

SURRENDER OF CALLES

EX-INSURGENT TAKES THE OATH OF ALLEGIANCE.

His Influence May Be Used to Bring About More Surrenders—Arol-Ho's Command Will Give Up.

SANTA CRUZ, Province of Laguna, Luzon, June 23.—General Calles surrendered here today with 60 men and 50 rifles. The oath of allegiance to the United States was administered to the ex-insurgent, Colonel Calles, who fled to the mountains with a portion of his troops, likewise surrendered. Calles did not actively control the populace to bring in all the insurgents in his district. The proceedings of surrender were orderly.

It is reported that a large number of Calles' followers have approached him with the proposition that he issue a strongly worded proclamation declaring all Filipino insurgents who refuse to surrender tomorrow to be considered as bandits, and that this proclamation be published by the insurgent President of every town in Laguna Province.

More Surrenders Expected.

MANILA, June 23.—The insurgent Colonel Arol-Ho, together with a considerable portion of the forces of General Malvar, is expected to surrender to the American authorities at San Jose, in Batangas Province, this afternoon.

It is expected that a military to a civil government of the Philippine Islands, which occurs July 4, the difficulty between the department of the Military Secretary and Civil Service Board over the matter of holding examinations in the civil service for certain civilians now employed by the military department will disappear.

In consequence of the surrender of General Calles, all the insurgent prisoners on Luzon Island will be released, and a report from native sources confirms previous reports that General Malvar will soon surrender.

HAY IS PROSTRATED.

boat races Thursday. This morning a messenger carried to the yacht the news of the death of the young man.

The examination of the remains disclosed a dislocation on the right forehead, a contusion on the right arm and an abrasion on the right leg. A plain ring worn on the right hand was found, and cut. No bones were broken, and there was no external fracture of the skull. In the 60 feet right downward the body escaped striking a balcony one story below and crashed upon the water. The force of the force of a momentum increased by the weight of a man of such large proportions as young Hay.

The members of the class of '98 who are in town, after the examination of the coroner's physician, escorted the body from the undertaking establishment to the private residence of Seth Moseley, of New Haven, where it awaited the arrival of the relatives.

In the college chapel at the morning session, President Hadley, in addressing the students, said that the death of young Hay was as follows:

"The truths of the scriptural text of the value of high idealism of manhood are borne out by the time of his death. He whom we mourn today, his life was not long, but he understood Christian honor, and helped those about him to maintain it. If he had lived longer he would have helped many more."

In closing, Dr. Hadley again referred to Mr. Hay's death as follows:

"The death of several members of the present class, and of him whom we are now mourning, makes this always impressive service, the more solemn, the more sacred."

A reporter of the Associated Press, Dr. Hadley said:

"I knew Mr. Hay well while he was in college. I valued him as a friend. I have been proud of his career."

NEWS BROKEN TO SECRETARY.

Alone in Washington When He Learned of Death of His Son.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Secretary Hay, who has been in the city since the death of his son, Adelbert, within an hour and a half of the tragedy, through Secretary Cortelyou. The latter had been called up on the long-distance telephone at his residence about 5 o'clock in the morning. Proprietor Moseley of the New Haven House, the scene of the tragedy, Mr. Moseley briefly told Secretary Cortelyou of the finding of the body of young Hay, and of the other details of the accident, substantially as they were sent out in the Associated Press report. Secretary Cortelyou hastened at once to the residence of Secretary Hay, who contacted the sad news as gently as possible.

The secretary appeared for the moment to be completely crushed, but rallied, and the chief of the department for the day-for New Haven at the earliest moment. Save the servants, Secretary Hay was alone in his house, as all of his family have been absent from Washington since the secretary's death. Secretary Hay, with Adelbert and her two daughters, had been spending a few days in Cleveland, and from that place went by way of Buffalo, to New Haven, on the shore of Lake Superior, where the family had just settled down for the summer with the expectation that the secretary would join them next month.

There was no one of his own people about him, therefore, to give aid and support when the sad news came to the secretary of State in the early Sunday morning. Secretary Cortelyou, however, was sympathetically helpful, and realizing the feverish desire of Mr. Hay to reach New Haven, he looked up the railroads and time tables, and arranged for an early departure, so that by 9 o'clock Secretary Hay was on a Pennsylvania Railroad train speeding toward New Haven before many of his friends in Washington knew of the calamity that had befallen him. As soon as the president learned the news, however, he dispatched a telegram to the chief of his cabinet to overtake him on his journey northward, expressing in the kindly and sympathetic language which characterizes the president's communications in such cases the deepest sorrow he felt for the bereaved family. Secretary Hay collected himself, but out doubt followed this example and sent a personal letter of sympathy and condolence. The cabinet officers will attend the funeral of Adelbert Hay.

