

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Announcements. BASEBALL—Portland vs. Spokane, Twenty-fourth and Vaughn sts., 2:30 P. M. ONLY ONE BID.—Captain Langitt, United States Engineer, yesterday opened bids for furnishing 250 cords of wood for the garrison at Fort Stevens. Only one bid was submitted. Banfield & Vevey offered to furnish the required amount of slabwood at $2.85 per cord for green, or $2.25 per cord for dry, delivered at the fort. It was thought strange that no one along the Columbia, where there are so many cordwood camps, put in a bid for supplying cordwood. It must, however, be remembered that the people here have been negotiating for supplies of slabwood from Portland; also that when bids were asked for supplying wood for the public schools of this city, the only bid for supplying all the schools came from Banfield & Vevey, and there was no offer of cordwood except for a few of the schools in the outskirts of the city. It looks as if the garrison at Fort Stevens will have to use slabwood or go beachcombing and gather driftwood to burn. The wood question is becoming a serious problem in this wooded country. SMALLPOX STAMPED OUT.—The fact that several persons afflicted with smallpox arrived in Portland several weeks ago, and that before they were taken to the hospital house they had communicated the disease to several other persons, created quite a little smallpox scare for a time. The authorities at once took measures to prevent further spread of the disease and it has been stamped out for the present at least. Five patients recovered from this disease were discharged from the pesthouse yesterday, and there are only three more there, all of whom are nearly well and will be discharged in a few days. There has not been a single death in the city from smallpox this year, and, outside of the three convalescents mentioned, there is not a case in the city. FIVE SEPARATING BICYCLES.—Walter Johnson, a 12-year-old boy, who looks much older, was arrested yesterday by Patrolman Franklin near the Couch School, where he had been taking bicycles apart and making them run. The pupils of the school have been annoyed considerably of late by having their wheels dismantled, and young Johnson is supposed to be the perpetrator, though he tells of another boy who put him up to it. Who this other fellow is he doesn't seem able to tell, and the police consider the case a rather interesting myth in such cases. Walter, who doesn't seem to have any home, was booked on a charge of larceny. Some of the missing articles were found on his person when arrested. QUESTION OF MORAL RESPONSIBILITY.—The question as to how far the keeper of a rooming-house might be responsible for the character of its lodgers was argued before a jury of six citizens in the Municipal Court yesterday afternoon. A Mrs. Rose Woodard had been arrested for keeping a house of ill-fame at the corner of Fourth and Stark streets, and complaining witness being a resident of Montavilla named Austin, whose 16-year-old daughter had been arrested in the place. Counsel for the defendant stated that Mrs. Woodard was the victim of spitwork, and the jury was only out a few minutes when the verdict of not guilty was announced. DEATH OF AN OLD EXPRESSMAN.—James Keech, an old expressman, who has had a stand at Third and Alder streets for several years, died yesterday at his residence, 25 Russell street. He was 71 years old, and had been in good health till within the past few days. In early days Mr. Keech and his brother were prospectors in the Oregon Territory, but the advent of railroads ruined their business. He was a pioneer of California, but has been a resident of this state for a number of years. He has a number of relatives in California, but his only relative here is a sister, at whose home he died. REPORTS TO HOLLAND.—A number of packages of goods, securely wrapped and bound with hoop-iron, and addressed to the Greek Consulate, Amsterdam, Holland, were piled on the sidewalk in front of a grocery store in this city yesterday, and attracted considerable attention. On inquiring what the Greek Consul at Amsterdam was buying in this city, it was ascertained that he had shipped a party of tourists with a party of tourists, and had been so favorably impressed with the canned fruits, salmon and other Pacific Coast products that he had ordered quite a large assortment of them sent to him in Amsterdam. WILL BE DEPARTED.