SHOOTING FOR BIG PRIZES.-The attention of sportsmen all over the Northwest is now turned toward Walla Walla, where the greatest shooting tournament ever held in this region began today, and con-tinues until Saturday. It is open to all the world, and shooters are gathered there from all over Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and British Columbia. Prizes galore are offered, the citizens of Walla Walla having subscribed some $5000 for that purpose. The next great sporting event of the season is the trap shooting tournament of the M. A. A. C. Rod and Gun Club, which will be held in Portland. July 3 and 4, the programme for which is just out. There will be 20 events, as prizes for which $300 in tropales, medals and merchandise are offered, and $500 in cash, and other money. Open to all shooters of the Northwest. The first prize is the handsome gold inlaid and gold-lined cup, now held by J. E. Culli-son. Mr. Cullison has also donated to the winner of the first prize a medal, value $25, as well as $5 in cash. Rates for shooters attending the tournament have been secured as follows: One straight fare for round trip on all Southern Pacific lines entering the city. Northern Pacific and O. R. & N lines one and one-third fares for round trip.

DANGEROUS OUT-OF-SEASON FIREWORKS. The attention of the police is called to a number of young hoodlums who have procured toy pistols and a supply of No. Z blank cartridges, and are anticipating the arrival of the Fourth by cracking the tympanum and endangering the lives of citizens by shooting promiscuously about the streets. Four of them were seen in a gang at the corner of Washington and Second streets. One of them discharged his pistol in the face of or passing Chinaman, and when he began to expostulate the other three opened fire on him, and it sounded as if a gang of cowboys were taking the town. A number of messenger boys have pistols of this kind, and one of them was seen to discharge his weapon point blank at a man as he passed him on his wheel. The cartridges make much more noise than an ordinary firecracker. and are more dangerous in the hands of a senseless boy, who imagines that no barm can be done by a blank cartridge. The public expect to tolerate such a foolishness on the Fourth, but does not wish to be so annoyed at other times. and this nuisance should be put a stop to BENEFIT TEA FOR NOON REST .- For the benefit of the Noon Rest a tea was given yesterday afternoon by the Central W. C. T. U. Notwithstanding the rain, there was a large attendance, and the afternoon was pleasantly spent. The devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Lucy Faxon Additon, the topic being "The King's Royal Insurance Company." The routine business of the Central W. C. T. was transacted and the holding of the regular weekly meeting changed from Monday to Wednesday. A short literary programme was rendered and a paper by an Eastern worker on the future of the W. C. T. U. was read. Refreshments were served by the matron, Mrs. Peake, at the tea table which was pret-tily decorated with ferns and syringus, the latter being the state flower of the W. C. T. U. Much regret was expressed at the absence of the assistant matron, Mrs. Bryant, who was called to Falls City on account of the burning of her home.

BARTENDERS SCORED.-Louis Ricken and Philip Long appeared at the Municipal Court yesterday and made charges against each other. Long, who is a bar-tender in a Whitechapel saloon, testified that Ricken made a disturbance in the saloon, and, on being ejected, threw a brick through one of the saloen windows, causing $5 damage. Ricken, who is a laborer, testified that because he would not treat the crowd in the saloon that Long threw him out and struck him in the face. Witness admitted throwing the brick. Deputy District Attorney Spencer asked that both men be punished, and stated: "In certain Whitechapel saloons bartenders take the law into their own cy are sure the vic-FRUI, UNDER WHEELS.—Fred Day, a lineman in the employ of the Portland City & Oregon Railway Company, met with a painful accident Sunday. He had been at work near the junction of the nearly 20 organized societies on the coast, Mount Tabor and Mount Scott lines, and, with his climbing spurs still on, attempted to step on the foot-board on the tender of the steam motor, while the motor was moving slowly. He slipped and fell between the rails in front of the tender. which passed over him, rolling him over and crushing him. The motor was re-versed and the tender drawn back and Day's injuries were attended to. Then he was taken to the hospital in an ambulance. His injuries, though painful, are not considered dangerous.