After the secretary's departure and when the news had spread through the city by the morning papers, friends of the Hay family and officials began to call at the Sixteenth-street home to leave their cards. Assistant Secretary Hill was first among the official callers, and later there were many others. During the day nearly all official Washington had left its tribute of sympathy at the house.

Since his resignation from the Pretoria Consularship, Adelbert Hay had entered into no regular employment, though he had devoted himself in part to assisting in the conduct of his father's personal business. However, by the irony of fate, there had just come to him one of those golden opportunities that he had set upon applying himself to when his untoward end came. It had been the proudest recollection of his father's life that he had served Abraham Lincoln as his assistant. So it was to be the lot of Adelbert Hay to serve William McKinley in a like capacity. He had been offered and had accepted the position that had been offered by the president, a place now held by Major Pruden. The latter, after many years' service at the White House, has

"KAHUNAS" AFTER DOLE

HAWAIIAN FANATICS PRAYING THE GOVERNOR TO DEATH.

Legislature Slowly Working on Appropriations—Annexation of Islands to California Proposed.

HONOLULU, June 16.—In a long opinion supplied to the House committee on Judiciary, Attorney Thomas Fitch has expressed the view that Secretary of the Territory Cooper was not legally acting as Governor. The opinion held that Governor Dole's present condition does not constitute "disability" within the meaning of the organic act. The House passed a resolution declaring that the doubt would effect any appropriation bill that might be passed, and requesting Dole either to resign, resume his office or leave commanded since April 23 by her husband, when she encountered a gale on the 22d the captain had great difficulty in handling the ship. The mate, J. Lawrence, was incapacitated by illness. During the 23d and 24th the Thomas struggled through a terrible sea and all the yards of her mainmast were carried away, with part of the bulwarks. The vessel was constantly flooded and the crew was helpless. While the captain and boatswain, Fred Zube, were on the main deck with the main brace, trying to set the lower yard, a wave washed the captain over, and he was never seen again. The yards soon followed, sails and all. When the weather calmed the vessel had three feet of water in her hold. Zube was the only man on board who understood the navigation, and he took command of the demoralized crew and brought the vessel here.

the territory long enough to allow Cooper to qualify. Governor Dole left on the same day for Hawaii. He stated that he would probably be away about two months.

In reference to a report that he had forwarded his resignation to Washington, Governor Dole said the report was untrue. As to his disability he said that he had been advised by his physician that he was not in fit condition to perform the duties of the office of Governor.

The Advertiser publishes a report that "Kahunas" are at work on Governor Dole, praying against him, according to the old native idea of praying people to death.

"Hawaiians believe implicitly in their necromancy and even some of the men in the Legislature say that Governor Dole, now that the 'Kahunas' are after him, is assuredly doomed to at least a state of permanent incapacity."

Circuit Judge Humphreys has given a decision in the case of Acting Governor Cooper and ex-Superintendent of Public Works McCandless, who were ordered to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt in refusing to answer questions put by the grand jury. Both the defendants were dismissed, the Judge sustaining their pleas that their information was received as "privileged" communications.

The grand jury is still investigating the Legislative bribery charges. L. A. Thurston, who was fined for refusing to answer questions by Judge Humphreys, has been released by the Supreme Court on the ground that Judge Humphreys did not first declare him guilty of contempt.

Both House and Senate are working slowly on appropriations. The extra session has now lasted 30 days. It is said that some of the Republicans are working for delay to prevent the passage of any bill at all, in order that the old appropriation bill, which is regarded as fairly satisfactory, may continue in force as provided by the organic act, when no new bill is passed. The House has decided to cut out altogether the appropriation for a National Guard, which means that Hawaii will have no local militia. Numerous cuts and raises are being made in salaries, the race question having much seeming influence. The House threatens to make sweeping slashes in the Board of Health appropriations, on account of the sudden discharge of the board's secretary, Wilcox, a native and a brother of the Hawaiian Delegate to Congress. Wilcox has held the position for 13 years.

The annexation of Hawaii by the State of California is proposed here in some quarters as a way out of the various political and governmental difficulties. The Volcanic and anti-annexation movement, says in an article declaring that Hawaii has not an American Government.

Dr. Starr Jordan, president of Stanford University, has a simple solution of the vexed problem. It is the annexation of Hawaii to California, making it five counties and a Congressional district.

Steamer advices from Hawaii are to the effect that the volcano Kilauea is showing signs of renewed activity. Huge volumes of smoke were seen over the volcano last week from the steamer Mount Loa, 35 miles away, and an outbreak is predicted. This was on the 9th, since no further advices have come from Hawaii.