—Wing Yin Dock, who arrived here on the Oriental liner Knight Companion ten days ago, has refused permission to land. He asserted that he was a native-born American, but could not make the customs officials believe it. He then applied to the United States Court for a writ of habeas corpus, and had an examination yesterday, but was not able to adduce any proof to show that he had been born in this country or was entitled to land here. The court directed that he be returned to his own country. He will probably go back on the Knight Companion. OPENING OF BELL STORE.—With a new and carefully selected stock of the finest brands, the Bell saloon, at 236 Washington street, will be opened Saturday night, under the capable management of Nate Solomon. The place was formerly known as Scott's, and the new management will work hard to see that none of the old prestige is lost, but that new laurels are gained. Their friends are asked to call, and will receive a hearty welcome. EXCITED OVER SMOKE.—Chemical No. 1 and hose No. 1 had a lively run yesterday at 430 P. M. to the Union block. First and Stark streets, but freed no fire. A man came running to the engine-house on Second street and said a fire was raging in the third story, but when the boys arrived on the scene, they found no fire. One of the rooms from a defective fire was all they found. The excited man had disappeared in the crowd. INQUIRY FOR GEORGE A. MANCOUR.—Inquiry comes to The Oregonian from Mrs. Elizabeth Mancour, of Okeasa P. O., Neb., for her husband, George A. Mancour, who left home for Portland April 20, and has not been heard from since. He is a master Mason and a member of Elm Creek Lodge, No. 143, A. F. & A. M. CONDUCTOR'S EXCURSION.—Tickets for the great excursion to Seattle next Sunday are on sale at Woodward, Clarke & Co.'s, Southern Pacific ticket office, Esberg-Gunst cigar store and at Union Depot. Price, round trip, $1 only. Train will not stop at Astoria, either way. RIVER OUTING TRIPS TO OREGON CITY and Magone's Park. A ride up to the falls or a day spent on the river bank is the kind of change you need. Boats leave Taylor street dock and Oregon City dock Sunday at 9:30, 11 A. M., 1:30, 3:30, 5:30, 7 P. M. Round trip 25 cents. LEG BROKEN.—An elderly man named Tennant was thrown from his bicycle yesterday afternoon at the corner of Alder and Front streets, and his leg was broken. He was picked up and taken in a wagon to his home on the East Side. BASEBALL TODAY! BASEBALL TODAY! SPOKANE VS. PORTLAND. GROUND TWENTY-FOURTH AND VAUGHN. GAME CALLED TODAY AT 2:30. OREGON CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.—First recital tonight. Secure invitations from Miss Hurlbert, the pupils or music teachers. DOWN THEY GO.—Choice Oregon hams, 12 1/2 cents pound. JOHANNSEN, Seaside, Or., at the same stand, carries everything you want. WEBB'S MERCHANTS' LUNCH, the finest in the city, 225 Wash., from 11:30 to 2. SPECIAL candy sale at Coffman's. KNOWS HOW. Been Over the Road Himself. When a doctor, who has been the victim of the coffee habit, cures himself by leaving off coffee and taking Postum Food Coffee, he knows something about what he is advising in that line. A good old doctor in Columbus, Ohio, who had at one time been the victim of the coffee habit, advised Mrs. Carrie Moran, 162 N. 6th St., Columbus, O., to leave off coffee and take on Postum Food Coffee. She suffered from indigestion and a weak and irregular heart and general nervous condition. She thought that it would be difficult to stop coffee abruptly. She gave up coffee, and Postum must be boiled long enough to bring out the flavor and food value. "His suggestions were carried out and the delicious coffee fascinated me, so that I hastened to inform my friend who had rejected Postum. By the way, she is now using it regularly, after she found that it could be made to taste as nice as it does. "I observed, a short time after using Postum, a decided change in my nervous system. I could sleep soundly, and my brain was more active. My complexion became clear and rosy, whereas, it had been muddy and spotted before. In fact, all of the abnormal symptoms disappeared and I am now feeling perfectly well. "Mrs. David McDonald, a friend, was troubled much as I, and she has recovered from her heart and stomach trouble by leaving off coffee and using Postum Food Coffee. "I know of several others who have had much the same experience. It is only necessary that the Postum be well boiled and it wins its own way."

