

WAGHNER WON RACE

FINE SHOWING MADE BY THE INDEPENDENCE.

Last Her Topmast at the Very Start—Columbia Finished First, Constitution Second.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 12.—The Columbia again defeated the Constitution in today's race by a margin in corrected time of two minutes and 19 seconds, the Independence being once more last, after losing her topmast at the very start. The Boston yacht, however, sailed such a remarkably plucky race that in being shown off her top gear she is generally believed here that she would have won today's race but for the accident. For 20 minutes after the start she sailed with the wreck of her club topsail trailing astern while the Constitution was motionless, luffed in the wind while the crew cleared away the tangle. All this time the others were speeding along under all sail, yet the Independence was beaten only seven minutes and 42 seconds at the first mark, and sailed the second leg in less time than either of the other yachts, although she carried her club topsails. In the run home the two Bristol boats, under a great press of sail, beat the Lawson yacht a little over four minutes in 10 miles.

This fine showing of the Independence did not in any way detract from the interest in the contest between the two Herreshoff yachts. The Columbia was never headed by the Constitution, and the new boat gave the old one a warm count. The Columbia had the best of both the reaches, but the Constitution sailed the windward leg a minute and a half faster than the boat.

The result of the four contests between these three boats leaves much to be determined, and especially as to their relative merits in anything except light air. Today's race was sailed in a 15-knot wind, the northeaster today being much stronger than the southwest of yesterday.

The accident to the Independence occurred within two minutes after the start, the preventer back-stay breaking near the cleat, so that the topmast, with no support, broke short off. The mast, fortunately, was the mainmast balyards on the stays for the headsails were affected, so that after the wreck was cleared away the yacht was able to keep on.

The race today closed the series, and the yachts will not meet again for at least 10 days, the Constitution going to Bristol, the Columbia to New York and the Independence probably to New London. Of the first events under the Newport Yacht Racing Association, the Constitution won the first two legs, the Independence beating the other yachts by a large margin, while the Columbia won the last two in close finishes with the new Bristol yacht. The Independence carried all every race, although quite near the other two yachts in the last two contests. The official time of today's race follows:

Pin-Blasped Cor'ed Columbia 11:11:26 2:09:23 2:37:57 2:56:49 Constitution 11:12:30 2:10:29 2:38:39 2:58:29 Independence 11:13:20 2:11:19 2:40:00 3:01:10

When the Independence came up into the harbor, after the race, it was found that no one had been hurt by the accident. When asked how much time the accident cost the Independence, Captain Hoff said that it was certainly more than the margin by which she was beaten by the Boston yacht. The big club topsail was hanging and the Constitution was at least 20 minutes and then for very nearly six minutes the Independence lay to in order to get clear of the rigging. All this loss of time, however, was caused by the absence of the big topsail during nearly the entire race, was more than enough to prevent the Independence from winning. This is the first time since the board, Mr. Duncan, manager of the Constitution, had nothing to say after the race in explanation of her defeat by the Columbia.

Thomas W. Lawson issued a statement tonight in which he says: "Topmast gone, leaking badly and four times a leaker, the Independence arrived at Newport tonight with her first series of races in the hands of those who have been with her from her birth, the only ones who really know her—that noble old racing Captain Hoff. It is his duty as her certifying officer, as good a crew as ever trod a deck, her designer, her sailmaker, her rigger, the hand of yachtsmen who have sailed on her, and an elected manager and Frank S. Sprague assistant manager of the Centria Baseball Club.

SUCCESSFUL AIRSHIP

DUMOIT'S BALLOON HAD A TRIAL AT PARIS.

Apparently Under Full Control of the Operator—Will Try to Win the Deutsch Prize Today.

PARIS, July 12.—Santos Dumoit's cigar-shaped balloon, driven by a motor, had a trial today from St. Cloud, across Paris, around the Eiffel tower, and back to St. Cloud. The papers say the trip was quite successful, and that the balloon ascended and descended apparently at the will of the aeronaut. Tomorrow he will make an official attempt to win the Deutsch prize of 100,000 francs offered by Henry Deutsch for a manageable balloon.

Seemingly, the balloon was under almost perfect control from first to last, varying only a few inches from the rope. The average speed was 40 kilometers per hour, and the experiment was made at a height ranging from 100 to 200 meters. The aeronaut came down at a selected spot without damaging the machine.

ALLEGED BOER ATROCITY. Subject Caused a Noisy Session of the House of Commons. LONDON, July 12.—There was a noisy session in the House of Commons, arising from a question as to whether the British women in the Boer camps were the Boers at Vlakfontein. Lord Stanley, financial secretary of the War Office, declared the War Office had no information on the subject, but that the Irish Nationalists backed up by the aid of the Boers at Vlakfontein. Lord Stanley with questions until the speaker intervened. As Mr. Dillon declined to answer the question, a compromise was effected, Mr. Dillon giving notice that he will repeat the question Monday.

Half Not Told. NEW YORK, July 12.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: Referring to the Government's admission that it has information respecting the so-called "Bristol" Vlakfontein, the long letter of June 11, the Daily Mail, whose correspondent was the first to make the news public, states there is only a small portion of the policy of concealment. The British Government, it is alleged, has abundant evidence that almost the whole theater of war is in a much worse condition than the public is warranted to believe. The state of affairs in Cape Colony in particular is described as a most serious nature, due almost entirely to the belief among the Dutch that the constant efforts of the British to reduce them to the state of peace are a mere bluff. While the Government is constantly saying in public that the war will be fought to a finish, they are, says the Daily Mail, continually making offers of peace to the Boers.

