WEATHER CONDITIONS.

No rain has fallen west of the Rocky Mountains during the last 24 hours.

It is decidedly cooler in Southern and Eastern Oregon, Northern California and Southeastern Washington, but elsewhere the changes in temperature have been small and unimportant.

The indications are for generally fair weather in this district Monday, with cooler weather in Eastern Oregon, Eastern Washington and Idaho. It will be warmer Monday afternoon in Southwestern Oregon.

For Portland and vicinity—Fair; westerly winds.

Western Oregon—Fair; warmer south portion; northwesterly winds.

Western Washington—Partly cloudy, with probably showers near coast; westerly winds.

Eastern Oregon, Eastern Washington and Idaho—Generally fair; cooler; southwest to northwest winds.

EDWARD A. BEALS, Forecast Official.

Discontent as an Issue.

Chicago Tribune.

Even if the party (Democratic) should become the embodiment of organized discontent, it does not follow that the discontented are to outnumber the contented. To assume that this is to be the case is to urge the gloomy doctrine that progress means increased unhappiness. No doubt at times there is profound discontent in some quarters. There was in the years preceding 1896 among farmers in some localities and among workingmen in others. That discontent had its political effect. Discontent in the future will have its influence also. This may be admitted as a matter of course, but it cannot be admitted that acute discontent is to grow in this country more rapidly than contentment does, and that it is to obtain political power and remodel in certain contingencies the present system for the distribution of wealth.

A Berlin professor who has been investigating the subject of green hair among coppersmiths says it is by no means so common as is generally supposed. It occurs only in those who have worked the metal for many years.