IN MRS. KINNEY'S MEMOIR.—The memorial meeting tomorrow evening in the First Baptist Church to commemorate the life of Mrs. Narcissa White Kinney will be of interest to all who know her. The music furnished includes some of the best talent in the city. Professor Wilder will give one of his fine grand organ solos. The male quartet will render several selections, and the Mesdames E. S. Miller and F. H. Fleming will sing. Rev. Ray Palmer, of Portland, and Mrs. Henrietta Brown, of Albany, will speak of her life, having known her in early days. The main address will be given by State President Mrs. Helen D. Farford. COMMERCIAL CLUB MUSICAL.—The entertainment committee of the Commercial Club has arranged an excellent program for the members and their friends for this evening. Hubert Reinhardt Miller will sing "The Army and Song," from "Robin Hood," with orchestral and anvil accompaniment. Mr. Miller will also give a selection from Shakes-

MUSICAL CLUB members may exchange their tickets for the Shennah Cumming recital at the Marquam Grand box-office this morning at 10 o'clock. DEATH OF THREE WOMEN. Mrs. J. W. Bailey, Mrs. Aaron Beck and Mrs. Chester Deering. The many friends of Mrs. Frances Jane Bailey, wife of Food and Dairy Commissioner J. W. Bailey, will be grieved to learn of her death at an early hour yesterday morning at her home at Irvington. The deceased had been an invalid some years. In hopes of improving her health she spent a portion of the past winter in Central California, but the change of climate apparently had but little effect upon her condition, and she continued to fade until death came to her relief. The end came peacefully. Mrs. Bailey was a woman of rare quality and pleasurable sensations that alone came into life, where the senses are not jarred by antagonism to the self-conscious realities of life. This fidelity to Nature and detail in the subtle charm that has made the Cummings Stock Company so prime a favorite with all lovers of the real drama, and all who witnessed their productions last April in this city, will be more than pleased to know that they are to be with us in a Summer engagement lasting four weeks. The season will open Sunday night, June 23, at Cordray's Theater, with that celebrated play, "A Lady of Quality," written by Frances Hodgson Burnett, and dramatized by the well-known author and playwright, Stephen Townsend. The play will be cast to the full strength of the company, and will be most sumptuously staged. Mrs. Nichols Will Dance. Mrs. Clarissa Nichols, who will be one of several bright stars in the production of "Titania," which will be given at the Marquam Grand Theater the evening of Friday, June 22, and the afternoon of Saturday, June 23, is without doubt the most finished, graceful and versatile dancer the Northwest has produced. In "Titania" Mrs. Nichols will have an opportunity to show those of her Portland admirers who have not seen her work recently, what hard, conscientious study will do, when backed by natural talent. She possesses, Her dancing will undoubtedly prove a revelation. Among the other principals of the cast are Miss Kathleen Lawler, the sweet-voiced soprano of the Cathedral, Miss Grace Kenner, Miss Ida Jennings, Wesley Hughes and Charles Wilson. These will be supported by a chorus of 50 children. The sale of seats will open Wednesday at the theater.

LEADER OF THE PROHIBITION PARTY.

JOHN G. WOOLLEY, WHO WILL BE HERE JUNE 24.

John G. Woolley, who is the Prohibition candidate for President last year, is now on a tour of the world, and will be in Portland next Monday, June 24. In the evening he will make an address at the Metropolitan Theater. From Portland he will go to San Francisco, thence to Honolulu, New Zealand, Australia, India, South Africa and Continental Europe. Mr. Woolley is accompanied by his wife.

pleasure, the scene between King John and Hubert, Frederick Conrad will give a "cello solo, a gavotte by David Popper, and two songs will be a violin solo by Samuel Driscoll. Driscoll's orchestra will furnish the music during the evening. WILL REPEAT LECTURE.—The address on temperance delivered by Rev. G. W. Gue before the State Sunday School Convention, recently held in Salem, having been somewhat criticised, particularly by those who did not hear it, Dr. Gue has decided to repeat the address tomorrow evening in the Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church, of which he is pastor. As Dr. Gue is a Grand Army man and a hard fighter, there will be no uncertain sound about what he will have to say. His topic will be "Prohibition of the Liquor Traffic: The Only Solution of the Saloon Problem."

BAILEY GATEWAY, DALLES ROUTE.—Daily round-trip excursion boat, leaving foot Alder street 7 A. M. every morning except Monday. Sunday excursions a special feature. Arrive at The Dalles 2 P.