Boers Captured a Gun. LONDON, July 12.—A dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, and made public by the Daily Mail, states that the British troops captured a 75-caliber gun at Houtkop, July 11, capturing a seven-pound gun. They were eventually driven off. The British loss was five men killed and seven wounded.

SIEGFRIED PRAISES AMERICANS. But Says Europe Has No Cause to Be Alarmed. PARIS, July 12.—Senator Jules Siegfried, the ex-Minister of Commerce, has arrived here from his American tour. In an interview today, M. Siegfried paid a glowing tribute to the immense commercial and industrial expansion of the United States, which, he said, would be further increased by the system of combinations. He pointed out that the people of Europe must not allow themselves to be too easily dazzled or frightened. He pointed to a well-known trust as an example of capital inflated to twice or treble the cost of the original establishment, and he questioned whether dividends could be paid on such inflated capital. "Americans," the Senator said, "have changed in the last few years, and the commerce is now daily gaining ground. I met with considerable sympathy in France for the liberal economic policy. France must take into consideration the amount of the United States production, which she had overlooked at the time of the Hispano-American War."

Senator Siegfried also referred to the great credit derived from his reception in Canada.

The Canadian Conference. NEW YORK, July 12.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: The Informal Canadian conference in London is virtually at an end. Sir Henry Davies has sailed for Canada, and Mr. Fisher, the Minister of Agriculture, will go to the United States on August 1, and David Mills, the Minister of Justice, in due course. Mr. Mills has been more active than his colleagues, since he has been in London, in connection with the Imperial Office respecting an Imperial Court of Appeal, and Mr. Fisher has also had official work. The results of this visitation are not prepared to be reported.

Political Events in England. NEW YORK, July 12.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: Lord Strathcona was the principal figure at a dinner at Sir J. A. Cockburn and Sir James Willecks, and received the freedom of the city and a sword of honor at the Guild Hall in recognition of his services in World War. The Duke and Duchess of Fife were employed in laying the foundation stone at Passmore, King Edward's sailors' palace, in Commercial Road, London.

London Becoming Tropical. LONDON, July 12.—The heat wave here is becoming more tropical. Londoners are not prepared to believe that they are being visited by a tropical sun. At 10 o'clock this morning registered from 85 to 87 in the shade, but the ordinary thermometers showed several degrees higher. There were many sunstroke prostrations and faintings in the streets, which kept the ambulances busy. The number of omnibuses running was considerably reduced, and the street cleaning and shipbuilding yards were seriously handicapped on account of the enforced absence of the workmen who were suffering from the heat.

Big Dock Fire in London. LONDON, July 12.—A fire at the West Indian docks today destroyed a number of huge sheds, their contents, the damage done is estimated at £100,000 to £250,000. Sugar and timber warehouses were involved in the conflagration, and the dock buildings were damaged, but the valuables were removed in safety.

The Split is Widening. LONDON, July 12.—The fissure in the Liberal party seems to be widening ever, but the Conservative party has little encouragement to these prosecutions that the law, though it long remained unreprieved, fell from that time into desuetude.

SCHOOL OF NAVAL STRATEGY

LONDON, July 12.—Lord Selborne, outlining in the House of Lords today the plans of the government for improving the navy, said it was proposed to establish a school of naval strategy similar to that of the United States.

Lord Dudley, Parliamentary Secretary to the Board of Trade, rather startled the Peers by saying it was clear that Great Britain would have to send her mercantile marine for navy reserves, adding that the number of British seamen was now 500 fewer than it was 20 years ago.

LONDON, July 13.—The Prussian Government in order to suppress the growing eloquence of the Poles in Eastern Prussia, says the Berlin correspondent of the Daily Chronicle, "has arrested 60 leaders of anti-German societies. SMALL GOLD NOT CONVENIENT.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The Treasury Department's reports from New York show that for the first 10 days of July the customs collections in New York were paid 93.3 per cent in gold certificates. The gold certificates in circulation being less than 4 per cent of the total. The figures are abnormal, and indicate that the small gold denominations are not convenient for the payment of large sums of customs duties. In May of this year the gold certificates and coin received for customs were 8.6 per cent of the whole, and in June last they amounted to 57.4 per cent.

The Treasury Department in its preparations for the Fall demand for small certificates, is replacing the United States notes and silver certificates of large denominations with small denominations. In silver certificates the new issues are nearly altogether in $1, $2 and $5 for the present, and in United States notes the new issue is $10. The net issue of United States notes outstanding aggregated $48,000,000 of which the following amounts were in denominations above $10: In $20, $45,224,226; in $50, $3,818,388; in $100, $2,817,500; in $500, $8,999; in $1,000, $28,000. A total of $50,000,000 in $10, $20 and $50 notes in excess of the 10 per cent requirements of the law.

A REVOLUTION IN BUTTONS.

One of the last survivors of the old sumptuary laws, now almost forgotten, but considered of great importance in maintaining order in the clothing trade, was that directed against covered buttons. The town dealt largely in horn buttons of different kinds for common wear, as well as in metal and plated buttons for the better class of coats, waistcoats and garters. From 1720 to the end of the century the town annuals show that there was considerable though fitful seal, under the statute of 3 Anne against the vendors and users of covered buttons. In 1731 a tailor was convicted in a penalty of 40s a dozen for setting covered buttons on a gentleman's waistcoat, and the wearer in a like penalty for appearing in a garment thus adorned. General action was taken against offenders by the master and journeymen button-makers of Sheffield, as reported on any matters before them. In 1731 a tailor was convicted in a penalty of 40s a dozen for setting covered buttons on a gentleman's waistcoat, and the wearer in a like penalty for appearing in a garment thus adorned.
