia. On the other hand, if this view prevails, there is no doubt that American goods will continue to be welcomed in Russia."

INCREASES ITS CAPITAL.
Amalgamated Copper Company Preparing to Buy Butte Mines.
TRENTON, N. J., June 19.—The Amalgamated Copper Company filed papers today increasing its capital stock from $75,000,000 to $135,000,000. The purpose of the increase is to purchase the Butte and Boston and Montana Companies, which is permitted by the decision of the Court of Errors and Appeals yesterday refusing to continue the temporary injunction. The certificate was signed by more than 100 stockholders of the Amalgamated Company, giving their consent to the increasing of the capital stock. Among the signers were: Marcus Daly, 50,000 shares; E. G. Rogers, 30,400; Leonard Leisner, 10,000; C. C. Clark, 10,000; Landon, Thalmann & Co., 10,738; Thomas Moffitt, 5740; Henry Clews & Co., 3530; John W. Sterling, 6500; F. J. Bosworth, 5300; William Rockefeller, 6500; Hugh Grant, 1000.

Transferring the Properties.
BOSTON, June 19.—It was announced here this afternoon that the National Shawmut Bank had received a majority of the shares of the Boston and Montana copper shares deposited for the purpose of the carrying out of the transfer of those properties to the Amalgamated Copper Company. It appears that the decision of the Court of Errors and Appeals was broad enough to reach the last obstacle to the consolidation of Amalgamated and Boston & Montana and Butte & Boston. The National Shawmut Bank immediately began filing receipts in exchange for Kidder, Peabody & Co.'s receipts for Montana and Butte shares, and will deliver Amalgamated shares for the receipts as soon as possible.

Rockefeller Wants an Omaha Bank.
OMAHA, Neb., June 19.—A report is current that the Standard Oil Company is negotiating for the purchase of one of the banks of this city. Several bankers were seen today, and declined to discuss the matter, but denied any knowledge of the negotiations or that they had received offers. President Kuntze, of the First National Bank, said there was a possibility of such a purchase by the Standard Oil interests. It is understood that the company is to establish a chain of banks along the Missouri river, and that the Kansas City and Omaha deals are now pending.

Colonel Haskell's New Position.
MINNEAPOLIS, June 19.—Colonel W. E. Haskell, publisher of the Times, was selected by William R. Hearst to fill the position of business manager of the New York Journal, and will take charge of the business affairs of that paper July 16. Mr. Haskell's paper in Minneapolis will be placed in good hands. Charles E. Hasbrouck, as business manager, will have charge of the property, in association with E. R. Johnston, the present editor. Mr. Hasbrouck's present engagement is as business manager of the Denver Times.

WILL REMAIN THE HEAD OF PHILIPPINES COMMITTEE.
HENRY CABOT LODGE.
WASHINGTON, June 19.—In some sort of a delicate way the Administration has made it known to Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, that he would scarcely be acceptable as chairman of the committee on foreign relations. Those who know the unrecurrent of affairs are aware that the Administration was opposed to Lodge having this place from the beginning. He is a little too much given to twisting the lion's tail, or baiting any other foreign government with whom he personally disagrees. Lodge will not be made chairman of the committee on foreign relations, and that he has come to realize this was shown in a dispatch from Washington which stated that the importance of the next session of Congress would lie in Philippine legislation; and on that account the Administration had indicated to Senator Lodge his desire that he should remain at the head of the committee on Philippines, where he is at present, in order to carry out such legislation as will be necessary in the next Congress. The further statement was made that Senator Frye would become chairman of the foreign relations committee. It was also said that many Republican Senators had requested Senator Lodge to remain at the head of the Philippines committee. This was no doubt true. Whether or not Frye will accept the place offered him is still an unsolved problem. The probabilities are that he will, if James McMillan will consent to become chairman of the committee on commerce.

CONCLUSION OF THE CONFERENCE WAS ASKED:
"Will not your movement only result in turning the state over to the Republicans?"
"I do not know, but I would a little rather the Republicans would win than the present organization of Democrats. As Mr. Bryan said to me last Monday: 'I like an enemy under his own colors better than one who steals my colors.'"
Bryan Not Affiliated With It.
ATLANTA, Ga., June 19.—Governor Johnston, tonight, in response to a telegram of inquiry, received a dispatch from W. J. Bryan denying that he is affiliated with the third party movement. Mr. Bryan's telegram reads: "Iowa City, Ia., June 19.—The Constitution, Atlanta, Georgia, received, No truth in report. W. J. BRYAN."

ALLISON FAVORS SHAW'S CANDIDACY.
DES MOINES, Ia., June 19.—Governor Allison, in reply to a telegram sent last Saturday suggesting the name of the Senator for the Presidency, the letter is purely a personal communication to the Governor, and he does not desire to make the general contents public at the present time. The Governor advised that he would be glad to see Mr. Shaw.