Good Outlook for Prunes.-R. K.

Warren, who has a 20-acre orchard back of Vancouver, returned from there a few days ago, after making an examination with a view to the coming crop. He says the Italian prune trees are loaded with healthy-looking fruit and he expects a big crop this year. He has grafted Italian buds to his Petite prune trees, and hereafter the Petite will not appear in his orchard. He regards the Italian as the best prune grown in this locality, but has gone pack on the Petite, having some of last year's Petites still in his possession, STEAMERS AS RAILWAY TENDERS.-Captain E. S. Edwards, inspector of hulls, and George F. Fuller, inspector of steam hotlers, left yesterday for Jennings, Mont., to inspect the steamers J. D. Parrell and North Star, which have been laid up there for some three years. These steamers are powerful sternwheel boats, and it is supposed that the reason for their being put into service is that J. J. Hill is going to build a railroad from Jennings up into the Crow's Nest country, and they are to be used in transporting material therefor.

FIRE.-Fire destroyed the contents of a frame house, occupied by S. Rogoway, southeast corner of First and Mill streets, yesterday noon. Rogoway kept a fruit and vegetable stand on the first floor, and the upper portion of the building was used as a dwelling. The flames originated in a back room, on the ground floor, but how is not known. Damage to building and contents will foot up shout 1500. and contents will foot up about $500.

UNITARIAN AUXILIARY PICNIC.-Members of the Woman's Auxiliary, with guests, will meet promptly at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning, corner Third and Mor-rison, in order to connect with the St. Johns motor for Portsmouth, where the picnic will be held.

PEST WHICH DESTROYS FIR TREES.-A pest resembling a caterplist which de stroys fir and pine trees has been discovered by T. Sharffenberg, a fruitgrower at Mount Tabor. The worm when full grown is about an inch and a half long, is covered with hair of a Brownish color, and has legs. Mr. Shaftenberg is a German, and in the old country was a for ester and gamekeeper. He states that the German name of this pest is kiefern-spinner, which, translated into English, is pinespinner. It attacks pine and fir trees, eating off the needles from the branches. He says they will destroy thousands of acres of forests if not checked, and that they get rid of them and prevent their ravages in Europe by burning down the trees for a distance where they are found in any considerable number, as it is too expensive to kill them spraying, or chemical process. kieferspinners work in the Spring, and they increase rapidly. They spin a web with which they are thoroungly protected from frosts in Winter. The stripping of the branches from fir trees gradually causes trees to die. Mr. Shaffenberg yesterday brought one of the pests and its nests and a branch of a fir tree with the needles eaten off to L. P. W. Quimby, Game and Forestry Warden. Mr. Quimby will send the worm to some of the profes-sors of the Agricultural College for ex-

Lee, secretary of the Portland Press Club, has received a letter from Mrs. E. T. Weatherred to the effect that the meeting of the International League of Press Clubs would not be held in Port-land this year, on account of the inability to make satisfactory transportation arrangements. The convention will, ac-cordingly, convene in New, York on July 16, and the meeting the following year will be held in Portland. The heavy pas-senger traffic east of the Missouri River was assigned as the cause of the diffiulty in making the arrangements for the Western trip.

WILL PLAY AT CENTRALIA.-The Portland baseball nine will leave this morning for Centralia, where they will play the Centralia team this afternoon. The Port-land players bave a hard week's work mapped out for them. They play, in addition to the Centralia game, five games with Tacoma. The postponed game of the first series with Tacoma is to be played off on Thursday. Tinker will pitch in the Centralia game. LARGE HAT WHARP .- Albert & Snyder, who lately built a $6000 wharf and ware-house in front of their property, opposite the O. R. & N. freight depot, have let a contract to Robert L. Pollock for a $19,000 addition to this wharf. The entire dock will cover a space of 150x245 feet. The firm have several hay compressors on its dock, and is evidently preparing to handle hay on a large scale.