STRIKE RIOT AT COLUMBIA

SHOPS OF THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY ATTACKED.

In an Effort to Get at Nonunion Men, Four of the Rioters Were Wounded.

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 23.—The Southern Railway shops in this city were attacked at 3:30 o'clock this morning by a mob of several scores of men. No damage to property was attempted except to break through the high fence surrounding the yards. The strikers were after the nonunion workmen, made for a car in which 20 were sleeping. A man whose name is said to be Meyers was on guard. He fired both barrels of his gun into the crowd, receiving himself a 3-caliber bullet in his forehead, but the shot was not penetrated. The mob fired a great many bullets into the car in which the men were sleeping. None of the nonunion men were wounded, but after they had been dragged out of the car they were pretty severely handled. They were marched up the railroad tracks several miles and ordered to travel north.

Later in the day all but one of these men were brought back to the city by an expedition sent out from the shops. It was not until this afternoon that it was known that any of the strikers had been wounded. Close inquiry developed the fact that the wounds of four men, one of whom was seriously hurt, had been dressed by physicians. The doctors and nurses did not know the names of the men. A half dozen police are stationed at the shops tonight, but no further trouble is anticipated.

SHOOTING IN A CROWDED COACH. Negro Picketers Engaged in a Fight, With Fatal Results.

ST. LOUIS, June 23.—A shooting and killing in a crowded coach on the St. Louis and San Francisco today ended in the killing of one person and the wounding of several others and created a panic. Mrs. Samuel Hart, colored, of St. Louis, was killed, and a white conductor, of St. Louis, was shot through the leg and badly cut about the head.

The First Baptist Church (colored) of this city gave its annual picnic at Spring Park, near Pacific, Mo., 15 miles from St. Louis, on the "Frisco Road" today.

The picnic was a slight repetition of the picnic for the park and had proceeded only a few miles when trouble broke out in one of the cars. Frank Williams started the row by making a slight remark about a woman whom Samuel Torans was escorting to the scene of the festivities.

Torans drew a revolver and began firing at Williams, one of the bullets striking him in the leg. James Laughlin, a conductor of St. Louis, was shot through the arm, and Frank Williams, colored, of St. Louis, was shot through the leg and badly cut about the head.

DESTROYING CHINESE FORTS

Valuable Smuggled Out of the Forbidden City Sold to Foreigners.

PEKIN, June 23.—There has been no meeting of the Ministers of the foreign powers at Pekin since last Tuesday, but the Ministers themselves all profess satisfaction with the course of events. The Chinese forts have not yet been destroyed. It has been determined that each nation will destroy those forts now occupied by its troops, but the Ministers find that the respective military commanders object to destroying Chinese forts not occupied by their troops. Consequently, the Ministers will probably have to employ Chinese labor to effect the destruction of the unoccupied forts at the expense of the different powers.

Many Chinese eunuchs have been selling valuables which have come from the Forbidden City. The valuables thus sold were probably passed over the walls of the city to the eunuchs' confederates outside. One beautifully carved table, which was seen in the Forbidden City only two weeks ago, has been sold by a eunuch for 600 taels. No valuables of any kind have been taken out of the city through the gates. These are guarded by American and Japanese troops. It is estimated that the cost of repairing the palace, independent of the valuable works of art which are missing, will reach 2,000,000 taels.

Members of the staff of Li Hung Chang and Prince Ching say that great anxiety is felt regarding the whereabouts and safety of a large quantity of gold that was hidden in the Forbidden City. Certain eunuchs who knew the secret of the location of this treasure have disappeared.

A Tien Tsin Anniversary. TIEN TSIN, June 23.—The first anniversary of the relief of Tien Tsin will be celebrated tomorrow. The Russian and British authorities have publicly thanked the ladies who, during the anniversary of the beginning of the siege of Tien Tsin, decorated the graves of the soldiers of all nationalities.

An Indian's Crime. Enraged by Agent's Treatment, He Killed by Squaw and Himself. AYLWATER, N. M., June 23.—Tom MacCormack, a Wallapai Indian, shot and killed his squaw. He then built a fire and placed the dead body on it, after which he shot himself, falling dead into the fire. MacCormack, who was an educated Indian, objected to the guardianship of the Indian Agent, claiming he was a free American citizen. He resisted the agent's efforts to get him for drunkenness, and while enraged at the officers went to his wigwam and committed the crime referred to. It is understood that the Wallapai are an angry race, laying the crime to the mistreatment of the Indians by the whites, and may cause trouble.

Stevens was stabbed to death, and Webb was seriously but probably not fatally cut.