INCORPORATIONS .- Articles of incorporation of the Farmers' Mutual Commission Company were filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday by J. H. Kolts, John W. Paddock and Russell E. Sewall; capital stock, $125,000. Articles were filed of the Portland Asphalt Company by J. C. Bayer, J. W. Sweeney and Richard Nixon. The objects are to do roofing, paving, etc.; capital stock, $10,000.

OBEYING THE MASTER. Christian and Missionary Alliance Planted in Portland.

The Pacific Coast superintendent of the Christian and Missionary Alliance has been spending the past week in Portland, and has placed a local society in full working condition. With a strong executive committee and an able local superintendent in the person of Hiram Hill, a Presbyterian minister just arrived from California with his most consecrated and efficient wife, the organization will start hands. They stupefy dupes with vile Berea Mission is rented for the weekly tims have spent all their money, the values have spent all their money. meeting on Friday afternoon at 2:30 the Columbia have not yet abandoned all any ecclesiastical features or tendencies, hope of a good run of salmon, which they and leaves every one's church relations believe will put in an appearance in July and obligations unaffected. The object of the meeting is to afford mutual fellowship to all in the community who hold this "four-fold gospel" faith to afford a time others, and in some places still less. preach the gospel to every creature." There are many Christian people in Portland who have more or less experience in these full gospel truths, and it is believed that the Portland alilance will become another tower of spiritual strength on the coast, like the alliances besides many smaller bands. The out-look is specially favorable for a speedy and important enlargement of this spiritual work all along the Coast. Everybody is freely invited to the local meeting, which will begin under Mr. Hill's charge, in Berea Mission, Second and Jeffers streets, next Friday at 2:30 P. M.

THAT SALMON COMBINE.

Northern Cannery Owners E Route to New York for Money.

Prospects appear favorable at present for the scheme of Mr. Onffroy to form a combine of Alaska and Puget Sound salmon canneries being carried out. The Pacific Packing & Navigation Company, which Mr. Onfroy has promoted, has a capital of $25,000,000, and the object of it is to secure control of all the canneries on Puget Sound and in Alaskan waters outside of Sound and in Alaskan waters, outside of the plants of the Alaska Packers' Asso-clation. Arrangements for the consummation of this scheme have been so far mpleted that representatives of some 17 canneries to be acquired have started for New York with Mr. Onffroy Jr., to get the money for their plants. They started last Friday in a special car over the Northern Pacific and are due in New York Wednesday morning. If they get the money the combine will be an established fact; if not, the business will be off. Among those who started for New York are representatives of the following

Taku Canning Company, Alaska Fishing & Packing Company, Thlinkett Pack-ing Company, Western Fisheries Com-pany, Boston Fishing & Trading Company, Robert Forbes & Co., Icy Straits Packing Company, all of Alaska; Ainsworth & Dunn, Anacortes Packing Company, Carlisle Canning Company, Fidalgo Island Canning Company, George & Bar-

The combine has not acquired the plants of George T. Myers or James W. Cook, and have not attempted to secure any of the canneries on the Columbia all of which are now controlled by a com-bine and four or five "outsiders."

ANOTHER CHILD RESCUED

WAS SOLD BY ITS MOTHER TO A CHINAMAN.

Price Paid Was $35 and a Ticket to Albany-Police Take Forcible Possession of Youngster.

2-year-old baby girl belonging to woman named Bella Wood was rescued from a Chinese joint on Second street between Stark and Oak yesterday fore-noon by Officer Hawley, of the Boys' and Girls" Ald Society, and Detectives Snow and Kerrigan. The Chinaman who runs the place, and in whose wife's custody the child was, answers to the name of Mow.

weeks, in fact ever since the capture of nother child in Chinatown, that Mow had another child in Chinatown, that Mow had had a white child in his possession, and determined to get possession of it at the first opportunity. Consequently they secured a warrant from County Judge Cake vesterday forenoon, and went after the of the Mow domicile, which serves as a sort of cheap Chinese store. They in-formed Mow of their errand, and ther Snow and Kerrigan went upstairs. They tried to gain admittance into the living apartments of the Mow family, but Mrs. Mow refused to open the door. The warrant was read to her through the door, and then the detectives kicked the door in, and took forcible possession of the child. No further resistance was offered. The child was taken to the Home of the Boys' and Girl's Aid Society, where t was given a bath and dressed like

Mow showed the officers a bill of sale which the mother of the child give him nearly two years ago. The bill of sale reads as follows:

Lena Wood was been on the 28th day of June, Lena Wood was born on the 28th day of June,
A. D. 1889, at 5 o'clock in the forenoon. I.
Bella Wood, of Portland, Multnomah County, and State of Oregon, do hereby relinquish and give permission to Quong Chung Lung to adort, educate and raise my girl baby and take good care and to educate her, and I hereby relinquish all my right and title to the girl for all time to come. Witness was hand and seal and time to come. Witness my hand and seal this, the 18th day of July, A. D. 1899. BELLA WOOD.

Mow says that he first established communication with the mother of the child through an old, white-bearded man, whose name he does not know. Subsequently the mother herself called, and sold him the child for $35 and a railroad ticket to Aibany.

Mow has not yet determined whether he will make a fight for the child or not. The Chinese man and woman who had white child taken from them several weeks ago threatened at the time to con test the right of the authorities to take the child, but thus far they have not the child, but thus far they have not made good their threat.

An Oregonian reporter saw the child taken yesterday afternoon. She has a very intelligent face, and can jabber in Chinese at a great rate. Apparently she does not know a word of English. The police do not know who Bella Wood

SHANNAH CUMMING CONCERT

Opportunity to Hear One of the Greatest of American Singers.

The Shannah Cumming concert at the Marquam tonight under the auspices of the Musical Club, is an exceptional opportunity to hear one of the newest and greatest of American singers. Shannah Cumming is in the full freshness of her career, her star is still in the ascendant, she is not passe, all the well-known critics prophesying greater triumphs for her than she has yet achieved. Yet even now she holds the highest-salaried church choir position that Greater New York has to offer. The programme tonight begins at 8:30.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Dainty Ida Jennings. In the Butterfly Queen Miss Jennings has a Butterfly Queen Miss Jennings has a Butterfly Queen Miss Jennings has a Street, Portland. will give a good account of herself. Her specialty will be a pretty solo dance, which is pronounced, by those who have seen it, a gem. Miss Jennings has re-ceived several flattering offers to go upon the stage permanently, and has accepted an engagement with the Florence Roberts Company, which organization she will join at San Francisco in August. Other clever people who will appear in "Ti-tania" are Miss Grace Kanabner, Miss Kathleen Lawler, Mr. Charles Wilson and Mr. Wesley Hughes. These will be supported by a splendid chorus of 56 children. Mrs. H. A. Foreman, who is superintending the production, says the children already have their work thoroughly in hand, so that a thoroughly fin-ished performance can be counted on by Friday evening. The sale of seats will pen Wednesday (tomorrow), at the box office of the theater.

Whisky Got Him Into Trouble. David Smith, a half-breed Indian arrested in Klamath County a short time ago, on a charge of disposing of liquor to Indians, was arraigned in the United States Court yesterday and entered a plea of not guilty. He says he expects a man here tomorrow to furnish ball for him, in default of which he will have to lit in the county jail till the United States grand jury meets next Fall. Smith belongs to the Grand Ronde reservation up the valley, but for some reason wandered out into the Klamath country. He says some of the Indians out there got Long experience, Europe and America and held him up and took a bottle of whisky from him by force, and then in-formed on him for furnishing them whisky. Just what he was doing with whisky in his possession is not known, but if he had not had it he would not now be in