Mrs. Eddy's Annual Message. BOSTON, June 23.—The annual message of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy by her communications was read today at the Mother Church in this city. The message was in substance a reply to attacks on the church. She defended the belief strenuously, and prophesied the continued growth of Christian Science. The church, she said, now had 21,921 communicants, and since last November 1904 had been added. Christian Science, she said, was the result entirely of her own observations and discovery, and was founded on the Bible. Fully 150 people attended the service during the day.

WRECK OF THE FALKLAND. No Doubt that the Captain, Mate and Four Men Perished.

PENZANCE, June 23.—There is no doubt that the captain, mate and four men of the British bark Falkland, Captain Grace, from Tacoma, January 23, for Falmouth, which was wrecked off Bishop's Rock, June 22, are drowned. The body of Mate Baleston was received this afternoon. According to the stories of the survivors, the Falkland missed stays and was swung into Bishop's Rock with great violence. The ship immediately began to settle down. At the time of the accident the weather was bad and great confusion prevailed on board. Owing to her heavy list it was only possible to get one lifeboat. With the majority of the crew and the captain's wife and child on board, this boat picked up two men who had jumped into the water, but, owing to the heavy sea and to the fact that the boat was already overloaded, the survivors had to turn away from a third man who was seen clinging to a hencoop. Captain Grace and the mate were last seen standing on the Falkland's poop, which was thrown into the water.

After one hour in the sea the St. Agnes lifeboat was sighted, which brought the survivors to St. Mary's Island, where they were provided with clothing and food, as they had saved nothing but the clothes they stood in. A boy who jumped into the sea and was rescued by the St. Agnes, after he had been 23 minutes in the water says he saw Captain Grace and other men jump from the Falkland into the sea, and that they wore life belts. A body seen floating in the water today was thought to be that of the man clinging to a hencoop by those who got away in the ship's boat. The wife of Captain Grace is very ill. The survivors of the Falkland will be landed here tomorrow.

Louisville Grocer Killed Himself After Murdering a Woman. LOUISVILLE, June 23.—The death of H. S. Church on this morning was the second act of a bloody tragedy that began in Louisville three days ago with the murder of Emily Stuart, but which did not come to light until late last night, when the police found a mutilated body of the woman hidden in a closet and in the same house the man dying from wounds self-inflicted with pistol and knife. Several shots were fired from a wound made in his left breast with a 45-caliber revolver and from a slash across his left wrist. On the floor was an empty bottle labeled laudanum. Church died early this morning without making a statement.

In a closet the police found the dead body of a woman. There was a big woman on the right side of her face, a singham apron was tied tightly around her neck. "She was choked to death," said the coroner. A physician said the woman had been dead for some time. The police thought, had been made by the stamp of a shoe heel. The woman was identified as Mrs. Emily Stuart. Mrs. Stuart had saved some money and had recently bought half interest in Church's store. She came to this city from Frankfort, Ky., and was 50 years of age. Church was 55 years old and came to Louisville from Frankfort four months ago.

INVASION OF CAPE COLONY

THOUSANDS OF BOERS SWARMING OVER THE BORDER.

Kitchener Has Made No Report on the Waterkloof Affair—Americans Investing in Kafirs.

LONDON, June 23.—Lord Kitchener has sent no report of the Waterkloof mishap. Recent events in Cape Colony seem to prove the Boer invasion of that country to be perilous. A letter to the Daily Mail, dated Cape Town, June 3, confirms the pro-Boer report and says the invaders number anything from 7000 to 10,000; that they are swarming all over the eastern and midland districts and getting recruits and horses. The Daily Mail remarks that confirmation of these assertions is needed, but if this information is correct the country has been entirely misled regarding the extent of the invasion.

Americans Invade the Rand. LONDON, June 24.—The Johannesburg correspondent of the Daily Mail contributes a long letter to his paper, in which he describes the American trade invasion of the Rand, aided, he alleges, by British agents. The correspondent asserts that American agents are quietly buying up Kafir shares and pushing their efforts in every direction. He says that practically all the mining machinery is already in American hands, and that the effect that there is an American movement to capture all the poorer Rand mines.

Hospital for Consumptives. CINCINNATI, June 23.—The executive committee of the National Hospital for Consumptives, located at Denver, held a meeting today. A donation of $25,000 was reported from C. It is understood that with these donations and others in sight work will soon be completed.

New Kansas Wheat. WINFIELD, Kan., June 23.—The first lot of new Kansas wheat was marketed yesterday. It was soft wheat, tested 62 pounds, and sold for 45 cents. The millers say that the wheat in this section will be better and the yield larger than for many years.
